The Multnomah County grand jury will report today. Indictments are expected against Mayor Williams and Chief of Po-Hunt. It is known that the grand jury has had in its possession since Saturday blank indictments covering maleasance in office, and it is the positive belief that the report will charge the Mayor and Chief of Police with this of-fense. Indictments have already been voted against City Engineer Elibott and Contractors E. M. and E. W. Riner, and Contractors E. M. and E. W. Riper, and it is rumored that City Attorney McNary and District Attorney Manning may be included in the list. It has been learned that the last message sent by Emperor Nicholas to General Stoessel vested the commander of the Port Arthur garrison with discretion aty powers and urged him to exercise them rather than allow the defense to go to the last ditch. This may account for the apparently brief time required to conclude the negotiations between the Russian and Japanese commanders, no time having been occupied in communicating with Emperor Nicholas. It is quality certain that General Stoessel did not surrender without previous authorization. Offer of Peace May Come. THE ESMOND. Differ of Peace May Come.
