WANT SINGER BUYER—Under the head of civic improvements at the city, at the meeting of the Woodmen's Club Federation Board at the home of L. Samuels, Thursday, the Brooklyn sewer was considered. Miss A. L. Dunlop, principal of the Brooklyn School, announced that the people of Brooklyn are not opposed to the big sewer, but are anxious that the contract should be let and work started as soon as possible. She stated further that one reason of the delay was the refusal of the larger property-owners to allow the sewer to be extended through their property. The later plans change have been made whereby the main conduit to the river avoids the lands in question and follows the streets instead. The hold-up or delay is not caused by opposition by the people of Brooklyn, who would be only too glad to have the work started, was the sentiment of the meeting.

TO FORM NEW FIRE COMPANY.—The matter of organizing a truck company will come up at the meeting of the Selling-Volume Fire Company the first Wednesday in February. This movement has been under contemplation for some time and, in order to bring it about, the present hose company was increased from 20 to 25 members. From among these the truck company can be formed.
There is a truck with hook and ladders in the fire building at Sellwood, but it has not been in use. A separate company will now handle the truck, and supplement the work of the hose company at all fires. Notice that the City View Fire and the district north to Midway is being built over with swellings the single volunteer hose company cannot cope alone with so large a district. Before the next meeting the general plan of the new organization will be discussed.

W. C. T. U. CONDUCTS FUNERAL SERVICE.— A service that is rather unusual and has never before been held in the city of Portland was conducted in Friday's undertaking chapel last Monday morning at 11 o'clock by the Central Women's Christian Temperance Union.
Mrs. J. N. Nichols, of Hillsdale, who was a member of the union, desired to have her funeral service conducted by her sisters than by the church; so the members of the union gathered in the parlors around the body of their friend and conducted a memorial service. It was held by Miss Clara Webb, after which the officers and members of the union each had a part in the service.
After the service was concluded the body was taken to the crematorium by the members of the union and the service was finished in the chapel.

FUNERAL OF A PIONEER.—The funeral of John Went, a pioneer settler of Portland, took place yesterday afternoon from P. S. Dunning's undertaking parlors.
Rev. George B. Van Waters, D. D., of St.
David's Episcopal Church, conducted the services. F. W. Goodrich and Mrs. J. W.
Beveridge furnished the music. There was a large attendance with a sprinkling of old-time residents. Lone Fir Cemetery was the place of interment. Mr. Went lived in Portland for 35 years, and during that time maintained a reputation for integrity and honor, gaining the respect of all who came in contact with him.

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY is offered for a short time to intending purchasers of property in Holladay Park Addition at present prices. Real estate values are steadily advancing and estimates of lots in Holladay Park Addition will soon be raised. Buy now, in this most attractive district. Concrete sidewalks, water, gas, electric light and sewers all in. For full information, map, plans and prices, The Title Guaranty Trust Co., 5 and 7 Chamber of Commerce.

A MOST UNIQUE SERVICE.—Sunday morning the members of the First Congregational Church, services were held at 10:30 five prominent pastors in this city. Drs.
Hill, Short, Muckley, Brougher and House will tell "What the First Congregational Church of Portland Should Do." Dr.
House has invited the five other pastors one thing they would like to have his church do, and he will comment on the same Dr. House's evening topic will be "Social Charities."

REVIVAL ATTRACTS CROWDS.—Rev.
Charles F. Wetgle, who is conducting a revival in the Quaker Church, in Senny-side, has a very vigorous way of expressing himself in his sermons, and is attracting large crowds every night.
There is little of the quiet method of the Quaker denomination in Mr. Wetgle's method of preaching. The revival is along old-fashioned lines.

AN ERROR was made in the advertisement of the Phillips Shoe Co. in yesterday's paper. They do not claim to be the largest shoe store in Oregon, but can fairly lay claim to being the largest exclusive men's shoe store in Oregon or on the Pacific Coast. Phillips Shoe Co., 10 Sixth St.

LARGER WATER MAINS.—Full-sized water mains have recently been laid in Holladay Park Addition, thereby affording an abundant supply of water for domestic purposes and strong pressure for fire protection.

LAW JOLTS BURGLARS

BRACE OF YOUNG CROOKS GET SEVEN YEARS APiece.
Convicted of Stealing Jewelry Worth $200 From Woman—Had Expected to Receive Leniency.

G. R. Feeley and William Gutman, convicted of stealing jewelry valued at $200 belonging to Eva Burrows, were sentenced to seven years each in the penitentiary by Judge Fraser yesterday. The burglary took place at the residence of the woman on the corner of 10th and 11th streets, where they were arrested by Chief Hunt's hospitable hostess, Friends of Roy No.
2, who resides on the East Side, telephoned him saying, "Roy, truly thou art going to the bad." Roy of the East Side was highly indignant and asserted that the friends should refer to Roy of the West Side and to make sure that his character and morals would not be assailed further, his father is exerting himself to have this case of mistaken identity explained.

GOES FOR RAD MAN.—Detective Taylor, of the San Francisco Police Department, passed through Portland last night on his way to Stillwater, Minn., where he is going to place "Kid" Goucher under arrest on a charge of murder in the first degree, the moment he steps from the Penitentiary. The man wanted in San Francisco is now serving a term for burglary, but a pardon is to be granted him in a few days. A surprise will be sprung on the young man, who is a son of ex-State Senator Goucher, of Fresno County, Cal., whenever he is taken into custody, charged jointly with three others with the murder of Policeman Robinson, which occurred in San Francisco three years ago.

WILL ASK BURNED EXPENSE.—A petition will be sent to the County Court in a few days asking that the Burnside bridge be redecked and the approach on the East Side be repaired as soon as possible so it may be completed before the Lewis and Clark Fair opens. It is understood that practically all the woodwork of this bridge will have to be renewed, which will take some time after the work has been started. Last year when it was proposed to redeck the bridge it was found that the work would cost $30,000. Residents now fear that if the work is not begun soon and pushed with all possible energy it will not be completed by the time the Fair opens.

LEAF IS MOST HONORABLE.—At a debate held a few evenings ago, at Garfield, Eastern Clatskanie County, on the question, "Resolved, That a hypocrite is more despicable than a liar." It was decided that the liar was the most honorable.

DEBATORS, young men and women, fought on both sides of the question, and the liar won out. The next discussion will be on the subject, "Resolved, that a girl is more useful about the home than a boy." A large crowd is expected to attend. The girls will uphold the affirmative and the boys the negative of this question. These discussions call out a crowd, and are full of interest.

ST. JOHN'S CITIZENS CELEBRATE.—St.
John's residents last night held a demonstration in honor of the charter committee, L. B. Chipman and T. J. Monahan, who returned from Salem, where they loaned a band with a band were sent to Piedmont, where the committee was met, and on the return to St. John's the celebration centered in a huge bonfire at which a large crowd gathered.

OHIO SOCIETY INVITES PENNSYLVANIANS.— The Ohio Society has invited the Pennsylvania Society to attend its monthly meeting on Friday, January 27, to be held in the hall on the eighth floor of the Marquam building. The invitation was extended by Secretary William Goldman, and was yesterday accepted by Secretary W. G. Oberstetter on behalf of the Pennsylvania Society. The members of the latter are all cordially invited to attend.

FORMER PORTLAND BOY DEAD.—John Springer Nissen, a Portland boy 15 years old, who moved with his parents to Walla Walla about a year ago, died in that city, on January 16, of tuberculosis.
"Don't," as he was familiarly known by his associates, was a bright, well behaved lad, and was very popular. He graduated from the high school in 1903. His father, John Nissen, is a well-known commercial traveler.

KEANE'S MOTION IS DENIED.—Justice Reid yesterday dismissed the motion of James Keane to set aside the verdict recently served upon him in the case of Ashby vs. Keane. Keane will now have to appear in answer to the summons and the case will shortly come to trial.
Ashby is suing Keane for salary allegedly to still due him for services rendered while a member of the Keane Dramatic Company.

UNION REVIVAL MEETINGS.—Rev. Ralph Gilliam, evangelist, addressed a large congregation last evening in the Second Baptist Church, East Seventh and An-keny streets. Quite an interest has been developed, tomorrow at 11 A. M., in the revival. Church members are invited to be held, with a mass meeting at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

CARRIED RAP CHECK.—Joe Radura, a butcher at 24 North Grand avenue, called at police headquarters yesterday to report a bad check for the detectives to work on. It was for $12, was written on the blanks of the First National Bank, was made payable to C. E. Sanders and was signed M. Shroverbridge & Co.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, the grand opening of the International Saloon, 107-109 Russell street, Lower Albina, will take place. Music, lunch, dancing and a most enjoyable time guaranteed to all who attend, by the proprietor, Charles J. Williams. First-class free lunch every day from 11 A. M.

"THE HOLD-UP MAN."—First Presbyterian Church, services tomorrow at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. The pastor, Rev.
Edgar P. Hill, D. D., will preach morning and evening. In the evening the eighth in the series of "Old Pictures in the Hold-Up Man." The topic will be "Old Pictures in the Hold-Up Man."

WATTS DECISION POSTPONED.—The case of Attorney John F. Watts, charged with embezzlement, was continued in Municipal Court yesterday until Monday morning. At that time a decision will be rendered in the case by Municipal Judge Hogan.

Meat Company, 121 First street, telephone

CHINESE TO BE TRIED TODAY.—The cases of the Chinese arrested in Sheriff Ward's latest raid are set for trial today before Justice Reed. Those cases against the men arrested in Blaine's and Fritz's will follow within a few days.

BAD BOYS ESCAPE.—Captain of Police Moore received notification last night that Roy Hutchinson, aged 15, and Roscoe Hutchinson, aged 14, had escaped from the State Reformatory School.

DENOUNCED AS FALSEHOOD.
Denial that Corruption Fund Has Been Raised by Liqueur Interests.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 20.—(To the Editor.)—A statement has been printed in a Portland newspaper that a "corruption fund of $25,000 had been raised by Portland and Astoria brewing interests to be expended toward the passage of a strict prohibition option bill," and that "the money is now in the hands of a big liquor dealer at Portland." We have simply this to say, that so far as our interests are concerned, this statement is in its entirety unqualifiedly false.

The suit of S. Merton Cohn against Frederic Merrill and Henry Wemme to

WOULD HELP KEEP ROOMERS Phillip Stein Sues for Rights in Lodging-House Contract.

Whether Phillip Stein is entitled to share with R. E. Phillips and wife, Laura B. Phillips, a lease to the building at the northwest corner of 11th and Pine streets, is a question which Judge Sears must decide. Stein testified that about a year ago he and Phillips entered into an agreement to lease the property from the owners, the Madsons, for five years for $45 per month, with a privilege of taking a five years' extension. Stein wished to furnish a bond. He objected to the manner in which it was drawn, and did not sign it. He was, however, bound and obtained the lease in his wife's name.
Stein said he loaned Phillips $500, and they were to furnish the lodging-house upstairs and Phillips was to occupy the inside store and Phillips was the corner store. The lodging-house is rented to Mrs. W. Bloom. Phillips and wife have possession of the building under the lease. Phillips testified that Stein has no interest whatever in the lease, although he admitted that they once talked of going into it together, but did not succeed in securing the lease under the agreement entered into and he (Phillips) afterward succeeded in getting the lease for his wife.

SCHOOL CHILDREN GUARDED.
Prompt Measures Taken to Avert Smallpox Exposures.

A smallpox epidemic in the North Central School has probably been averted through the foresight of Mrs.
George Vedder, 19 East Ninth street, and the promptness of Principal C. C. Hoover in adopting precautionary measures.

Yesterday Mrs. Vedder telephoned Principal Hoover that her daughter Hazel, aged 15, had been attacked with smallpox. Mr. Hoover immediately excused all pupils who were not vaccinated and also those who had been unsuccessfully inoculated with serum. Twenty-five pupils left the school and City Physician J. C. Zan was immediately notified.

Reports to the effect that the discovery of the case was attended with much excitement are apparently without foundation, so far as the City Superintendent Frank Rigler last night had not been notified and several teachers of the school assert that there was no excitement of any description.

Miss Rose Jones in an interview last night said that 13 pupils were excused from her room and that no spread of the affliction was anticipated.

The Vedder child is a pupil in Miss Morrow's sixth grade and her mother, Miss Abbie Lewis has not been present at school for several days. The child's mother said last evening, when interviewed.

"I telephoned Mr. Hoover that Hazel was sick with a slight attack of small-pox and then I placed a flag outside the house, because I believe that children should not be exposed to attack from contagious diseases. I thought at first that Hazel had chicken-pox, but the doctor came later and pronounced it varioloid."

WINTER VISIT TO MOUNT HOOD
J. Wesley Ladd and Party of Friends Start for Cloud-Cap Inn.

J. Wesley Ladd and a party of friends, consisting of B. C. Ball, J. E. Koolick, Dr. H. B. Nichols, H. L. Corbett, Walter E. Honeyman and R. L. Gilman, left last night for Hood River, and early this morning they will leave for a trip to Cloud Cap Inn. The party will make the first 22 miles in sleighs, and the last seven miles of the journey will be made on snowshoes.

The party will be accompanied by two guides. One of them, Cliff Hood River, yesterday with provisions, for the party will remain at the inn for two nights and a day. The other will meet the mountain climbers at Hood River. The guide that has gone in will meet the party where they begin their ascent on snowshoes.
The trip will be a hard one, for, in addition to deep snow, zero weather is found on Mount Hood. The party expects to return on Tuesday.

LEGAL JETTINGS.
The will of Joel Card, deceased, was admitted to probate in the County Court yesterday. The property, valued at about $1000, is devised to Rebecca Walton, a sister.

A. L. Evans was divorced from Zoe May Evans, by Judge George, yesterday, because of desertion beginning in June, 1902. Evans testified that his wife left him at Cascade Locks, where they were living, and went to Boise City. She refused to return to him. They were married in Moscow, Idaho, in 1892.

The B. Gobbi Company and Peter Ingener have sued Elma Huntington in the State Circuit Court to recover possession of 178 cords of wood, valued at $48.
They also ask $200 damages. The wood was in Waukegan County, Wash.

Hungry for Phesants.
BROWNVILLE, Or., Jan. 17.—(To the Editor.)—We hear a great deal about the game law, but we see nothing from the people who are not sportsmen. Therefore I write to give my views, and in the latter case. The law should be such that all may receive some benefit. The Chinese phesant, the prairie quail, and one, and is within the reach of all if we are given a fair deal and no favors shown, so my remarks will be about this kind.

As matters stand now, no one can see phesant who is not a good shot. In a small town like this there are several who are a good shot and they are not allowed to hunt.

Chief Joseph in History.
RALEIGH, Or., Jan. 20.—(To the Editor.)— That is a deserved and complimentary review you give "A Short History of Oregon," by John B. Jones. The book is generally correct, although perhaps some of the statements should have had further investigation and a wider issue made concerning them.
