What Enlarge Water Plant—J. C. Scott, of the St. Johns Water Company, announces that the company will greatly enlarge the plant early in the Spring, and lay many thousands of feet of new mains. The mains will be laid during the Winter and the other improvements will be undertaken in the early Spring. The improvements will include new and larger pumps and another elevated water tank. Last year the company more than doubled pumps and another elevated water tank.
Last year the company more than doubled its mileage of water mains, and still did not reach all the districts that wished for water. There is also a demand for fire protection in St. Johns and more powerful pumps are needed. Six fire hydrants are to be placed in a short time by contract with the city. In order to meet any reency the mains have been conne with the pumping station of the Portland woolen mills. In case of accident or heavy draw on the water supply for fire

POSTAL STATION SPINS ASSURED.— Through the support and efforts of Post-master Minto the movement for a fullfledged postal station in Central East Portland is now considered reasonably assured. It will likely be established much sooner and on a larger scale than at first expected. Inspector Hall, to whom the matter was referred, favors the re-estabmatter was referred, favors the re-establishment of a station with 100 lock-boxes. One thing which has helped the movement is the probability that the establishment of a full station in East Portland will somewhat relieve the main office. It is desired that the new station should be as near East Morrison street as possible.

ANOTHER STATE SOCIETY.-For the put f organizing a Michigan Society in ty, a meeting of the former residents of Michigan who are now in Oregon has been called to meet in the lobby of the Council Chamber in the City Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. There are large numbers of Michiganders here. Social and other advantages are to be derived from the organization of these state socleties, and much can be done toward maintaining headquarters and receiving Michigan visitors at the Lewis and Clark Fair by the concerted action of the Ore-

Federal Grand Jury Does Nothing New.

Long List of Witnesses Have Been Summoned to the City, and Interesting Developments Are Expected at Early Date.

The Federal grand jury is either tired or has not yet been able to get a second wind for the last lap of the race it has been running so long. Tuesday it had a abort forenoon session and spent the afternoon in viewing the beauties of the Lewis and Clark Fair grounds; yesterday it discussed the size of men in the forenoon and held a short session in the afternoon, adjourning at a o'clock until 10 this morning.

It is a hard thing to guess just what is going on in the juryroom from the witnesses who were examined yesterday. Horace G. McKinley, who has made so many trips into the presence that he no longer seems to mind the experience in the least, was the first witness of the day. He was followed by S. A. D. Puter, who in turn was succeeded by Elliot Hough Hough was the private clerk for Commissioner Binger Hermann when that gentleman held the position at the head of the General Land Office. Hough is supposed to be able to tell a good deal about the lose of the records which Her-mann says contained his private corre-spondence and which he ordered destroyed at the time of his removal from the Land

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown, who met and loved beneath the shades of the virgin pines in II-7, were aroused from their slumbers by Balliff Humphries a short time before II o'clock by the order of District Attorney Heney, who, when they were brought before him, gave a little lecture on the ability of the Government to run the investigations now being con-ducted, and sent them away in peace, for the time being. It is alleged that the time will not be long, however, until the name of both Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be attached to official documents charging each of them with the crime of conspiracy against the Government.

There are no new developments in the land cases, so far as is known, and the Government will not return any impor-tant indictments for several days yet to come. A large number of witnesses have been summoned to the city to attend the investigations and many are now waiting their tufn to go into the juryroom and tell what they know to connect other men yet unhinted at with llegal practices. It is said great things will yet come out of the little room in the Postoffice building, but if this is so, now is the calm before the storm which is soon to break.

KRIBS SELLS LINN TIMBER LAND

Entire Interests Have Been Purchased by Minnesota Man.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 11 -- (Special.)-Frederick A. Kribs, the Portland timberand dealer, today deceded all his timber-land dealer, today deceded all his timber-land in Linn County to Charles A. Bmith, of Hennepin County, Minnesota. Decem-ber II, 1804, Kribs filed a deed in the County Recorder's office in Linn County transfering a one-fourth interest in his Linn County holdings, consisting of 18,584. acrvs, to Smith. This morning he filed another deed transferring the remaining three-fourths interest. The consideration mentioned in the deed was $10. By these mentioned in the deed was $10. By these deeds Kribs disposed of all his Linn County property, including some of the best timber land in the world, which he has been years in accumulating.

It is supposed that the fact that Kribs' timber desiings are supposed to be under the investigation of the Federal grand jury is responsible for this transfer. Kribs has been operating in timber-land transactions in this county for the next sevcletics, and much can be done toward maintaining headquarters and receiving maintaining headquarters and receiving and Portisand all his life, being the young-gen residents from the Lewis and Clark Fair by the concerted action of the Oregon City. #### Smith Buys Douglas Timber.

ROSEBURG, Or., Jan. 11.-Three deeds ROBEBURS, Or., Jan. II.—Inree deeds were filed for record in the County Clerk's office in Roseburg yesterday conveying ownership in a total of $250 acres of timber land in Douglas County from Frederick A. Kribs to C. A. Smith, a millionaire timberman of Minneapolis. All but 160 acres of this land is situated in township Il south, range 5 west, one deed dated October 24, 1909, conveying 4270 acres, and the other dated April 1, 1964. The remaining 100 acres lies in the ad-joining township No. 2, and the deed con-veying the transfer is dated December 11. Madame Gadski will again be head in Portland on Wednesday evening at the First Baptist Church. The sale of seats opens Saturday morning at 10 c'clock at Ellers Plano Store, on Washington street.

Firemen Busy Last Night Running to Little Fires.

Four fire alarms called out the department last night between 8 and 9 o'clock. The first was from Fifth and Stark. It was a false alarm. The second was from East Oak and Ninth streets, as was also the fourth. Assistant Chief Holden and his men turned out to both. One was the residence of Mrs. Browning, 9 East Oak, caused from a defective flue. There was no damage. The other was in the house occupied by James Simons and family. It also originated from a defective flue. It also originated from a defective flue and there was no damage. The third alarm was from the North Pacific Mill, Twenty-second and Thurman, and was answered by Assistant Chief Young and his men. A small blaze in a pile of sawdust was quickly extinguished with no damage.

William Harris was aged 78 years. He was born near Nashville. Tenn., but when quite young his parents died and he went to San Francisco in 1847, with a party in search of gold. He soon tired of that adventerous life, however, and shipped on a vessel for Portland. He landed in Oregon City, which was then the only settlement. Later he went to Butteville and finally took up a donation claim near Ontario, where he lived 52 years. His wife died 25 years ago, and since then he lived a very secluded and lonely life. The pioneer frequently visited his sons, H. E. and W. E. Harrie. ### A Trained Nurse Speaks Out

Trained nurses as a rule are a fine lot of women, and if they were men would make magnificent soldiers. They are trained to obey to the minutest detail, and it is seldom that one can be got to express an opinion on any remedy, being content to carry out the physician's orders. Speaking on the subject, one of the best-known nurses of Pittsburg, Pa., said: "I only recall one case where I felt called upon to speak right out and tell the doctor what I thought. been called in to attend an old lady suffering with chronic constipation and whose enfeebled condition precluded the use of cascara, rhubarb, Heorice or other powerful purgatives. The doctors were giving the patient large doses of olive oil without any appreciable result. I ina laxative, though mild, it was exceed-ingly sure. To my delight the doctors after consultation, prescribed a bottle compt change came over the patient and In a few days she was relieved. This is Raven in a critical ilineas, but in a number of mild attacks of constipation, torpi liver, headache and billousness, I have known them to bring quick relief."
