OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 19.—(Special.)—After deliberating for six hours a jury in the Circuit Court at 3 o'clock this morning... meteorite... Ellis Hughes... Oregon Iron & Steel Company...

Lodged on a Hillside. The discovery of the meteorite was made by two prospectors, Ellis Hughes and William Dale, in the Autumn of 1902. It was found lodged in a hillside, three miles above the mouth of the Clackamas River...

The Rape of the Meteorite. Hughes first fashioned a simple cup with chain to anchor it, and a long braided-wire rope to roll up on it. His horse traveled around it as a winch. He then constructed an ingenious car with log body timbers and sections of tree trunks as wheels...

Visitors Thronged to See. So quietly did Hughes and his son conduct their work that the meteorite was not a mile distant, did not attract anything that drew the attention of the people...

Claims Right by Discovery. At the December, 1903, term of the Circuit Court, a suit was filed by the Oregon Iron & Steel Company against Hughes...

Two Holes of Equal Size. A month ago, J. Koerner and Fred Myers, superintendent and boss mechanic, respectively, of the Oregon City Woolen Mills, who own land in the vicinity...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—In transmitting to the Senate today a report by Lieutenant G. T. Emmons, of the Navy, of the condition of the natives of Alaska, the President sent a message saying: "The military academy appropriation bill was reported to the House by Chairman Hull, of the military committee."

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much so as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger...

STANFORD STUDENT GETS DIVORCE BECAUSE HE IS A MINOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—(Special.)—Peters Judge Hunt, of the Superior Court, was today unfolded the story of the runaway marriage of a Stanford student and an actress. They came to this city from Portland and were wed under assumed names. Now there is regret for the step, and because he was under age when he contracted the marriage, Williams Downing, son of Dr. W. G. Downing, of Astoria, was able to get an annulment from the court.

FRUITMEN ARE WELL PLEASED

HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 19.—(Special.)—E. L. Smith, A. L. Mason, E. H. Shepard, C. E. Coffey and A. E. Bigham returned this afternoon from Boise, where they attended the meeting of the Northwest Fruitgrowers' Association. They all declare this to have been the best gathering of fruitmen ever held in the Northwest, and feel that they have been well repaid for the trip.

THIEF QUICKLY SENTENCED

OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 19.—(Special.)—John Parkey, a faithless servant, was today sentenced to 25 days in the County Jail for the larceny of a ring, the property of Mrs. Richard Greaves, at Bolton. He was arrested and sentenced to the County Jail on Jan. 18, and was taken to the jail on Jan. 19, and was there for two hours after the theft.
