WHY THEY BOLTED

Recent Action of Kennel Club Is Explained.

TIRED OF WESTERN LEAGUE

Portland Dog Fanciers Say They Find Their New League Better in Every Respect-Now Have Harmony and Bright Prospects.

President E. F. Willis, of the Portland Kennel Club, yesterday explained all the details of just why the dog owners of Portland have left the Western Kenn Lengue and gone over to the American Kennel Club, its rival. This is the first time the main body of the club has learned the facts, as the action was taken on short notice, and there has not been an opportunity since for the direct-ors of the club to tell the whole story. New and interesting facts were brought out in an interview with Mr. Willis. It has not been known before that a small body of dog owners quietly organized a club of their own a month ago and were about to seek membership in the Ameri-can Kennel Club, when Mr. Willis, learning of it, called together the di-rectors of the Portland Kennel Club and informed them of the movement.

On account of certain conditions existing in the Western Kennel League, the directors of the Portland Kennel Club were already in half a mind to go over to the American Kennel Club, and as soon as they learned of the new organization they recommended a pariey, instead of a split, with the result that the club is a unit again, stronger than ever before, and a member of the American Kennel been an altogether harmonious spirit in the Portland Kennel Club on this ques-tion of affiliation. But until last Spring, at the time of the annual election, the directors had been unanimous in the belief that it was better to stay with the Western Kennel League rather than stand out alone against it. But two points of dissatisfaction arose after that election. Mr. Willis said yesterday concerning ing this matter:

Harmony Was Lacking.

'All was not well in the Western Kennel League. There were those in the camp who were ready to flop to the American Kennel Club. Mr. Redelsheimer, elected president, was president of the Seattle Club, and the day after his elec-tion to the presidency of the league the greater part of his home organization left and formed a separate club. They applied for membership in the league, but were turned down, so they then applied to the American Kennel Club and were admitted. A short time afterward, at the Instigation of Mr. Stewart, of San Jose, instigation of Mr. Stewart, of San Jose, secretary of the league, a rule was passed barring dogs and owners from showing in the W. K. L. who had shown in the A. K. C. shows. As a measure of retallation, the A. K. C. do as much and barred also all officials and judges at a W. K. L. show. This brought the W. K. L. roundly to its feet. It had been outwitted. It rescinded its action apparently with the hope that the A. K. C. would do likewise. But it didn't. That has been the situation for many months. s been the situation for many months. Then Stewart went to the Pacific Coast wisory board of the A. K. C. and made a proposition by which the board should be increased from five to seven members. He it was made the proposition, not the A. K. C., as Mr. Redeishelmer stated in the interview in The Oregonian this morning. Ho made the proposition, and he interview in The Oregonian this morning. Ho made the proposition, and he made it standing ready to go over to the A. K. C. in a minute if he were made a member of the advisory board. His actions prove that. He wrote to us saying an amalgation could be effected with the A. K. C., that the eight California clubs in the W. K. L. stood ready to go over, and he wished to hear from the Portland Cub. Just at that time we learned of the new organization being effected in MONEY DUE FROM GOVERNMENT Governor Chamberlain Expects to Get $100.000 for Road Work.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 15,-(Special.)-Governor Chamberlain has begun an investigation which he believes will result in showing that the State of Oregon is entitled to receive from the United States more than $100,000, and perhaps double that sum, on account of public land sales in this state. Under the provisions of the act of Congress admitting Oregon to the Union, certain grants were made to this state, among them being the grant of the 18th and 28th sections of land for school purposes, certain other lands for university purposes and still other lands for public building purposes. The fifth grant was

This condition was expressed in the act making the grant, and the state passed an act granting on its part the concessions asked by the United States in return for its grant of lands and proceeds of sales. The state has received the 5 per cent of the proceeds of actual sales, as provided in the grant, but the United States has on account of the large areas of public land given to corporations holding scrip that the Governor thinks the state is entitled to more money from the Govern-
