EVANOGRISTIC MEDITINGS.—The meetings under Mr. Gillam were well attended yeaterday, and the interest is deepening. His talk to the ministers was searching and belpful, as he followed Dr. Gilbert and
Dr. Heffe. Last night the Congregational Church had a large audience and the evangelist has aiready won the confidence of the Christian people. His afternoon talk on "A Divorced Life" opened up the subject of consecration. He said:
"Consecration is God in you, living out through you to touch the world and make it better. Consecration is defined as being separation, and no one has this separation if they have an unforgiving spirit. It is impossible to look finte God's face and say "Forgive me my trespasses," if you will not forgive others their trespasses. A true Christian will not have the critical spirit, will not be unjust, snakelike in life. The true man or woman will much prefer to put a little insignificant pink in the buttomhole of a person while he is alive than to send great bouquets to the funeral when he is dead. Consecçation is a definite act and need not be repeated. It is necessary to come to God for renewal of power, but not to give over what has already been given." He will preach today at 2:30 P.
M. in the Taylor-Street Church on his own personal history, taking for his topic
"How I Passed From Skepticism to Christianity." He also speaks at the First Congregational Church at 7:20 P. M.

DRANK WHILE FATHER IS DYING.—While William Taylor lay dying of a cancer, his son and two women drank and caroused in the home at 411 Glisan street. After drinking claret until badly intoxicated, the trio set out for a stroll. They became so noisy and so obscene in the course of their journey that a policeman arrested them and sent them to jail. All are charged with disorderly conduct. At the station the names of the women were given as May Reed and Priscilla Moore. given as May Reed and Priscilla Moore. William Taylor, Jr., was given a cell in the prison, and the women were placed in charge of Matron Simmons. William Taylor, the father, is aged 68 years. He has been slowly dying for months, having a cancer of the face.

WILL MEET THE POSTMASTER.-Business men of East Portland will meet Postmas-ter John Minto this afternoon in the office of Studebaker Bros., on East Morrison street, at 2 o'clock, to discuss the reopening of Postal Station A as it was before it was discontinued several years ago. The petition circulated asking that this be done has been signed by all business firms in this pertion of the city. It is estimated that these firms, which omprise all the implement houses, are oning several militon dollars' worth of unsiness a year, and the petition is con-idered as strong as it can possibly be.

WANTS STREET COMPLETED .- Complaint is made that the north side of East Burn-side, between Union and Grand a enues. side, between Union and Grand a enues, is torn up and left in a disrupted condition, causing great inconvenience to the public. Peter Zimmerman, doing business on East Burnside street, said yesterday morning: "I am surprised that the contractor should be allowed to tear up a portion of the street, and leave it in that condition, to the great inconvenience of the public, when repairs should be finished up at once. Such conditions should not be telerated anywhere." not be telerated anywhere."

TO REBUILD GRAND-AVENUE ROADWAY. The elevated roadway between the outh line of East Stark and the north line of East Oak streets is to be rebuilt. To meet the cost of the improvement, property between East Morrison and Burnside streets will be assessed. CARRED A FORGED CHECK.—A young woman clerk in the store of A L. Sparks at Selfwood cashed a check for $10 offered by Sam Waller, according to a report made to Captain Moore last night by Policeman Isakson, and she will have to make good the sum herself. The check was one of many forged by the young man, admittedly. For this check, the report stated, Waller will be charged in the courts.

DEATH OF MES. LITTLE SURFE. - Mrs. DEATH OF MRS. LATRIE SUEEF.—Mrs. Lizzie T. Sueff died at her home in Kern's Fark, on the Mount Scott branch of the Oregon Water Power & Raifway Company, Sunday night. She was 44 years old, the wite of Charles Sueff, and left two children. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock, from the Church of the Precious Blood, Montavilla.

Won mt W. H. Galvani.—The Swami Ram Society, which is maintaining two Hindoo students at the Oregon Agricultural College, on New Year's eve disposed of an old-fashioned hand-woven, hand-dyed Virginia coveriet. The prize was won by William H. Galvani. The coveriet, which was made with great toll and patience, is highly prized by the winner. Hasty Messanger Company was robbed of $\frac{1}{2}$. Manager Nyo believes the robbery was the work of discharged boys. Entrance was gained by means of the transom. The police were notified, and Detective Weiner is working on the case.

AGITATE MONTAVILLA'S INCORPORATION.

There was a small attendance at Oddfollows Hall, Montavilla, hast night, of those interested in the movement to incorporate Montavilla with the city. The meeting adjourned without making arrangements for another conference, and did not elect a permanent presiding officer. C. H. Burton presided, and the committee's report praying the County Court to take steps so that an election be held to give voters a chance to cast their verdict one way or another, was accepted. This committee was appointed to draw up a chariter. H. B. Dickenson, chairman; B. W. Butler, Harry Young, C. H. Burton and F. Willard.

Postowerics Encourse BROKEN.—One of the New Year's offerings presented by Portland to the world at large and the United States in particular is the unprece-dented business of the local postoffice. All former records of the Portland postoffice was broken last month with the sale of was broken last month with the sale of stamps amounting to $40,635.94. This sale shows an increase over December, 1905, of 17.7 per cent, and will undoubtedly place Portland high in the list of those postoffices with an increase of business. Bor Causes Thousem at Dance.—Guy Furguson is only 19 years old, but he procured sufficient liquor last night to make him desire to fight. He created trouble at a dance given in an East Side hall, and as a result was lodged in the City Jail. The complainant against him is J. E. Raber, one of the managers of the dancing school. Today an effort will be made by the police to ascertain where the young man got the intoxicants. made by the police to ascertain the young man got the intexicants.

AT OUTS WITH SHERIFF. County Commissioners Clash With Tom Word.

War has been declared between Sheriff Word and the members of the County Commissioners Court, and the Sheriff avers that he will not permit the 30 pris-oners who have been working on the rockpile near Linnton to be taken out until things have been settled his way. The Sheriff has been receiving 17% cents each for the noonday meal furnished to these prinsoners, and the County Court recently made an order that, commenc-ing January I, the smartle by even the recently made an order that, commenc-ing January I, the guards be given the contract for furnishing the midday meal. Instead of the Sheriff. The latter will still furnish the men with breakfast and supper, and receive the usual compensa-tion for these two meals. The food for ner is taken to the rockpile camp and ked there, and it is as easy for the cooked there, and it is as easy for the guards to supply the prisoners as the Sheriff. The guards, Johnson, Briggs and another man, recently asked an increase in wages. They have been receiving $75 such per month, but they assert that the work is arduous and worth much more. Instead of increasing the wages of the guards the County Court decided to permit them to furnish the meal at noon to the prisoners, and make what they can out of it.

When Sheriff Word was apprised of the change he said emphatically that the change he said emphatically that the rockpile gang will not leave the jail. The men did not work yesterday, and the excuse given by Jailer Grafton for their men did not work yesterday, and the excuse given by Jeiler Grafton for their mot design so is that it was a legal bolling. The dispute will probably be taken up by the Sheriff and Judge Webster and the Commissioners today and be settled. The County Commissioners says Sheriff Word's bills are much in excess for the past five months than were those of his predecessor. W. A. Storey, for a like period of time. The County Court has held up items in an office hill of the Sheriff amounting to $20, because no vouchers accompanied the bill. In the tax department there is an excess of expenses of $21 in five months, compared with a similar period in the administration of Sheriff Storey, and $234 in the jail. Mr. Lightner alleges that the total increase has been about $200, and says Sheriff Word is always wanting something which costs money.

Fifteen years and more ago I saw George Walker singing and dancing in the barber shops of a little Kansas town. He shined shoes in those days, and did not shine them well. He was known as a tolerably triflin' young colored person who would rather cut up didoes and plunk a banjo for nothing than work for money. He finally went out with a patent-medicine faker to amuse the crowds while the jail. liceman Austin, assisted by James Breyman, at First and Morrison streets last night, and was locked in the City Jail by Captain Moore. The prisoner was charged with disorderly conduct and with being drunk. He will have to appear before Municipal Judge Hogue today or forfeit 25 bail.

Special Policeman Austin was attracted to the scene at 7:20 o'clock by seeing Phelps siapping a woman, who proved to be Mrs. Phelps. When the officer placed him under arrest Phelps rose up in all his might and fought. The battle became so farious that Breyman, who chanced to be passing, was called by Austin to assist in conducting the prisoner to headquarters. Phelps fought all the way to the station, crying lustily that he was secretary of the Federal grand Jury, and vowing vengeance on the police force and others. He was unwilling to go quietly to a cell, and had to be escorted by Bergeaut Hogeboom. He screamed for a short time, after which he calmed himself.

Following her husband came Mrs. Phelps, deeply humiliated at his conduct. It developed that they had planned going to his home at Gold Hill last night, but that he had expended the money they intended for the purchase of transportation, leaving them without funds.

"Well, you ought to have served out your time, like a man, but you've done the proper thing now, anyway," said the Captain.

Davis was locked up for the night. Today the police will communicate with the proper officials and notify them of the attent of Davis in giving himself up.

truth of the costumes. It is presented by a large company of clever people, who dance gracefully, sing splendidly and act well when emergency requires. In ad-dition, "In Dahomey" has Bert Williams and George Walker, two of the most successful entertainers, white or black, who were ever followed by a spotlight. Practically, the same performance as was given at the Marquam last night to an audience which overflowed capacity.

is said to have completely inpect the royal dignity of Edward VII, when given at Buckingham a few months ago. It packed the Shaftsbury Theater, in London, for eight months, and kept New York in a happy frame of mind during much of the building of the subway.

Just to look at Bert Williams is to laugh, while the magnet-lem and grace of George Walker, with his John Drew clothes and blazing dishis John Drew clothen and blasing dia-monds, is sufficient inducement to fill the theater. The two are an admirably adapted team. They are excellent folis for each other. Williams looks after the low-comedy end of it. He is the fun-niest "nigger" on the stage, not except-ing Lew Dockstader, while Walker does the "swall count" to a king's taste. He the "swell coon" to a king's taste. The dusky company with which they have surrounded themselves is fully up to the best musical comedy standards. The principals are far above the average, and the chorus is composed of handsome colored girls who sing splendidly and move like clockwork.

Practically all the musical numbers are "hits." The song "I May Be Crazy but I Aln't No Fool," which Williams sings to an almost unilmited number of recalls, to an almost unlimited number of recalls, comes first. The audience last night went wild over it. Walker's "Me an' de Minstrel Ban" has more swing and ginger in it than anything sung here this year. "When the Moon Shines." by Richard Conner and the company, and "Society." as sung by Eila Anderson, a magnificent soprano, were fine enough for any production in the country.

Nothing but superlatives can describe the wonderful grace of Aida Walker's dancing, and the specialty. "A Dream of the Philippines," which she and George Walker (her husband), gave, assisted by the company, is beautiful.

TO IMPROVE MONUMENT SQUARE Association Decides on Plan for Beautifying the Grounds.

Captain Edward Martin, President M.
L. Pratt and other officers of the Lone Fir Monument Association, visited the cemetery yesterday, and decided on the improvements to be made to Monument square. Considerable work has already been done there in the way of grading about the monument, and it now remains to build the concrete wall around the en to build the concrete wall around the en-tire ground, seed the lawn and set out variegated flowering shrubbery, so that there will be bloom almost the year-around. Captain Martin, who has full charge of the improvements, reports that six iron ornamental benches have been donated to be placed about the monument. These will be ready whenever the ground is prepared to receive them.

It is estimated that these improvements will cost about $200 and will be started to his home at Gold Hill last night, but that he had expended the money they intended for the purchase of transportation, leaving them without funds.

BIG SALE FOR NEW YEAR'S

OREGONIAN EDITION IS IN GREAT DEMAND.

Postoffice is Rushed Handling Thousands of Copies Sent Away to Advertise Lewis and Clark Fair.

The New, Year's edition of The Ore gonian surpassed the most sanguine hopes of those who planned it. Its success is largely due to the fact that unusual in terest is exhibited in the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, its chief topic, and to the excellence of its typography, illustrations and contents.

As an advertising factor it will undoubtedly prove of very material benefit to the Exposition, inasmuch as it is being mailed so extensively that it will reach even the most remote parts of the world. The special edition was received by the people with much enthusiasm. The demand for papers was so pressing that it was found necessary to run off a second edition. Business among the juvenile news merchants was of an un-precedented nature. Hardly had the lads filled their arms with copies of The New Year's Oregonian and left the office before they were back for additional copies Throughout the day their cries of "Ore gonlan, all ready for mailin", could be

A continual throng hustled and bustled in an effort to obtain papers, and in rare instances were the purchases for but one copy. Sales of ten and 20 copies were frequent, and many persons left orders at the office for larger quantities. Consternation reigned in the mailing-room of the postoffice at Sixth and Burn side streets. Never before in the his-tory of the office was such congestion known in the newspaper department, and the New Year's edition of The Oregonian was responsible for it. Paper after paper was thrust through the mail chute until a great pile of New Year's Oregonians was strewn upon the floor of the postoffice, and as soon as these could be removed to the canceling beach, the pile was replenished.

Great sacks, filled exclusively with Oregonians, were stacked head-high all around the mailing-room. "And all this." in the words of Postmaster Minto, "is but the beginning."

Toward evening wagons from the outside mail boxes arrived, and their quota of New Year's Oregonians compare fav-
