WOMAN WORE A VEIL

With Rev. C. E. Bentley When He Dropped Dead.

IN LOS ANGELES' LODGINGS

Mysterious Circumstances Surrounding the End of One-Time Candidate on Prohibition Ticket for the Presidency.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5.-The death of Rev. C. E. Bentley, of Lincoln, Neb., in a lodging-house at 125 South Los Angeles street, last night, has furnished a case somewhat puzzling to the police. Rev. Mr. Bentley, according to a story told by Mrs. Douglass, proprietor of the lodging-house, located in the section known as the East Side ledging-house district, applied for a room about 8 o'clock Saturday night. He was accompanied by a stylishly dressed woman, who wore a thick, black vell. The landlady showed them to a ro and while she was turning on the light, Bentley dropped to the floor uncon The woman who accompanied him told the landlady to go for water, which she did. When she returned a moment later the mysterious woman had disappeared. Mrs. Douglass then went to seek assistance, but returning a few moments later. found a young man by the name of Haines holding Bentley's head. He left saying he was going for a doctor, but has not been seen since. Mrs. Douglass finally summoned the police, but Bentley was dead,

The body was removed to the morgue late Saturday night and was not identified until today. When search of his clothing was made it was found that his gold watch was missing and that his pockets contained only $1.05 in cash.

An autopsy was held today and it was found that death was due to heart disease. The police are seeking to find the mys terious veiled woman who accompanied Bentiey, and while they do not think she is in any way responsible for his death. they would like to learn who she is and why she was in Bentley's company.

Rev. Mr. Bentley and his wife arrived in Los Angeles last Friday and took apartments at 300 Olive street. Mr. Bentley was candidate for the Presidency on the Prohibition ticket in the campaign of 1896, and three times the Prohibition candidate for United States Senator from Nebraska. He was 64 years of age.

LINCOLN. Neb., Feb. 5.-Rev. C. E. Bentley was for many years a resident of Nebraska. He began his ministerial work in Nebraska and for 25 years was pastor of one church at Surprise. es a wife and six grown children. He left Lincoln for the West January 23. The body will be brought to Lincoln for

FLATHEADS IN SECRET COUNCIL Friction Over Demands to Be Made

Upon Government. MISSOULA, Mont., Feb. 5 .- The cour cli of Finthead Indians and chiefs of al-lied tribes is still in session. Those engaged in the deliberation of the ques-tions which have arisen, maintain absolute silence regarding the proceedings. No white men are permitted in the coun-cil tepee, and even Agent Belew is ig-norant as to the secret proceeding.

That there is friction among the head nen of the tribes is evidenced by the fact that so much secrecy is being main-tained. Chief Charlot is known to wield considerable influence among the older men in the council, and he is earnest in his efforts to secure from President Roosevelt a forest reserve which shall forever remain the exclusive property of Flathead Indians Chief Charlot's present the Indians' side of the question prior to the issuance of the proclamation claring the reservation open for set tlement Charlot has frequently complained regarding the failure of Congress to pro-vide a protection for Indians' firewood and building logs, and at the time run ners were sent out to summon the chiefs in council Charlot stated his plan. Since that time the question of the rights of selection of land in severalty has come up in connection with the enrollment which is now in progress.

FUNERAL OF EDWIN STONE.

Special Trains Take Many Friends to Albany.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 5 .- (Special.)-The funeral services of the late Edwin Stone were held in this city this afternoon, and it was one of the largest funerals ever held in Albany. Special trains were run from both ends of the Corvallis & East ern line, bringing a great many railroad employes and friends of the deceased to the funeral, and the regular south-bound Southern Pacific train brought a large number of railroad men from Portland and friends from other points. The Elks Lodge, of Salem, attended in a body, and members of the order from other Valley

FLYING LIMB CRUSHES SKULL Employe of Valley Logging Camp Meets Instant Death.

HARRISBURG, Or., Feb. 5.-(Special.) -R. El Clark, an employe of the Spauld ing Logging Company, who was working in a camp about eight miles north of this city, was struck by a falling limb yesterday afternoon and was instantly killed. The limb fell about 50 feet. A fellow-workman shouted to Clark to run, but he simply stooped over, and the limb struck him on the back of the head, smashing the skull in a frightful manner. A note on his person stated that in case of secident to notify his relatives in Pennsylvania, and this was done today. and in the meantime the remains are held at W. L. Wright's undertaking pariors. The unfortunate man was about middle aged and leaves no acquaintances in this camp for a few days. Several papers and letters of recommendation were found among his effects, which show that he had traveled a great deal and had held several good positions.

Hood River by other shippers. There are few more cars to follow. Word from Front street brings the information that but few apples have been shipped from the Palouse country, the Yakima and Grand Ronde Valleys. As there are large crops in these localities, which must soon be moved, it is feared by the scalers in Portland that the Coast markets must soon be flooded with apples. The Hood River growers have received very good prices. The farmers will now turn their attention to the strawberry

STEPFED INTO THE RIVER.

Peter Thompson, Fireman, Believed to Have Been Drowned at Astoria. ASTORIA, Or., Feb. E .- (Special.) -- Peter Thompson, fireman on the steamer Mayflower, is missing and is thought to have been drowned. About 11 o'clock last evening he started to go on hoard the steamer and has not been seen since. Soon after 11 o'clock the crew of the steamer Vanguard, which was lying close to the Mayflower, heard cries for help, and an immediate search was made along the wharf, but no one was found.

It was supposed that Thompson attempted to board the steamer, but made a misstep and fell into the river, and, being unable to swim, sank before help arrived. Thompson was 19 years of age, was a steady, industrious young man and has been employed as fireman on local steamers during the past year. His parents reside on a farm near Beaverton. Or., and his brother, Edward Thompson, is a fireman on the Custom-House launch

CHAMPIONS OCCUPY PULPITS OF SALEM CHURCHES.

Liquor Interests Said to Have Prepared Letters and Telegrams in Advance to Flood Legislature.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 5 .- (Special.)-Local ption rallies were held in Salem churches today, when addresses were made by G. L. Tufts and E. S. J. Mc Allister, of the Anti-Saloon League, A. the Presbyterian Church this morning. Mr. Tufts occupied the pulpit and spoke in behalf of the total option law. He said that the 1600 saloons in Oregon are killing 866 men annually and bringing that number of young men to ruln, for which reason it is the duty of the church to stamp out the evil.

Mr. Tufts commended the local option law as a step in the direction of over throwing the saloon and denounced the Jayne bill in the Legislature as an attempt to rob the people of the power to say whether liquor shall be sold or not. He urged the people of the churches to send resolutions, letters, telegrams and petitions to members of the Legislature protesting against the passage of any act amending the local option law.

At the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon Mr.
McAllister told of his work in the Legis-lature, saying that he had been sitting up nights with 90 men, talking with them about the Jayne bill. He declared that before the Legislature assembled liquor interests prepared letters and tele-grams favoring amendment of the local option law, which letters and telegrams sent to different parts of the state to be sent at the proper time to mem bers of the Legislature.

Mr. McAllister admitted that the loca option law is not perfect, but insisted that it should be amended only by the people who adopted it. That the Legis-lature has the power to amend the law he conceded, but insisted that it has not the right. "The people who made this law have the right to have it tested before it is tampered with," he asserted. He said that some members of the Legislature who were at first in favor of amendments to the local option law have since advised the friends of the law to stand pat and make no concessions, but

DETERMINED WIFE WILL TEACH

Attorney Sanborn Will Appeal From County Superintendent's Decision. HOOD RIVER, Or., Feb. 5 .- (Special.)-When Mrs. Sanborn appeared for trial yesterday morning before the School Board, to answer the charge of incompetency preferred by patrons, and to give reason why her contract should not be abrogated, Attorney Henderson presented an amended complaint. The attorney for the defense requested five days in which to file his answer, and the case was postponed until next Saturday.

Later in the day County Superintendent Neff listened to an appeal Attorney San-born took from the board's action in giving his wife leave of absence with pay The County Superintendent upheld the action of the board. Finding Mrs. Sanborn could not control the eighth-grade pupils, the board sought to place her in charge of a lower grade, but to this her husband objected. He feels certain the School Board cannot dismiss his wife, and is determined she shall complete the term as teacher in the eighth grade. Sanborn will appeal to the State Superintendent

Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse menstruation, accom-panied by unusual pain, from the ovaries down the groin and thighs. If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use. Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice free of all charge you will write her about yourself. Your letter will be seen by women only. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-

the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen morths ago my month-lies stopped. Shortly after I felt so hadly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation.
"Soon after I read one of your advertise-duct research work in all the states of the Union in compiling all valuable data concerning institutional growth. Funds will e provided covering the actual cost of the work.
