WILSON ASKED TO DRAW OUT

Should Attempt Be Made to Give ex-Senator's Strength to Furth, Foster's Forces Will Flock to the Millionaire's Camp.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Count. Includes names like Foster, Piles, Sweeney, Wilson, Jones, Moore, W. G. Graves, Absent, Total.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 23 (Special).

The third week of the legislative session opens with the Senatorial situation still presenting wholesale opportunities for speculation as to what may happen in the big contest and a decided lack of actual happenings which might have much of a bearing on the final result.

Talk of Switch to Piles.

While there is a general air of expectancy around the respective headquarters of the leading candidates, nothing tangible has developed since last week. Some day this week, it is believed that an effort will be made to switch the Piles strength to John L. Wilson.

Plan of Furth's Friends.

There is an anti-Wilson element in the King County delegation that is desirous of having the Piles strength fall on John L. Wilson, in order that the two forces may be amalgamated and passed on to Jacob Furth, who this session, as last, is the preferred candidate with a large number of the King County members.

Women at Oregon City See Seaman Family Skeleton Laid Bare.

OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 23 (Special).—Evidence sensational in the extreme and criminal in its character was furnished by the divorce suit of Mrs. O. E. Seaman against Dr. Seaman, which was filed in the Circuit Court here today.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON JAPANESE

THIRD BRITISH COLUMBIA BILL VETOED BY Dominion Government. VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 23.—For the third time a bill passed by the British Columbia Legislature, imposing an educational test on Japanese entering British Columbia, has been vetoed by the Dominion government.

One Way to Defeat Sweeney.

If we consider only the present contestants in the fight, nothing but a combination of the Piles and Foster forces will prevent the election of Sweeney, or at least deprive him of the power to name the successful candidate.

Suicide of a Traveling Man.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 23.—Al Barnes, a well-known traveling man, committed suicide here this afternoon by shooting himself in the head. Insanity is said to have been the cause.

IT IS A REVOLUTION

port goes on to say that the two regiments began to fire on each other. The number of casualties is not stated, nor is the result of the alleged encounter.

Marching On the Capital.

Armed bodies of men are reported to be marching to St. Petersburg from various quarters. From the Capital works, 16 miles away, 30,000 strikers who started late Sunday are on their way to the city.

Revolt in Finland.

Finland reports are to the effect that the revolution has already broken out throughout the country. At the head of the government are members of the lower house and Parliament leaders of the bourgeoisie and the nobility.

STRIKE AGAINST CENSORSHIP.

Editors Declare Purpose to Print the News in Defiance of it. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 23.—The editors of four newspapers—the Russ, the Vidomosti, the Novosti and the Grom—declared their intention, as soon as the printers return to work and they are able to resume publication, openly to defy the censorship in the matter of strike news and Sunday's affair.

LIKE A BESIEGED CITY.

Ruled by Soldiers, St. Petersburg is Victim of Vague Terror. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 23.—The factory and mill districts of the city were practically deserted today. The strikers had no plans for demonstrations, and no special meeting points had been arranged.

MOSCOW GOES ON STRIKE.

Employees of One Factory Quickly Joined by Many Others. MOSCOW, Jan. 23.—Employees of the Bromley Metal Works to the number of 100 met at 2:30 this afternoon and declared that they refused to continue at work, because their St. Petersburg comrades had asked them to strike.

LIKE WILDFIRE.

guard the darkened portion of the city. The people still in the streets, except a few strikers and rousts, went to their homes. Police officers visited every house and store, ordering all not to venture out at their peril and to turn out the lights in their front windows.

RENEWED OUTBREAK OF RIOTING.

The crowd was particularly dense around the approaches to the Nicholas Station. Here, in the darkness, marauders attacked a few newspaper stalls, but a grim row of infantry around the station buildings effectually discouraged violence.

OUTBREAK IN THE CRIMEA.

London Paper Says Sailors Rebelled and Soldiers Refused to Shoot. LONDON, Jan. 23.—Special dispatches from Russia to the London papers today again bristle with sensational statements.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

A mother's love is so divine that the roughest man cannot help but be softened by it. It is the crown of womanhood. However, Mother's Love is a medicine of great deed by almost all women. At such times a woman is nervous, dyspeptic, irritable and she is in need of a sterile tonic and a nerve strength builder to fit her for the ordeal.
