HUNT CHARGES UP

Witnesses Testify About Chief's Payrolls.
Names of Two Officers Alleged to Have Been Carried on Payrolls by Chief While Men Were on Pleasure Trip.

The state grand jury is still engaged in investigating charges against Chief of Police Hunt in relation to his having carried Sergeant L. G. Carpenter and Humane Officer Joseph F. Resing on the police payroll last summer while they attended the races at Irvington track, Salem, Walla Walla and Boise City.

Police Men Not Blameless.
M. B. Keefer, an attorney, was also a witness in this matter and, after leaving the grand jury room, Keefer remarked that the two officers mentioned are not above reproach.

Arabs Pack the Grand.
The Sheik-Hadj-Tahar Arabs have proved to be the greatest vaudeville attraction which this city has ever known. They are not merely acrobats of the highest excellence, but they are true representatives of life in the Far East and they show the religion and customs of their people in a most graphic and interesting manner.

TO GUARD FORESTS

Timbermen Propose to Have State Rangers.
NEW LAW WILL BE DRAFTED.
Commissioner to Be Paid by State and Subordinate Rangers to Be Paid by Timbermen Are Suggested.

To protect the forests of Oregon was the purpose of a meeting of prominent timberland owners and loggers in the state held yesterday in the office of E. E. Covert, Chamber of Commerce building. The bill for the same purpose which was passed by the last session of the Legislature and vetoed by Governor Chamberlain, was discussed and means by which to avoid the Governor's objections were considered.

Timberman Willing to Pay.
The question is merely one of means. The timbermen are anxious to have the law on the side of rangers, whom they are willing to hire, so that they can act authoritatively. The easiest and least objectionable way of securing the arm of the law is all that is being sought now.

State Commissioner Favored.
The suggestion which then followed being more direct and hence more favorable, is to have the rangers appointed by the Governor who should acquire themselves with the condition of the state and appoint rangers where necessary or requested. The second is to have some county commissioners elect the County Judge, ex officio the chief fire warden in each county, and leave it to him to appoint forest rangers and permit for the setting of "slashing" fires.

Rangers to Watch Fires.
He would appoint rangers at the suggestion of timber-owners and clothe them with police power. They should have all the power that, by the other plan, would be delegated to the County Court. Settlers would have to come to the rangers for permits for setting fires, and they would have to keep close watch on these slashings so that they were put out completely. They should also post on the roads and trails through the forests notices of the penalties for leaving camp fires burning.

Governor Objects to the Expense.
Governor Chamberlain has been expecting some such movement as the present and has informed local timbermen that he has included in his message to the Legislature a section in which he repeats his former objection to a law which adds upon the state the expense of supporting forest rangers whose duty it is to look after private timber.

Slashing Will Be Regulated.
The fact has not been forgotten that it is absolutely necessary to burn and slash a great deal of land each summer in order to clear the ground, and provision will be made in the bill to be drawn to meet this demand. Slashing will be permitted, but not under conditions which are likely to lead to the destruction of other timber. Mr. Muckle said at the meeting that the terrible forest fire on the Coweman in Washington two years ago last summer after private timber.

Clearly a Double Assessment.
LAKEVIEW, Or., Dec. 24.—(To the Editor.)—I run my sheep in Harney County during December, January, February and March and the other eight months of the year I run them in Lake County. And last March they were assessed in Harney, and when I brought them back to Lake in April the assessor of that county assessed them also, claiming them to belong to Lake County because they are in that county eight months, while in Harney four of the year. My residence is in Lake County, where I lamb, shear, dip, etc. Will you kindly advise me which county can legally tax me in the same way as there is a great many here in the same case myself and local taxpayers differ in their opinions.
