

EIGHT MEN HELD UP

Masked Bandits Rob Victims in Saloon.

SMALL SUM IS THEIR REWARD

Two Men Level Pistols at Crowd, Search Proprietor and Patrons, and Escape With Their Booty.

Two masked bandits, heavily armed, entered the Green Tree saloon, 499 Glisan street, at 5 o'clock last night, lined the proprietor and seven other patrons against the wall, robbed them and escaped with their booty.

Patrons of the place were engaged in conversation, and in quenching their thirst at the time. Suddenly from the rear door the two men, wearing white handkerchiefs over their faces and clenching blue-barreled pistols, entered the saloon.

"Boys, up with your hands, and to the wall with yourselves," sang out the taller criminal. "We're after money; don't monkey with us, and no one'll get hurt."

No one moved and the robbers started to search the place. They first cleaned out the cash register, which contained about $10. When they came to John Keller, the proprietor, they asked him if he had more somewhere. He told them no, and they took his word for it. One stood guard over the victims, while his companion made the search. Sums taken were as follows:

From John Keller, $10; Richard Lemay, $5; Harvey Kinser, $5; Fred Grim, $5; a knife and check for $175. The others present, who had no money, were M. Harrington, Joe Segrist, W. Killduff and John Marsh.

From the manner of their operations, the robbers are not believed to be professionals, according to statements of the victims to Acting Detective Vaughn, who investigated the case. They said the men were very nervous and careless, sometimes leaving the crowd without a pistol leveled at their heads.

Some believe the men are the same who held up the Richfield saloon early one morning recently and robbed the place of a large sum of money. One had a peculiar voice, so that it is believed his victim could identify him, should he be arrested.

BLACKLISTING THE LEADERS

German Mineowners Provoke Miners to Renew the Strike.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—The morning newspapers today printed dispatches from Bochum and Essen which indicate that the resumption of the coal miners' strike is highly probable. Bochum and Essen, says news reaching the headquarters of the Socialist labor unions all the afternoon yesterday of the blacklisting of men by the mineowners, and that thousands of men were turned away with the declaration that they never again would be given work.

Some of the mines are attempting to enforce reductions of wages as a penalty for striking.

An Essen dispatch says that at a meeting of miners Friday evening Herr Hue, a member of the Reichstag, gave out the watchword, "The strike will continue."

The Berlin newspapers condemn the action of the mineowners as an incredible piece of folly.

COMMITTEE MAY ORDER STRIKE

Wholesale Lockout by Mineowners Angers Their Employes.

ESSEN, Feb. 10.—The situation in the coal mine strike is very much confused. Some mines report scarcely any increase in the number of operatives returning to work at the mid-day shift, while others announce a great increase. At Krupp's mine two-thirds of the men are working. Other mines have applications from great numbers of returning operatives. Even in the districts where miners' meetings voted to stay out, it is believed the strike will crumble away in a few days.

PRINCESS IN A NEW SCANDAL

King of Saxony Will Stop Former Wife's Allowance.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—The Lokal Anzeiger prints information, asserting that it is from inside sources at Dresden, according to which Dr. Koerner's trip to Florence is the result of the report of two Saxony detectives whom King Frederick Augustus sent to Florence several weeks ago to watch the behavior of the Countess Montignoso, the King's former wife.

The King, the Lokal Anzeiger says, is evidently determined to take the little Princess Anna from her mother, and also discontinue the present allowance of $10,000 annually to the Countess Montignoso.

FOR FARMERS OF THE WORLD

David Lubin Explains Advantage of Universal Chamber of Agriculture.

ROME, Feb. 10.—David Lubin, of Sacramento, Cal., who has been staying here for some months perfecting the plans for the establishment of an International Chamber of Agriculture, speaking today to the correspondent of the Associated Press, said:

alleged that the officers and employees of the Butte Creek Company would intimidate those persons who had filed on land inside the fences formed by the chain of the company's holdings, and harass them until they were glad to take their flocks and leave the land and their claims to the use and benefit of the corporation.

The inclusion of John Hall, Edwin Mays and Franklin P. Mays in the indictment is a matter of surprise to many. It is said that in 1899 the first fence was put up in Wheeler County by the Butte Creek Land Company.

The present press continues enthusiastically on this project of King Victor Emmanuel. The Capitalist says:

When the Senate convened there were three seats at the table assigned to Judge Swayne's counsel, whereas heretofore there have been two.

When Mr. Palmer took his seat, the presentation of evidence was begun by Mr. Olmsted, one of the managers, who put in Judge Swayne's commission, the statutes which Judge Swayne is accused of violating and other documents bearing on the case.

Mr. Olmsted testified that there was no confession on the part of the respondent and that the testimony was necessary. Two witnesses testified concerning Judge Swayne's expenses while holding court in Texas.

There being no other witnesses present, the Senate as a court adjourned and went into executive session.

J. N. Williamson, John H. Mitchell, Binger Hermann, Franklin P. Mays and others are not far off.

Robertson, the private secretary of the Senator, was before the jury for the greater part of yesterday, leaving the room late in the afternoon. Frederick Kribs will be a witness, so it is said, and others who have been connected with the principals supposed to be under investigation as well as those who know of the operations of the timbermen and settlers on the Blue Mountain reserve, will be brought into the presence of the investigators.

It is supposed that the indictment of these persons heretofore named will be returned this afternoon, but if it is not made public today, Monday at the latest will see the document produced in court.

Jury Will Adjourn Monday.

The indictment of Mr. Williamson and his associates in the Blue Mountain deal will be the last work of the present session, so it is said, and the jury will adjourn Monday afternoon until late in March, when the members will be again called together by Mr. Heney previous to the March term of the Federal Court. At this time those matters which will be left over from the present term will be taken up and investigated.

CORNER ON EGGS IN CHICAGO

Meat Trust Accused of Keeping Millions in Cold Storage.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—The Daily News says: It is estimated that there are 45,000,000 eggs in cold storage in Chicago. Notwithstanding this, a famine in the product exists and housewives are paying 38 cents a dozen. The big meat packers are said to have a corner on the market. Last Spring, when eggs were cheap, the meat packers and a few heavy dealers secured hundreds of thousands of cases of eggs, which were at once put away for a time when, owing to natural conditions, the market supply of fresh eggs would be unequal to the demand. The eggs were bought at a price ranging from 15 to 17 cents a dozen.

To Find Market for Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 10.—Ex-United States Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, chairman of the committee appointed by the Southern Interstate Cotton Convention to wait on President Roosevelt and ask him to form a commission to introduce American cotton into the Orient and other undeveloped markets, will visit the President on February 29. Senator McLaurin calculates that if China may be induced to use American cotton it is not unreasonable to believe that 25,000,000 bales of the American crop will be consumed after five years.

Arrested for Ducking an Old Man.

HARRISON, Idaho, Feb. 10.—Five men alleged to be implicated in the outrage on C. M. Frakes ten days ago, when he was foretaken from his home at Half-Round Bay and ducked in Lake Coeur d'Alene, have been arrested and lodged in the county jail at Rathdrum. The men under arrest are Andrew and William Santon, William and Daniel Bolch and L. A. Cartwell. The animus of the assault was revenge for alleged injuries to men of the party by giving information to a Government timber agent of fraudulent land entries. The Bolch brothers are young men of excellent reputation.

Master Is Fearful of Capture.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 10.—The British steamer Brinkburn is at Esquimalt awaiting word from her owners before proceeding to Vladivostok with contraband shipped at San Francisco. She loaded bunker coal at Comox, where five men deserted. Others have been shipped, but the master, realizing the number of captures that have been made of late, is communicating with his owners before starting.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., Feb. 10.—Five early today destroyed five of the principal building buildings of Oskaloosa. Loss, $150,000. Fitch Bros., harness; Sull & McGregor, Baldeneer & Rosenbach, dry goods, and Pifer & Belmont, dry goods, are principal losers.

The shaft is down 229 feet and a gangway 150 feet has been extended along the vein. An air shaft is now being sunk and as soon as this is completed and the bunkers—now being built—are finished, the company will be ready to ship coal for the market.

Connection of Hall and Mays.

Matters drifted along for some time, and complaints came in that the fence had not been removed. Mr. Hall sent men out to investigate, and it was reported to him that the fences were still in place. On the receipt of this information, it is said, Mr. Hall became angry and threatened to indict Senator Steiwer for fencing the Government lands. F. P. Mays came in at this juncture and told Mr. Hall that it would not be the best thing to do, but Mr. Hall was obstinate and threatened vengeance on the heads of the Senator and his associates for having broken faith with him. Mr. Mays, it is said, went to Senator Fulton and told him of the proposed action of the District Attorney and asked him to go to John Hall and see that the indictment was not brought. It is said that the Senator went to Mr. Hall and told him it would be enough to bring a civil suit; that he could do this as soon as he wanted to, but it would be an unwise thing to bring criminal action against so prominent a man as the ex-Senator. The indictment was never returned. This climax came to a head in the latter part of 1902.

Binger Hermann Implicated.

Binger Hermann is implicated owing to the fact that when he had been written to repeatedly by the settlers of Wheeler County he refused to take any decided action and favored the enterprise of the members of the Butte Creek Company.

Spurious Applications Filed.

These applications purported to be petitions from actual settlers asking for surveys to be made of lands in the southwestern part of the state. It is alleged that these applications were spurious and that the settlers in the districts represented.

The Defendants Named in the Indictment.

The names of Sorenson, Stipp and Duncan were brought into the indictment by the fact that they, as notaries, administered the oath and took the affidavits of the surveyors, presumably knowing that they were fraudulent, or at least were not properly made. Their connection is the same as that of Senator George C. Brownell.
