STUCK NOSE IN SAND. Steamer Northeastern Pound- ing to Pieces Off Hatteras.

ENTIRE CREW WAS RESCUED. Waves Extinguish Fires Under Boilers, and Peril of Death From Ignition of Load of Petroleum Is Averted.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 29.—After being imprisoned on the wrecked oil steamer Northeastern nine miles off Cape Hatteras for 24 hours, Captain Waidner and his crew of 21 men were taken ashore at noon today by the crews of the Kin- nakeet, Creeds Hill and Hatteras Life-Saving Stations.

It was 11 o'clock and before day had come the gale that had swept over the country from the Middle West had struck the steamer, and waves were crashing over the helpless vessel con- stantly.

DRUMELZIER IS A WRECK. Captain Abandons Her When Danger Becomes Too Great.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—With her signals of distress and her half-masted ensign still flying, the steamer Drumelzier was abandoned tonight as a total wreck by her captain, and a dozen of the ship's crew were taken off by the craft and landed on Oak Island by the crew of the Fire Island and Oak Island life-saving stations.

At 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon the captain decided that it was unwise to remain longer on the ship, which was being terribly buffeted by the heavy seas, and asked immediate rescue from the crews of the near-by stations, who at once responded to his signals, and after a hard struggle, the men were taken off and landed at Oak Island.

LETCHER ARRIVES IN OHIO. Ohio Democratic Committee Holds a Secret Meeting.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 29.—In response to a call issued by Chairman McKinley, the Democratic State Committee held a secret meeting here today. It is said that the real purpose of the meeting was to head off the plan of the Bryan men to secure control of the organization for next year.

Quarterly Military Function Held Last Evening an Unusually Auspicious Event. Portland's contingent of Uncle Sam's soldiers-in-waiting held the fort last night at the Armory when they appeared for their quarterly inspection before Colonel C. U. Gantenbein.

THE NEW YEAR'S OREGONIAN. The best advertisement for the 1905 Fair that Oregon's people can send to their friends in the East.

ed by the trumpeters the galleries of the Armory were filled with admirers of America's volunteers, and the fact that their boys in blue met with the common derision of "play-soldiers" made them none the less enthusiastic.

TRYING TO HEAD OFF BRYAN. Confession of Alleged Accomplices Connects Him With Arson Case.

BRYAN, O., Dec. 29.—The greatest sensation in Williams County for years was made public today on the arrival of George Letcher, the alleged firebug, in care of officers who kidnaped him from the officials in California, where he had escaped.

CANNERY CHANGES HANDS. Portland Man Gets Alaska Property for $40,000.

The sale of the Chatham Bay, Alaska, salmon cannery to George T. Myers, Jr., of Portland, was confirmed yesterday by the United States Court officials in Seattle, according to a dispatch.
