ASSURES ADDED ATTENDANCE

Southern Pacific Company Will Exploit the Lewis and Clark Exposition in All Its Advertising Literature.

The movement started by the Western division of the Southern Pacific for the advancement of the Lewis and Clark Exposition through advertising, has been taken up by the affiliated lines of the Bouthern Pacific system, and their new literature, timecards and publications are all filled with prominent announcements of the coming Exposition.

By this means the Exposition will be advertised in every town through which these railway systems pass; magazines and periodicals read throughout the United States, Canada and England will

The new timecards of the Southern division of the Sunset route of the Southern Pacific have been received by the railroad people of this city, and these railroad people of this city, and these especially give particular prominence to the Lewis and Clark Exposition as a desirable destination for a Summer trip. The Northern Pacific on the one hand, drawing from the Northern States, the Southern Pacific on the other hand, drawing from the Southern States, and the Union Pacific drawing from the Middle West, and, by its affiliated lines, from all parts of the East, will bring to Portland and the Exposition next Summer, through the medium of extra inducements as to rates and advantages of the trip, many thousands of people who, perhaps, would not visit the country but for the energy displayed by these railways.

Vies With Northern Pacific. Vies With Northern Pacific.

The advertising of the Southern Pacific for 1905 is as broad as that mapped out by the Northern Pacific. The Southern Pacific, through the periodicals and newspapers of the Southern States, will inform the public of that part of the country of the beauties and value of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, as the Harriman lines will through the great magazines of the Bast and the papers of the Northern States and of the Middle West. It will be a small number of people who, between the present time and June 1, will not be made acquainted with the scope be made acquainted with the scope and mans of the Exposition, and the ratiand passe of the Exposition, and the rain-roads are to offer such inducements in rates that thousands, with a natural de-size to see the Northwest, will kill two hirds with one atone and see the Exposi-tion at the same time.

BIG BANDS AT EXPOSITION. Music Committee Will Make Addltions to Present List.

Next week there will be a meeting of the music, will confer with that beay and award contracts to the bands which are to be canaged for the Exposition. It has been four months since W. M.
Ladd and Richard Scott were appointed by the Exposition corporation to divide the $40,000 offered by the Exposition as livestock prizes, but no report has been made, and the stockmen do not know how to go to work to prepare for the compe-tition. They have stated in communica-tions to the Exposition management that it is necessary that the announcement be made within a short time, in order that they may have time enough to decide what they are to display for the several awards and in the different classes.

Mr. Ladd has stated that as yet no list has been drawn up, but that a list of figures had been prepared and turned over to the directors. Mr. Scott leaves Satur-day for Denver to attend the National Livestock Convention, and it is necessary that a meeting be held soon. An attempt to hold one today fell through. However, Mr. Scott and Mr. Ladd got together yea-terday afternoon and begun the prepara-tion of a list of prizes which will probably he completed and turned over to the directors before the middle of next week. COLORADO GETS INTO LINE. Governor Peabody Recommends Par ticipation in Portland Fair. Governor James Peabody, of Colorado, has announced in his annual message to the Legislature that he favors participa-tion of that state in the Lewis and Clark Exposition. It is expected that during the coming session of the Legislature an appropriation will be made for a state exhibit.

Although no action on the subject has as yet been taken, it is believed that the State of Colorado will erect a building on the Exposition grounds in which to house her displays. It was thought, some time ago, that in view of the heavy expense Colorado has been put to during the past two years through the trouble with the miners the state would not be able to make a representation, and Governor Peabody's recommendation, therefore, comes as a pleasant surprise. Whether a state pavilion will be erected is a matter of conjecture, but it is settled that the state will at least make a creditable exhibit. The display of this state will be a valuable addition to the Exposition

The Governor suggested that much of the material used at St. Louis be transferred to Fortland, and that new exhibits and displays be gathered to complete the representation. In the message Governor Mickey stated that there are many ties binding the Oregon Country to Nebraska, that both states have, to a great extent,
the same interests, and that to retain her prestige it was necessary for Nebraska to make an excellent showing at the Exposition. The Governor asked the Legislature to make a reasonable appropriation to defray the expenses of participation. It is understood that a bill will be introduced immediately to this end, and that its passage will be rushed, that commissioners may be appointed and preparations be made at once for the Nebraska display. branks display.

Money on Hand Insufficient to Care for Countless Fry Now in Hatcheries Too Young to Be Freed for Months.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 5 .- (Special.) -- That funds available for hatchery work in Oregon are not sufficient to meet the Master Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen, filed with the Fish Commission today. Mr. Van Dusen says that the balance in the fund has been dwindling from year to year, and while he does not expressly make that recommendation, the inference is that it will be necessary for the Legislature to revise the schedule of fees for fishing and caming it centes so as to provide revenue for operating hatcheries. The report filed today is not become a so as to provide revenue for operating hatcheries. today is not the annual report of the Fishery Department, for that report was filed some time ago, covering the statistical year ending September 20.

OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 5.-(Special.) Clayton S. Seamann, who recently brought suit for divorce from his wife.
Blanche Seamann, making sensational allegations, today filed a reply to Mrs.
Seamann's answer which was equally as sensational in its character as was the complaint in the character as was the complaint in preferring charges of infidelity. In his reply Dr. Seamann admits the fact of his marriage to Mrs. Seamann, but denies the charges of undue intimacy with an actress named Mable Gray, and insists that he at all times provided Mrs Postal Receipts of 1904 Show Great Beamann with ample means for her sup-port, notwithstanding her statement to the effect that but for her relatives she would at times while living with Seamann have been without the necessaries of life. Great Northern Takes Road.
