KUYKENDALL-MILLS COMBINE

Alliance is Backed by Republican Organization of State and Multnomah County-Carter and Kay Not Dismayed.

To elect Dr. W. Kuykendall, of Eugene, President of the Senate, and A. L. Mills, of Portland, Speaker of the House, the Republican organization of the state, which centers in Multnomah, and also which centers in suthomas, and that of this county, are working to pull away votes from E. V. Carter, of Ashland, and T. B. Kay, of Salem. But the Ashland man and the Salem man announce they are in the fight to stay and that they are confident of success. The strong influence behind Dr. Kuykendall with the making itself evident. strong influence behind Dr. Kuykendall and Mr. Mills is making itself evident throughout the state, however, and as the lawmasors come to Portland they perceive Multnomain's power. By the end of the week nearly all will have visited the shrine in this city.

With Multnomal's 20 votes in the Legsiature the managers of the KuykendallMills movement say that this county will he able to bring enough pressure to bear on other counties to secure their organ-ization of the two houses. They say that Multnemah's two delegations will be solid and proof against foreign engagements. and able, through their power in legislation, to secure their ends. They point out that the one cause of Multnemah's failure to organize the Legislature two years ago was split delegations. aver that as Multnomah pays nearly one-third of the state taxes and sends more than one-fourth of the Republicans to the Legislature, it should exercise its full Inasmuch as Kuykendall prerogative. Inasmuch as Kuykendali seems in a fair way to win in the Senate, his election, say his backers in this county, will help Mills' election in the House, because members of the House will see that their advantage lies in courting the

Carter and Kay Undismayed.

But chiefs in the Carter and Kay camps say they are not dismayed because, as they assert, their friends cannot be pulled nway. That's what Mr. Carter said has night and what Mr. Kay said on his last visit to Portland and in subsequent dispatches from Salem.

Strong efforts are being put forth to ally Eastern Oregon, for with Mills, especially those who are friends of M. A. Moody, but it is understood that not much uccess has been attained yet in that di-ection. Among those who have been ought after in the last two days by the omah workers are Steiner of Lake, Kiamath, Grant and Crook, and McLeod of Union and Wallowa, both of whom are in Portland. Steiner is reported to have reaffirmed his allegiance to Kay, while McLeod has been noncommittal as to his

Mills Boomers Confident.

However, the Mills boomers are very confident of their ability to bring down the game, for they declare that Kay is deceived as to the promises which he has received. It is very evident, however, that the contest is going to be so close that the winner will escape defeat as if by the skin

W. I. Vawter, of Medford, has a bunch of some six votes, which he says will aid him to secure the Speakership, but they will probably come into play in a com-bination with Mills or Kay. Both the Mills and the Kay confingents are ar-ranging for an alliance with Vawter, so that the Jackson man will have a very fine chance to filrt. Mr. Vawter is ex-pected to return to Portland tomorrow, whence he flew to Snokane several days whence he flew to Spokane several days ago, so 'twas said, but rumor has it he went to Ebastern Oregon to pay his re-spects to certain gentlemen whom he has

Proposals have been made by him to the political leaders in this county, and have been taken under advisement. Their counter proposals have been received by him for the same kind of rumination. When he gets back, things promise to be doing, for Kay is expected to be on the ground with a bid of his own. The probabilities are that Vawter can deliver more votes to Kay, however, than to Mills, because three of his supporters have already signified to Kay their willingness to go to the latter's camp for second choice for the latter's camp for second choice for Speaker. They are believed to be Gray and Sonnemann, of Douglas and Jackson, though it has been reported of Sonnemann that he would never support Kay. Vaw-ter's two other votes, besides his own, those of Von der Hellen, of Jackson, and Hermann, of Coos, are understood to be at his disposal, though it has been re-ported of Hermann that he and Kay are not friends, on account of a disagreement at the last session of the Legislature. Carter boom concerns those hope that Multnomah might go to Vaw-ter, because it would be manifestly impos-sible for Jackson County men to be chiefs of two houses of the Legislature.

Twenty-Six Votes Name Speaker.

The number of votes necessary for a augus nomination is 28. Of these Multomah will give Mills 12 if the House delegation shall be a unit. Therefore Is more will be needed, and to get them Mills' supporters in this county are now at work. The Washington delegation of three members is feeling the pressure as much as any other, for attempts are un-seration to have been made to line them ap. Reports received from there yester-say said that such attempts there would certainly fall insofar as one representa-tive was concerned, and that all three had given their promise to Kay in writ-ing. Carter of Benton and West of Yam-hill and Tillamook and Mayger of Columhis are also sought after by the Mills camp, but are said by the Kay people o have allied themselves, as bave the nembers from Washington. Miles of sambill is another of the solons whose allegiance is claimed in both camps.

E. V. Carter has put up at the imperse had that number already in sight. To acky for somebody, Mr. Carter replied

Mr. Carter Calls on Frank C. Baker.

Not for me," and said that he would urely sit in the President's seat in the senate under the painted picture of Dr. Senate under the paint of the living McLoughlin and in front of the living picture of Dr. Kuykendali. Mr. Carter added good-naturedly that while he did not expect to receive the solid vote of Multnomals County, still be believed it would not be united against him. He called on Frank C. Baker in the course of the day and said solemnly to that big chief of the Republican hosts of Oregon: "Mr. Baker. I have called to give you do not need it: still I should like to ave it."

Whereat Mr. Baker perceived that Mr. arter was smiling and guessed that he was joking.

"Ha, ha." laughed the chairman.

"No, I'm very serious," protested the man from Jackson, but Mr. Baker replied that he could be of no service, since his jurisdiction was outside of Multnomah County.

Success, "In Dahomey." This afternoon, at 2:15 o'clock, a spe-cial matinee will be given at the Marcial matinec will be given at the Marquam Grand Theater, when the famous colored comedians, Williams and Walker, supported by the best company they have ever brought to the Coast, will present their latest success, "In Dahomey." This, the greatest company of "colored folk" in the country have delighted two crowded houses at the Marquam the past two evenings. The last performance will be given tonight. given tonight,

"The Last Word" at the Columbia. "The Last Word," which has made such favorable impressions at the Columbia this week, is commonly mentioned as being a comedy, but, while the element of wit and numor doubtless predominates through out the play, there is at the same time much of the story of real life of every body's life with its traces of sorrow and anxiety. The plot, by that great master playwight, Augustin Daly, is strong and original, being especially well rounded out by the clever members of the favorite stock company. "The Last Word" all this week at the Columbia.

"The Show Girl" at the Empire. "The Show Girl," which continues at the Empire for the balance of the week, with a matinee Saturday, has much to rec-ommend it to lovers of light comic opera. It is a catchy, tuneful play, cullivened with a number of good specialties. The girls are attractive, prettily costumed and gift-ed with good voices. From beginning to end the play is filled with clever bits of music and dashes of rollicking fun. The octette song and dance has much of the witchery of the famous double sextet. Throughout the whole performance come the swish of the sliken skirts, the patter of nimble feet, the gleam of pearly teeth and glimpses of shapely figures.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Advance Sale Today.

To see Shakespeare's delightful com-edy, "Twelfth Night," acted exactly as it was in the days of its original performance under the direction of Shakespeare himself, is the novel en-tertainment designed by Ben Greet to be offered at the Marquam Grand next Friday and Saturday evenings. On Friday and Saturday afternoons "Every-man" will be given in response to pop-ular demand, and these performances will be given at popular prices.

Those who have already been impressed by "Everyman" will welcome the opportunity to see the Ben Greet players in something less serious; for these accomplished English players are as well known in their own and in the East for their delightfully humorous portrayals of Shakespeare's comedy characters as they are for their wonderfully reverent performance of religious "Everyman."

As Friday night happens to be twelfth night after Christmas, Mr. Greet has selected the comedy of that Greet has aciected the comody of that name, as it is his custom to revive this play on January 6, each year. Ben Greet will be the Malvollo, said to be his best part. Erick Blind will be Orsina; Constance Crawley Viola; John Sayer Crawley, Sir Andrew; Sydney Greenstreet, Sir Toby; Helena Head, Olivia; and Agnes Scott will be Maria. The advance sale of seats will open this morning, at 16 o'clock.

Rudolph and Adolph.

Broadhurst and Currie will present that sparkling farce, "Rudolph and Adolph" at the Empire Theater four nights next week, starting Sunday matinee. It is one of the few plays that can be seen more than once and be enjoyed at each perce. It will be pr company of clever comedians, including Harry Price, Harry West, A. C. Whale, Edw. H. Ward. E. A. Kelly, Oscar Latck-Henry, so a performance of marked degree of perfection may be looked for

West's Minstrels Tomorrow.

Tomorrow (Thursday) night at the Mar-William West's big jubilee minstrels will be the attraction. The great feature this season which Manager Ricaby offers his patrons is no less than Frederick V. Bowers, the famous author of "Because" and "Always," and many other world-famous songs. It is safe to say that there are very few plano in American that have not one or more of Mr. Bowers' songs on it. This great singer and author was for 25 weeks the star feature of Kiraify's great Louisiana. Purchase spectacle at the St. Louis Fair.

"The Holy City" Next Week.

The impression is rapidly spreading abroad that the production of "The Holy City" at the Columbia next week is to be something out of the ordinary. A great amount of means and labor has been expended during the past two weeks on the piece, and with the large stage of the Columbia to work on, results can well be expected that will astonish the patrons of this beautiful theater next week. "The Holy City" will be open next Sunday af-

The biggest hit ever made in vaude-ville is the act of the Okabes at the Star Theater. They are seven marvelous Japanese acrobats, two men and five small boys. The feats of contortion are wonderful, the juggling and magic sur-drising. One of the most entertaining features of the act is the foot juggling of features of the act is the foot juggling of one of the elder Japanese, who tosses one of the boys about as carelessly as if he were a rubber hall. The Molassos in their whirtwind dance score another bril-liant hit. "Count's Personal" on the projectoscope is killingly funny. Dr. Irvine, in his case against Bishop Talbot, had gone to St. Louis for the purpose of withdrawing the presentment and asking permission of Bishop Tuttle to make a new presentment, proves to have been erropeous. Mr. Jenkinson was at his office today, and said he spent the night in his home in West Philadelphia. Herbert Noble, senior counsel, was out of Herbert Noble, senior counsel, was out of the city, and most of those directly inter-ested in the case could not be found. One of the presenters, however, who asked that his name be withheld, stated that it was not the intention to withdraw the document filed with Bishop Tuttle, but that additional charges would be filed against Bishop Taibot. Mr. Noble has given up his hotel apartments, and his present headquarters are unknown.

Mr. W. B. Bodine, chairman of the board of inquiry appointed by Biehop Tuttle, was not at home, and it could not be learned whether he has received the statement from the vestrymen of Huntingdon, Pa., withdrawing their sig-natures from the presentment. This committee will wait on the amusement committee and present its plans for the coming tournament. Al-rendy they count on having fully 500 trapshooters who, through letters and trapshooters who, through letters and by promises, have agreed to take part in the shoot and at the same time bring their families to Portland for the Fair. In connection with the open tournament will be the annual North-west shoot. The trapmen have figured that in all there will be a week's shooting. The first three days will be devoted to the big Northwest shoot, which slone will bring to Portland which alone will bring to Portland several hundred people, and then the last three days will be occupied by the tournament open to all comers. The members feel that the honor of the Portland shooters is at stake and they will bend every effort in making the tournament and the reception to the visiting trapshooters a great success Since the club lost its grounds near City View Park, it has been without a place for its traps, but Ben Selling and Joe Simon have given the club permission to use a plot of ground in Vernon, however. The traps and the clubhouse, which are at City View Park, will be moved to Vernon and within the next couple of weeks the new shooting grounds will be ready. It is the intention of the club members to spend $2000 or more in fit-ting up these grounds and installing new and up-to-date traps. The traps have been ordered from the East and are the best that money can buy. The clubhouse, while it will not be an elaborate one, will be very comfortable. A shooting-shed will also be built, so as to protect the trapshooters from the weather in case it should rain dur-ing the time when some of the squads are at the traps. Most of the prizes which will be given during both the Northwest shoot and the big tourna-ment will be cash. There will also be ment will be cash. There will gold and silver medals given.
