MAT EXTEND ALBINA BRANCH.-A COR mittee from the Albina Board of Trade called on Vice-President C. F. Swigert, of the Portland Consolidated Company, a few days ago, to ascertain what the company proposed doing regarding the extension of the Mississippi-Avenue branch through to a connection with the Bi. Johns line, on Killingsworth avenue, He informed the committee that it de-pends mainly on the action of the prop-erty-owners. Efforts to secure right of way for the extension have been held up so far. The committee was informed that the extension of the branch would be made if the right of way is secured. and that the company would pay half the cost of the ground needed. A mem-ber of the committee says there is a choice of two ways, that would cost, respectively, $500 and $1100. He thought it probable that the extension would be from Prescott street to Killingsworth avenue, by way of Albina avenue, it now rests with the property-owners what they will do in the matter. The local Board of Trade will work to get the extension, and hope for co-operation by the people of North Albina

Philip Buehner was elected to the board of directors and the following members re-elected for a term of three years.

C. L. Fay, W. Y. Masters, John Bain, Dr. S. A. Brown, A. M. Smith and E. C. Bronnigh. Bronnugh.

The chief event of the evening was the banquet which occurred in the gymnasium. Covers were laid for 116. The table was set in a "U" shape and extended over the entire gymnasium floor. Ferns had been entwined about the chandeliers and fastened to the wall brackets. Their fragrance wafted out on the festival armosphere of the banquet hall and mixed appropriately ounquet half and maked applopration with the merry waves of laughter and applause. Several young ladies of the young ladies' gymnasium class, dressed in immaculate lawn, served. Musical selections rendered by Coulter's orchesinterspersed the speechmaking.

H. O. Hill, when introduced by Mr. Ladd as "the college man in the as-octation." speke briefly. Mr. Hill stated that the work of the Y. M. C. A. among college students was of the greatest importance because of the fact that ultimately the college man of today will rule the Nation. He said the T. M. C. A. is the greatest intercollegiate organization in the world, that it is represented, not only in the largest and most civilized countries of the world, but in the most remote sections of the globe, where Christianity and erudition, but for the untiring ef-forts of the Y. M. C. A several years ago. A total of $555.19 was collected. The evening was closed with three rousing cheers by the members, who pronounce cheers by the members, who pronounce this year's affair one of the most pleas ant and successful ever held.

PREMIER COMBES RESIGNS.

Whole Cabinet Goes With Him, and Rouvier May Succeed Him.

PARIS, Jan. 17 .- At a meeting of the ouncil of Ministers today, held under he presidency of Premier Combes, in the absence of President Loubet, who was attending the funeral of his mother at Marsanne, M. Combes com-municated to the Council the text of a letter announcing the resignation of himself and his colleagues. It was ar-ranged that the Ministers should pro-ceed together to the Eigsee Palace upon the return of M. Loubet for the submission of the letter to the President. It was also arranged that the Cabinet request the Chamber of Depu-ties to suspend its session temporarily, as the Ministers had no desire to par-ticipate in the work of the house pend-ticipate in the work of the house pend-ing consideration of their resignations. The letter lengthily sots forth the reasons for the resignation of the Cab-lnet, maintaining that as the Ministry had not been placed in the minority in the Chamber its policies should prevail in the new Ministry.

The Chamber of Deputies adjourned subject to the recall of the President probably until the formation of the new Ministry. M. Rouvier has in-formed his associates that if he is called upon to form a Ministry, he will not accept any conditions, but will adopt his own policy.
