

A TRAIL OF WRONG

Judge Goodnow Accused of Many Misdeeds

BY AMERICANS AT SHANGHAI

House Asked to Order Investigation of Charges of Corrupt Conduct Against American Consular Judge in Chinese Port.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Representative Hughes, of New Jersey, introduced a resolution in the House today, directing the committee on the judiciary to inquire and report whether the action of the House is requisite concerning the official misconduct of John Goodnow, Judge of the United States Consular Court at Shanghai, China, and to say whether the said judge has been guilty of corrupt conduct in the discharge of his official duties...

The resolution is accompanied by 15 specific charges. The first charges him with the embezzlement of $200 on various dates during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1902.

The second charges that he mailed false accounts to the Secretary of State as to moneys received and expended for alleged court expenses.

The third charges that he presented a false claim against the Secretary of State for the third charges that he presented a false claim against the Secretary of State for the third charges that he presented a false claim against the Secretary of State...

The fourth charges embezzlement on November 15, 1902, of $651, paid into the court by the firm of Andrews & Co., commission merchants, to the house of Nee Chang Mow & Co.

The fifth charges the appointment of George A. Derby as an expert account in the case between the firm mentioned in the preceding charge, the appointee being asserted to be wholly incompetent and that the Judge thereafter received a perjured account from his appointee.

The sixth charges conspiracy between the Judge, George A. Derby, marshal, clerk and crer to the court, Stephen P. Beach, interpreter of the court, and a messenger to the Chinese mixed court, and one L. H. Hazelton to defraud Maximilian Francis Dienke, a subject of Germany, of 19 1/2 acres of land, in value $24,000.

The seventh charges that on March 23, 1903, Mr. Goodnow appointed a biased and prejudiced assessor in the case of I. E. Oiler & Co. vs. the American Trading Company.

The eighth charges that on September 26, 1903, he unlawfully deprived J. H. Burke, an American citizen andorney, of his record of Minnesota, his liberty, and appropriated Burke's property to his own use and debarrd Burke.

The ninth charges oppression and tyranny by means of a writ of habeas corpus and threats of criminal prosecution, through which was extorted from J. H. Burke $11,574, being a one-third vested interest in the Chinese indemnity claim awarded George W. Ward.

The tenth charges oppressive and tyrannical extortion of 250 taels from Thomas R. Jerigan and that Mr. Goodnow sought to persuade a Rosenwald to institute a criminal prosecution against Jerigan in order to injure the latter's good name.

The 11th charges that on June 13, 1903, Goodnow did unlawfully aid and abet the destruction of the property being documents in the case of G. F. Curtis vs. C. S. Roker, in consequence of which the sum of $200 was extorted from the Curtis and Roker.

The 12th charges that Mr. Goodnow has rendered false and fraudulent accounts as to rent paid for the United States Consular jail, for the support of United States prisoners, and for the support of alleged doctors' services for said prisoners, and that said Goodnow has knowingly forwarded to the Secretary of State false and fraudulent returns of George A. Derby, Marshal of the United States Consular Court.

The 13th charge is that on August 12, 1903, Mr. Goodnow falsely and knowingly certified that property belonging to foreigners was property belonging to a citizen of the United States, in order, as it is alleged, solely to give said property the protection of the American flag. The property is defined as the Chinese-owned steamship Kiangse, and it is charged that Goodnow extorted the sum of $225 for recording a fictitious bill of sale in the transaction and the further sum of $101 for alleged shipping of a Chinese crew for the ship.

The 14th charge is a duplicate of the preceding charge, but refers to five other Chinese owners of ships which flew the American flag during the Boxer uprising and then were their former owners, for which, it adds, "undue money was paid, said Goodnow extorted money from the Chinese firm."

The 15th charge is a conspiracy to "manufacture aliens into citizens of the United States in consideration of large sums of money," the plan being to issue bogus identification papers to be presented by other parties to the conspiracy to Minister Canger, who issued the proper passports. Four Russian aliens, one Turk and one German are named as receiving such passports. Two aliens, British subject and a German, were registered at the United States Consulate, it is alleged, as citizens of the United States.

FIVE HOUSE BILLS BURIED

Appropriation for Old Fort Clatsop Site Memorial on the List.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Five bills were indefinitely postponed today in the House without opposition on recommendation of committees as follows: To appropriate $8000 for Lewis and Clark memorials at sites of old Fort Clatsop near Astoria and "old salt cairn" near Seaside.—H. B. 215, by Lewis of Clatsop. To make illegal mineral reservations in deeds to lands sold by railroad corporations.—H. B. 11, by Smith of Josephine. Smith has two other bills on the same subject and was unable to get the one to be indefinitely postponed. They aim to prevent mineral reservations by the Southern Pacific in Josephine County.

To require Holston sales of personal property to be recorded.—H. B. 34, by Mayer of Columbia. On this bill a big fight has been waged; also another in the Senate by Maloney of similar nature. The adverse report of the committee on judiciary was adopted without dissent.

To raise the maximum penalty for assault with a dangerous weapon from 19 to 20 years.—H. B. 112, by Edwards of Lane. To pure debts in judicial sales.—H. B. 125, by Killingsworth of Multnomah. A similar bill has already passed the House, introduced by Blair of Multnomah.

House Bills Reported Favorably. SALEM, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—House bills were favorably reported by House committees today as follows: H. B. 199, by Ritchie.—To abolish requirements of registration for owners of agricultural machinery and utensils.

H. B. 102, by Kuntz.—To regulate peddlers of agricultural machinery and utensils. H. B. 103, by Kuntz.—To regulate recording of plates of additions to towns. H. B. 110, by Cooper.—To regulate shipment of livestock.

H. B. 23, by Steiner.—To authorize employment of secret service officers in apprehension of criminals. H. B. 24, by Smith of Josephine.—To authorize majority of directors of mining corporations to dwell outside state.

H. B. 145, by Haskies.—To appropriate $45,000 for Indian War veterans. Action of Senate Bills. SALEM, Or., Jan. 25.—Among the bills reported favorably in the Senate today was Maloney's to prevent ticket scalping by requiring railroad companies to redeem unused tickets.

Senator Siebel's bill to provide a whipping post as a punishment for wife-beating will be reported favorably tomorrow. The Senate judiciary committee. Though the bill has been amended in several minor respects, it will be reported to the Senate without any change in its substance.

Two bills limiting the time of legal judgments will be reported unfavorably by the Senate judiciary committee tomorrow. They are bill 79 by Brownell, bill 102 by Kuntz.

Maloney's bill appropriating money for reclamation of wayward girls will be reported favorably by the Senate judiciary committee tomorrow. It carries an appropriation of $5000 to be expended on homes for girls at the rate of $84 per year for each inmate.

Examination of All "Healers." SALEM, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Senator Cook introduced tomorrow a sweeping bill to provide for examination of Christian Scientists, Spiritualists and practitioners of osteopathy, chiropractic, magnetic healing, the Weltmer system, hydropathy, mesmerism, faith cure, and other cures and systems by which disease or lack of harmony in the individual are cured. Examination will be by a board of State Board of Medical Examiners, but until some member of the system to which the applicant belongs has a place on the board of examiners, the examination shall not extend to materia medica or therapeutics, but shall be limited to symptoms of disease.

General laws on practice of medicine shall apply to those licensed under this act, and the same fees are to be paid as are required of applicants to practice medicine. Fee for Notaries' Commissions. SALEM, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Although it will cost $200 a year from his own salary, Secretary of State Dunbar has recommended to the House Judiciary committee that the fee for notary public's commissions be raised from $2 to $10, and that the money be paid into the state treasury. This question arose on the consideration of House bill 74, by Smith of Multnomah, which provides for amendments, the committee has decided to recommend favorably. Under the present laws about 1100 notary commissions are granted each year, but with the increased fee the number will probably be reduced to 150, when the receipts from this source would be $1500 a year.

Support of the President. SALEM, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—The Senate opened with prayer by Rev. C. T. Burd. H. J. R. II, by Sonneman, urging Oregon Representatives in Congress to support the President in his efforts to secure ratification of the legislation, was reported favorably by the judiciary committee and later referred to that committee. C. B. WADE SECURES BAIL. Ex-Cashier Says He Came Back to Aid His Creditors. PENDLETON, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—C. B. Wade today secured bonds of $2000 in which he was held to the Circuit Court on charges of forgery and larceny by bail. This afternoon he submitted to an interview, but owing to his present mental weakness he was unable to give a tangible explanation of the charges which have been brought against him. When asked why he returned he said: "My friends, who informed me that I might possibly be able to aid those who have suffered from my failure. As for my own personal business dealings I have nothing to fear and believe the matters will be satisfactorily adjusted."

This was the first time Mr. Wade had been interviewed since his financial downfall. House of Church Women. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The Episcopalian convention for the diocese of California today adopted a canon creating a house of church women. The newly-created house is to consist of five delegates from each parish to be elected by the votes of the women of the parish. No dissent in the United States outside of California. It is stated, has created a women's convention and the Church of England is only experimenting with the proposition.

The duties and powers of the new house are defined as follows: "To legislate for the conduct of women's work in the church and to act in a consultative capacity upon such matters as the convention may from time to time submit to it for its opinion." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made. "In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Porterville, Cal. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to use. There are food reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with anything else after having used and tried this remedy. For sale by all druggists.

Nervy Builder at Fair Cares Nothing for Bad Fall. He goes by the name of Frank and is a "climber," aiding in the construction of the Government building at the Exposition. He was knocked off a pillar yesterday and fell head first 20 out of a possible 90 feet, when his knees caught on a beam and he fell.

The pillar, on the airy heights of which he was standing, had just been raised, and from that commanding position he was supervising the raising of a second, when it swung round and flicked him off as if he were a fly.

A hundred people waited for his death. But his knees caught, and before they gave way under the strain of falling, he grasped a rope and saved himself. As soon as he was safely seated on the crossbeam, he gave very valuable expres-

POLICE ONLY USE WHIPS.

Riga Workmen Strike and Commit Slight Depredations on Streets.

RIGA, Jan. 25.—A general strike is in progress here in sympathy with the St. Petersburg workmen. The troops in this district have been mobilized and the streets are being patrolled. There have been a few disturbances in which street lamps were broken, but the disturbances were dispersed by the whips of the police.

STUDENTS FIGHT POLICE.

Attack With Knives Answered With Bullets, and Moscow Mourns.

MOSCOW, Jan. 25 (12:30 A. M.).—Blood has again flowed in the streets of Moscow. The snow covering the public square in the vicinity of the university is littered with the bodies of students who were killed, and in the barracks hospitals are a number of soldiers and gendarmes with mortal knife wounds. One of them who had his throat cut last night's awful encounter died instantly.

Three additional regiments have arrived in the city. A heavy fog hangs over the ancient Russian capital, and under its cover vast crowds are congregating, being kept moving with difficulty by the police and troops. The situation is dangerous in the extreme.

Wednesday marked the first day of festivities arranged by students in honor of the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the University of Moscow. Throughout the day meetings and banquets were held. What was originally meant to be a purely festive character was turned into a revolutionary demonstration. Several of the meetings were broken up by the police, and a number of students were wounded.

Then the order was given to fire. The first volley went over the heads of the students and schoolboys, who continued their attacks. Then the soldiers lowered their rifles and the second volley crashed into the midst of the students. Many fell, killed or wounded, and the riotous and precipitate. Pools of blood covered the square after the encounter.

As night fell, bodies of students and strikers appeared everywhere in the city. The authorities are afraid to open in consequence of threats of strikers to sack their establishments. With the exception of the Official Messenger and the Invalid, no newspapers have appeared.

The workmen at the Nevsky yards presented themselves there today in order to receive the balance of their wages, but the demonstrators were not allowed to enter. The tobacco factories resumed work today.

BATTLE WITH LADRONES. Philippine Forces Rout Band Which Raided Town Recently. MANILA, Jan. 25.—In a battle this morning in a river bed near Silang, between a detachment of scouts and constabulary and 100 armed Ladrones, who, under the leadership of the outlaw Feliciano, attacked the town of San Francisco de Malabon in the Province of Cavite last Tuesday night, ten Ladrones have been killed and seven taken prisoners. There have been no casualties among the scouts and constabulary. Several fighting machines were destroyed.

In their attack on the town Tuesday night the Ladrones captured the wife and two children of Governor Trias. These were taken to the States outside of Manila. Several other women prisoners were seen with the Ladrones this morning, but an attempt to rescue them was unsuccessful.

LADRONES HELD UP A TOWN. Killed American Surgeon and Took Governor's Family Prisoners. MANILA, Jan. 25.—Additional details regarding the attack by Ladrones on the town of San Francisco de Malabon last night, in which Contract Surgeon J. A. O'Neill was killed, show that the Ladrones numbered 200. They were led by the famous outlaw Feliciano, and the prisoners who were aided by two American negroes. The Ladrones were armed with over 130 rifles.

Besides Surgeon O'Neill, one private of the constabulary was killed and three were seriously wounded. The home of former Governor Trias was attacked and his wife and two children abducted.

The municipal treasury was looted of $200 and 25 Remington rifles were taken by the rebels. The rebels were dressed in constabulary uniforms and this fact created considerable confusion.

DODGING THE HURRICANES. Russian Second Pacific Squadron Seeks Harbor of Refuge. SEYCHELLES ISLANDS, Indian Ocean, Jan. 25.—The French gunboat Capricorn reported today that the Russian second squadron was at Passandava Bay, north-west coast of Madagascar, January 20. It was thought the squadron intended to go to the east coast of Madagascar owing to the hurricane season.

(The Seychelles Islands are about 700 miles northeast of Madagascar.) Rumors of Mediation. PARIS, Jan. 25.—The Foreign Office is not aware of the source of a rumor circulated on the Bourse today of possible mediation in the war between Russia and Japan. No information relating to mediation has been received here. The officials here consider the rumor of an encounter between the squadron commanded by Vice-Admiral Rojstvensky and a Japanese squadron to be a fabrication.

Wounded Officers Going Home. NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Fourteen wounded Russian officers have arrived at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria, the correspondent there of the Herald. They were met at the station by Grand Duke Michael Mikhalovitch. Squadron Going on Still Hunt. TOKIO, Jan. 25 (3 P. M.).—The Navy Department today announced the formation of a special service squadron. No details are given.

SHIPS DRIVEN ASHORE. Snowladen Gale Causes Wrecks Along Atlantic Coast. NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 25.—Three schooners were blown ashore in Hampton Roads today by the fierce northwest storm, which swept over the region last night, accompanied by a fall of snow. The John A. Russell, of Tappanahannock, Pa., coal laden, was a total loss, while the Lulu and the other two were damaged. The Lulu was pulled into deep water by tugs. A yawl from the Lulu is on the beach, and it is thought some of her crew tried to make ashore. If they had not been drowned, they were on board the John A. Russell were saved.

CLOSE TO BREAKERS

Schooner Mahukona in a Perilous Position.

SAILS IN OVER THE BAR

Moors Just Inside River, but Anchors Are Dragging—Tug Standing by, but Powerless to Assist Her Until High Tide.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—The four-masted schooner Mahukona was within a hairbreadth of a wreck this afternoon and is now lying in a most perilous position at buoy No. 14, on the very edge of the reefing breakers, pounding on the bar, and is slowly dragging her anchors.

The powerful bar tug Tatoosh is standing by, but is powerless to help the Mahukona. The tug is now in the stream running station, is ready to make an attempt to take off the crew, but thinks the vessel's chances are good if the wind does not increase before midnight and her anchors hold. The crew from Fort Stevens will also assist, if signalled from Canby.

The Mahukona started to nose up to the bar about 10 o'clock, but the abridge was running station, and when the schooner tried to put out again she got into a bad position toward the rocks and was compelled to run the bar and take chances. When she started the tug breakers the lifeboats were ordered to get to her assistance, but she waded through the last line of breakers. Before she could make further way, however, the tide was run out and she was compelled to anchor within a few rods of the bar.

The wind has now increased from 25 to 40 miles an hour and the bar is much rougher. If the wind does not increase, she might be able to get to the bar, but to go close enough to get a line aboard. The pilot says it is a tossup whether the Mahukona escapes.

The Mahukona is in ballast from San Pedro for the Portland Lumber Company's mills for lumber. ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25.—Up to 12:30 this morning the schooner Mahukona had shown no signals of distress. The wind has moderated.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25 (1:30 A. M.).—The Tatoosh got a line aboard the Mahukona and was making some headway with her from the movements of lights on the vessel. RATE WAR ON COAST. Gray Line Cuts Tariff to Eureka and Coos Bay.

The California & Oregon Coast Steamship Company has inaugurated a rate war against Russell & Rogers, owners of the P. A. Kilburn, and any and every else who may invade the Coast territory. The trade of which they have long controlled. Cut rates were announced yesterday at the local office on receipt of a telegram from George D. Gray, of San Francisco, the head of the company. People now who have occasion to visit points on Humboldt and Coos Bays or tourists who are willing to accept the accommodations offered by the small coasters will find they can travel at very small expense.

The rates announced by the Gray line are: To Marshfield, $5 first class and $3 second class; to Eureka, $5.50 first class and $3.50 second class. The fare to San Francisco by these steamers will be $12 and $8, the same as is charged on the other steam schooners.

To make things more interesting, the California & Oregon company has chartered the well-known steamer Homer, on which the cut rates will first apply. This steamer will leave San Francisco tomorrow and will sail South from here next Wednesday. The steamer Frontis, Aberdeen and Dispatch, which were engaged by the company to take lumber to California, will also carry passengers.

No move has yet been made by Russell & Rogers, but it is believed they will meet the cut inaugurated by the Gray Company. The North Pacific Steamship Company, operating the steamer Roanoke, will likewise be drawn into the war, as this vessel is scheduled to sail at Marshfield and Eureka on both the up and down trips.

STEAMER GRIGGS WRECKED. Low Water in Upper Columbia Cuts Off Country Above Wenatchee. SEATTLE, Jan. 25.—Hundreds of people are practically cut off from all communication with the country above the Wenatchee, as a result of unprecedented low water in the Columbia River above Wenatchee. The steamer Griggs is on horseback, but a good portion of Okanogan County will, perhaps for weeks, be barred from securing any supplies.

The situation is unprecedented. Almost the entire country above Wenatchee depends upon steamboat service for its supplies, what few wagonroads there are being impracticable for supply service, owing to heavy snows and continuing storms. Increasing irrigation projects, a dry summer, and a winter in which no snow has melted on the mountains, is thought to be responsible for the condition of the river.

ASHORE AT VLADIVOSTOK. Another Steamer That Cleared for Moji Is in Trouble. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—M. A. Newell, marine insurance adjuster, has received a telegram from London stating that the vessel with which he is connected is ashore at Vladivostok. It is supposed to be the British steamer M. S. Dollar, which is owned here and which left this port November 21 with a cargo of flour. Her clearance papers gave Moji, Japan, as her port of destination, though it was rumored that she had been chartered to carry the flour to Siberia.

Sloop Is Found Empty. SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 25.—James Casey and two companions, known as "Tattoo Cockney" and "Jonesey," are believed to have lost their lives in the gale which raged over Puget Sound last night. A vessel with which they were connected is known to the men intended sailing from here for Port Blakeley last night, was found drifting between Rolling Bay and this city this morning. In the sloop were papers bearing Casey's name.

When last seen all three men were intoxicated and were going in the direction of the wharf where the sloop was moored, and it is the general opinion that they attempted to make the trip and were lost. Fast Passage of Campbell. ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25.—The schooner Jax A. Campbell has arrived here after a fast run up the Coast, having sailed from San Francisco last Sunday. The vessel was fortunate to get in yesterday, as a severe gale blew all night and today the bar was very rough.

Perkins Drags Her Anchor. ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25.—The barkentine George C. Perkins, lumber laden, bound for San Pedro, arrived down the river last evening and anchored in the stream opposite the city. During the gale last night the vessel dragged her anchor and a half of the cargo was lost. The ship's crew, however, may not have sustained any damage, and the vessel can be reached at high tide without difficulty.

Roscoe's Fine Is Reduced. ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Work was done at the Customs House today that the department in Washington has reduced the $600 fine recently assessed against the tug L. Roscoe to $200. The Roscoe belongs at Tanquin and was fined $500 for coming to this port with her crew short two men and an additional $100 for failure to carry a passenger list. An appeal was taken by Captain Grimm, master of the vessel, and O. W. Hurd, her owner, with the result that the amounts were reduced.

WILL TAKE OUT ELDER'S CARGO.

Archibald P. Macfarlane, of San Francisco, representing the foreign underwriters, said a visit to the steamer Geo. W. Elder at Goble yesterday. The insurance people have decided to have all the cargo removed from the stranded vessel, and then a more thorough investigation of her hull will be made, when it will be decided whether or not to attempt the floating of the craft. There was no change in the Elder's position yesterday.

Transport Sheridan Sails.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The United States Army transport Sheridan sailed today for Honolulu, Guam and Manila with a full passenger list and 900 tons of supplies. There were no troops on board, but the Sherman to sail February 1, will carry the Twenty-first Infantry regiment, in addition to many saloon passengers.

Anna Clears for Orient.

The German bark Anna dropped to anchorage in the stream yesterday and will leave down the river tomorrow morning, bound for Taku bar. The Pacific Export Lumber Company cleared her with 238,730 feet of lumber, valued at $2,175. This is the record lumber, when it will be shipped from this port on a sailer.

Shamrock Given a License.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Government Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers arrived in the stream yesterday and will leave down the river tomorrow morning. Gerald C. and the new steamer Shamrock. The latter was granted a license to carry 100 passengers. She will go into commission at once.

Domestic and Foreign Ports.

ASTORIA, Jan. 25.—Arrived down last night—Barkentine George C. Perkins. Arrived down at 1:15 P. M.—German steamer Aragonis. Outside at 1:30 P. M.—A three-masted schooner. Condition of the bar at 5 P. M.: rough; wind southeast; water smooth.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Sailed last night—Steamer Cascade, for Portland. Arrived—Steamer Osiris, from Coos Bay; steamer Breakaway from Coos Bay; steamer Star and City of Puebla, for Port Townsend and Victoria; barkentine Garden City, for Gray's Harbor.

Hong Kong, Jan. 25.—Arrived—Nunantia, from Portland, Or., via Yokohama. Yokohama, Jan. 25.—Arrived previously—Elder, from Portland, Or., and San Francisco, for Liago, etc.

YELLOW FEVER ON CRUISER.

Disease Spreads From Isthmian Cities to American Warships. PANAMA, Jan. 25.—A bulletin issued by the American Legation today announced one death and six cases of suspected yellow fever on board the cruiser Boston. The sanitary staff is investigating the causes and fumigating the ship.

From January 8 to January 10, 13 cases and one death from yellow fever have been reported at Panama and Colon. Negotiations have been concluded between Governor Davis, Minister Barrett and the Panama government under which the Canal Zone officials will assume complete charge of the sanitation of the city.
