SOLD AMALGAMATED SHORT

He Prophesied High Dividend on Copper, and Made Good Profit on Decline When Prediction Proved False_Raid on Mine.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 3).-(Special.)-Thomas W. Lawson's predictions of ten days to two weeks ago that Amalgamated Copper would surely declare a dividend at the rate of 5 per cent per annum were wide of the mark, as proven by yesterday's action of the Amalgamated directors in declaring a dividend at the old

It is certain that Lawson is not a foser made the positive prediction of the higher rate and then sold the stock heavily short, figuring that the reduced rate would cause the stock to at least sag sufficiently to enable him to cover at a profit. Not only this, but it is said that yesterday, before the Amalgamated meeting, he offered the stock down, in blocks of not less than 5000 shares, at Z. When it was found that the stock would be readily taken, the offers were withdrawn

To Lawson is also traced the recent bear raid upon the United States Mining stock, which has caused that stock to from 28% to 22. ALL SEEMED LIKE WINNERS. Three Horses Make Close and Exciting Finish at Ascot.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 20.-Big fields and several very close finishes were the features of the racing at Ascot today. The finish among Lady Kis-par, Lady Mirthful and Mac Fleckness was so close that hardly any two spectators agreed on the order in which they finished. After deliberating for several minutes, the judges placed them as named. No one had more than a nose advantage over the next horse. Two favorites won. Weather cloudy: track fast. Summary:
