Edwin Stone Does Not Regain Senses.

BODY BRUISED AND BURNED

Fatal Injuries Were Received in Hotel at Newport.

MYSTERY IS YET UNSOLVED

Two Men in Adjoining Room Made Haste Slowly in Going to Relief of Manager of the Corvallis & Eastern.

ALBANT, Or., Jan. 26 -(Special)-Edwin Stone, manager of the Corvallis & Mastern Railroad Company, who was sewieusly burned in a fire started in his room at the Abbey House at Newport Sunday morning while he was unconscious from an assault by an unknown man, died at his home in this city this morning. He gived 15 hours after receiving fatal inpuries, but never completely recovered concomess. Twice he was semi-co and was able to recognize a few friends about him. Once he referred to the axgault and said to the Hon, J. K. Weather yord, who was at Newport with him when ghe assault occurred:

Have you found out who got away with me?" He was never able, however, to give an account of the assault, but it is grow practically certain how it occurred.

Assaulted as He Slept. Soon after midnight Saturday night someone entered the room in which Mr. Stone was sleeping in a building belonging to the Abbey House, across the street from the main building of the hotel. Two men who were sleeping in the room below heard a noise in the room as if a struggle were taking place, and after the noise of the struggle had ceased they heard mouning. They were glarmed by the noises and got up to find out the cause.

After dressing they went first to the main building of the hotel and, falling to find anyone awake, they went to a saloor nearby and getting the barrender started back to their room and then discovered the fire in Mr. Stone's room. The fire was extinguished and Mr. Stone was found to be seriously burned. Fire Believed to Be Accidental.

Whether the fire was started accidental is or whether the assailant thought he had killed Mr. Stone and set the fire to bide his crime will never be known. The ition is general, however, that the was started accidentally, and color is gent to this theory by the fact that the burned very slowly, as is shown by the time that elapsed while the two men in the room below were dressing and preparing to make an investigation.

No circumstances have arisen to change tive of the assault was robbery. It is said that the officials at Newport have suspicions as to the identity of the assailant, but no arrests have yet been made.

Mr. Stone, accompanied by the Hon. and Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, of this city, had gone to Newport Saturday, Intending to -Surveyors for the Southern Pacific Com

SCHEDULES ARE INCREASED.

Appropriations Committee is Facing Heavy Demands.

OLYMPIA. Wash., Jan. 30.—(Special.)—
Schedules of the appropriations desired for the ensuing blennial period were submitted to the House appropriations committee at a meeting tonight.

Not all the state officers and boards have yet reported, but the schedules in mearly every instance show requests for appropriations greatly in excess over those of two years ago. The total, with a number yet to hear from is now those of two years ago. The total, with a number yet to hear from, is now $1,450,000. Of this amount about $1,60,000 is asked for by the State Board of Centrol for additions to and maintenance of the state institutions under their direction.

Few increases in salaries are asked Few increases in salaries are asked, but the School Superintesdent, the Com-missioner of Labor and Attorney-General ask for additional assistants and depu-ties. The State Treasurer wants $5000 for enforcing collection of the state's per cent of liquor licenses; and the State Board of Health wants a similar appro-priation for a bacteriological station. In-cidental expenses pile up in every de-partment.

The Governor's requests alone are less than the amounts allowed two years ago, his estimates having been reduced in the appropriations allowed for health emer-gency matters, suppression of riots, and rewards, the appropriations of two years ago having hardly been touched. The committee will have the schedules tabulated for future action.

Charged Under Felony Act. OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 30.—(Special.)— Warrants were issued today for the arrest of William McGowan, Edward Rogers and George Taylor, proprietors of two leading saloons in Olympia, charging them with conducting gambling games. The war-rants are drawn under the law of 1960 de-claring the conducting of gambling games a felony. The prosecuting witness is John Crowley, a well-known citizen. December 1906, is specified as the date when the games were conducted.

 McGowan and Taylor were placed under arrest tonight and released on their own recognizance until tomorrow. The warrant will be served on Rogers tomorrow. It is a peculiarity of the case that the name of the Prosecuting Attorney, Horatio Alling, does not appear in the matter, the proceedings having been conducted by J. W. Robinson, Crowley's attorney, and that the warrants were served by ex-Sheriff

E. A. McClarty (Rep.), who was sworn in today as a deputy. Sheriff Connolly is said to be at home sick. Both Alling and Connolly are Democrats.

The saloon element played a prominent part in the defeat of the Republican ticket in Thurston County last Fall. So far as Crowley is concerned, there is said to be no political animus, the action hav-ing been inspired, it is said, by the loss at roulette of money by a relative. It is reported that the prosecution ex-pects to cite Mayor P. H. Carlyon and Prosecuting Attorney Alling as witnesses.

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.

one knew when they every one presended to be surprised when they heard it was suddenly broken off. It was first said she had broken it off, then that his heart had changed, but finally she confessed that she had fairly driven him away. Her good looks were vanishing. She was getting thin, pale, and holiow-cheeked, with dark circles around her eyes. Suddenly all society was pleased again to hear of the engagement being renewed and it hear of the engagement being renewed, and it was not long before a beautiful and radiant bride was taken to the altar. She had regained her good looks, her former happy disposition and strong nerve all through a secret a friend gave her. A few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription is what made two more lives happy and a radiant

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is what made two more lives happy and a radiant bride more beautiful than she had ever appeared before.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cares, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feelfully warranted in offering to pay foo in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.
