Sugar Market Strong and Likely to Advance.

LOWER HERE THAN IN EAST

Raw Product on Eve of Another Rise, Which Will Take Refined Grades With It-Statistical Position and Its Effect.

There is a difference of opinion among While a few are inclined to expect ower prices, the majority believe there be a material advance. In the East the tendency is upward, and as values on this Coast Tiercos, are below a parity with prices at the Atlantic Se. 78a hardening of values here. A private wire ceived from New York pesterday stated that was the belief there that raws would adfrom % to % in the near future, in ussing the strength of raw sugars, a

Discussing the sirength of raw sugars, a New York circular just received says:

'The higher price paid is the result of the strengthening influence exerted by the European markets. Our reflorer have enough augar bought to last them three months, but they cannot afford to permit the market for later deliveries to get away from them. The feature of the advance on the Continent this week is the fact that it is due to the best kind of buying. The factories and the trade have buying. The factories and the trade have been large purchasers. It has not been a fresh buying. The factories and the trade have been large purchasers. It has not been a fresh custourst of speculation. The fabricants early in the season contracted for large quantities of best sugar in addition to the supplies they raised themselves. They unforcestimated the eatent to which the drouths were to damage the best crope; they did not have confidence in the maintenance of the steadily increasing consumption; and they did not forces the result of the entrance of the public as speculative buyers would have upon the course of prices. That the public abould realize the opportunities in the sigar industry never accurred to them for a monosing therefore after the campaign had been in force a few months and their contracts showed good gains, they disposed of their holdings, pocketed the profits, even sold after, and awaited the chance to buy back at the old prices. But prices did not recode to what they considered should be not recede to what they considered should be the normal basis. There have been reces-sions from time to time, but nearly always from a high level, and a fresh group of buyers appears on every break. The fabri-cents have had to buy sugar in order to keep their fastories comming." According to newspaper reports, the recent was caused by a report of the International mates this year's sugar production in Europe at only 4.441.740 metric tens, whereas the previously published estimates of four promithan 5,000,000 tone, the highest estimate being 5,555,000 tons. The International Asso-

> Potatoes Firm and Active Despite Heavy Arrivals_Oranges Sell Lower at Auction.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The local butter market auddenly became much firmer, owing to strength of outside markets on this Coast and a good influx of butting orders from Northern and Southern Senjers. Prices for creamery extras advanced sharply and surprised local dealers, who expected that a drop would follow the rain. Cheese was steady, with supplies ample. Receipts of exgawere much larger, and all grades further decilined. Arrivals were 31,400 pounds butter, 800 pounds cheese and 19,770 down eggs.

Wheat was the only west feature of the local grain market, but closed steadler. Barley continued to strengthen for spot and futurer, influenced by small stocks and a scarcity of choice afterings. Receipts of outs were SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16 - (Special.)-The Chicago Wheat Closes at a Loss After Opening Firm.

Chicago, Jan. 16. — The whost market opened firm, with prices showing some improvement over Saturday's closing quotations. May being up is to be at $1.17%. The principal reason for the firmness was the bullish appearance of the world's shipments for last week, the total amount being less than the settimated consumption of the importing countries. In this connection the decided movement from Russia and Argentina had a certain influence. Offerings were rather limited, and came principally from acalpers. As the section advanced, however, the selling became more pronounced, and sentiment in the pli turned bearish. The cause of this change was possip received from outside markets telling of a leasured ale for cash wheat. Commission houses were free sellers during the latter part of the session. May sold off to $1.15\frac{1}{2}$ and closed at $1.15\frac{1}{2}$ [15\frac{1}{2}$]. HIS BLOOD BOILS. Federal Grand Juror Would Get After Sheepkillers.

Sheepkillers.

PORTLAND, Jan 18.—(To the Editor.)—In The Oregonian this, morning I have just read the report the outlaws in the sheepkilling association addressed to you, opposing in a threatening mainer the further publication of facts. My blood boils at such a production of injustice to common law and commin decency. It is simply a general notice that they are a band of outlaws and in their load way they proclaim their defance of civil law, with a suspicious threat that dead men tell no lies. It is no wonder these men keep their names unknown to your paper. Every decent citizen is against them. Every fair-minded man mine know the proper place for such-persons is behind the prison bars, and I assure you the men being tried for land frauds are gentlemen compared with these sheep outlaws. Do they think to share the United States Government and rule the sheep range to suit themselves, at the cost of blood. Such is their purpose, and if all who feel the injustice of it wrote you acticles on this sheep report your edition would be too small to contain them.

If you have room for this print it and let it brand them as worse than the James band of criminals.

Further, I am here as a Federal juryman, and men from all over the state are here is such capacity, and many of us feel that it is the duty of the Government to hunt these criminals and bring them to justice. Or come out and give your name and those of your committee and a like number of those good shots you mention, too, and we will fornish you with men to meet your cowards gang and will place you under the constraint of the common has Tour report sent to The Oregonian will then be similar to the reasonial the girl sent to her mitter.
