SATISFIED WITH ORDON.-Mr. Beth Riggs, a ploneer of ISJ and a prominent citizen of Polk County, where he was a member of who Board of Commissioners a member of whe Board of Commissioners for a number of years, returned to Pori-land from an Eastern trip, yesterday morning, and want to his home at Crow-ley this morning. Mr. Riggs left Oregon on November 7, and went direct to St. Louis. After visiting the Louisiana Pur-chase Exposition a few days, he went to La Grange, Ill., his former home, and south to New Oriaans, and came on to Oregon by the soldhern route, storping all along to take notes with respect to all along to take notes with respect to the possibilities of the region he traveled brough, as compared with Oregon. After through, as compared with Oregon. After careful investigation, he returned home better pleased than ever with Oregon. Everywhere he went he found people talking about the Lewis and Clark Expo-sition, and predicts that the number who visit Portland next year will far exceed the expectations of the most sanguine. FIRE WAS INCENDIARY.-That the fire n his grocery store at Twelfth and

Washington streets last Thursday was the work of an incendiary is the firm conviction of F. H. Reeves, and he has offered a reward of $100 for any infor-mation leading to the identity or atrest of such parts. of such party. A clue received sphich may lead arcest of the culprit. has lead 10 th Two claim to have seen a young man rush out of the basament of the store just immediately before the fire broke out and after halting a moment to look around he ran up Washington street. These men were able to furnish the police icading Eastern papers. Orders for The New Year's Oregonian are now reaching this paper from all parts of the United on his track. It is thought by Mr. Reeves that the fire was started as a means of revenge, and it is hinted that this fact, taken with the description of the supdistinctively an Exposition number. It posed incendiary, furnishes a good clue, will contain illustrations not only of the Pronger BEOTHERS UNITED.-Mr. Jacob McReynolds, of Uklab. Umatilla County, came to Portland a few days ago to visit his brother William, whom he had not seen for a number of years. Both broth ers crossed the plains in 1945, from Mis structures. Its subject matter will be of the greatest popular interest. The World's Fair that will be opened in Port-maternal side one grandfather was a loyalist, but he was shot in the leg and taken prisoner, and he thus was con-verted into a rebel, and later foughi for independence. Jacob McReynolds is now in his 80th year, and his brother in of the Fair organization. The New Year's Sist, but both men are well preserved and give promise of many years of usefulness POLICEMAN ROBBED AND House BURNED.-After an examination of the burned home of Special Policeman J. M. Roberts, it is believed the fire was set by an incendiary. An investigation is in progress. Revenge is believed to be the motive for the act. During the fire Mrs. tributed so heavily for the support of Roberts was robbed of $15, which was in a purse in the house. It is not shought anyone but firemen were in the house. They were the first ones in and the out, it is said,

TRADES COUNCIL MERTS .- The regular weekly meeting of the Federated Trader Council was well attended last night, but aside from the usual routine business nothing was done.
