Italian Killed by Man She Rejected.

MURDERER MAKES ESCAPE

Fires Twice on Victim and Slinks Away.

VENGEANCE FRIENDS

Amelia Sirianni, Popular in Italian Colony, Slain at Candy-Stand in the Presence of Her Friends.

Ameila Sirianni, very popular in the local Italian colony, was shot by Joe Florebello as she stood behind the coun-ter of her little cigar and candy stand, 256 First street, at 7:45 o'clock last night. She died shortly after 8 o'clock. The murderer fired two shots, one of which took effect in the left cheek, causing death. The murderer then ran up the street, and at a late hour had not been captured. Jealousy is given as the cause of the tragedy.

The murder was witnessed by Julis Goertz, who was employed by the victim at her home, 210 Clay street. Frank Tenerelli, 210 Clay; Goetano Gallucci and Frank Bandio, the latter from Beaverton, were also eye-witnesses. All agree on the identity of the assassin; that he fired two shots; that the woman was given no opportunity for defense, and that she died without making any statement.

Friends Talk of Lynching.

Hardly had the reports of the shots died away and the smoke cleared from the small room which was the scene of the occurred, they vowed they would lynch the man who had shot down the woman, who is known as one of the most popular of the Italian colony, Police headquarters were notified, and

Acting Sergeant Slover was dispatched to the scene by Captain Moore. Patrolman | the convention. West was soon there, and later Detectives Hartmun and Weiner came. Deputy Sheriffs Cordano and Grussl aiso joined in the case. All night the officers kept up the search for the murderer.

According to the constitution, the object of the association of lodges is to advance the social and beneficiary features of the order. During the afternoon several papers were read by members and speeches Coroner Finley took charge of the body, having it removed to the morgue. An in-quest will be held, but the exact time is not yet known. Woman Scorned Attentions.

Fiorebello had long sought to pay at-tentions to the woman, but she refused, it is said by many Italians, to recognize him. Several months ago he was arrested and brought before Municipal Judge Hogue for trial on a charge of assault and battery, she being the complainant. He was ordered out of the city at the time, and it is said he went away for a while. Just when he returned is not known. While he was away, the woman secured a divorce from her husband, Paul Sirianni, who for years has operated a bootblack stand on Third street, near Pine. Cruelty was the ground for the separation. Through all of her troubles Attorney Albert B. Ferrera was her counsel. He talked with the murderer on the street three nights ago, and throughout the conversation Mrs. Strianni was frementioned, but the attorney tates he did not think the man meant to

Shortly after 6 o'clock last night Fiore-bello entered the stand. The woman who had spurned him for more than one year had spurned him for more than one year had spurned him for more than one year as of the talent of the player. The Mo-

It was about 7:44 o'clock when Flore-bello again entered. The woman was standing behind the counter, conversing the with those present.

Shoots and Disappears.

"What is .. my brother owes you" asked Florebello, and before she could raply, he leveled his pistol at her head nd fired two shots.

"Oh, my God-I'm shot!" cried the woman, as she fell to the floor. The mur-derer, as she sank, fled through the front door, dashed up First street and disappeared, leaving the witnesses to the tragedy to care for his victim. The divorced husband of the woman was among those who called at the store before the body was removed. He was crying over her body when the Coroner age, which was also the age of her slayer. She left two sons, Fidele and Frank, aged 4 and 6 years respectively. Florebello is said to be a vagrant, and very unpopu-lar among the Italians.

BAKER CITY PROMOTER FAILS Philip Campbell, of Flagstaff Mine, Becomes a Bankrupt.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 10.-(Special.)-Philip Campbell, a Boston promoter, to-day filed a voluntary petition in bank-ruptcy in the United States District Court. His liabilities, according to the schedule, are $12,529, and his assets $760. OBJECT TO OPENING STREET Property-Holders Remonstrate at Proposed Work on East Davis Street.

Representing East Davis-street prop-erty-owners, F. S. Bennett, an attorney, was present yesterday at the meeting of the street committee to protest against the opening of East Davis street from 80 feet west of East Twenty-seventh street to the west line of East Twenty-eighth street. Mr. Bennett presented resolutions arguing that the cost of survey and view ing expenses were excessive and out of proportion to the small amount of prop-erty involved, insofar as the City En-gineer had neglected to prepare a plat of the property.

The property-owners claim an injustice in the assessment of the property already deeded to the city. It is further stated that all the property-owners, excepting a few who will receive compensation, are opposed to the opening of the street inas-much as there is no benefit to be derived and they aver there is a probability of the street not being opened from Sixteenth to Seventeenth street since the Listman house and property, valued at $6000, seems to be the obstruction to be over-

It is further claimed that it will be necessary to go to East Burnside street to reach the city and the property-owners cannot perceive how the city will receive any benefit from the opening of the street. Mr. Bennett stated that all property-owners had signed the remoustran with the exception of the School Board and Mrs. Beach, whom, he averred, wish the street opened. After considerable discussion the street committee directed that the Council hold up the resolution for the opening of the street.

A communication from the Taxpayers' League asking that South Portland be assessed for the building of bridges in that section of the city was tabled. The remonstrance of Pettygrove-street property-owners against the granting of a franchise to the Hillsboro Electric Railroad was tabled, pending the drawing up of the ordinance affecting the franchise. B. M. Lombard was present asking for the improvement of streets south of Tilla-mook and including Hancock, East Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh, which run through his property. He argued that he desired to bring these streets up to the standard of streets in the Irvington Addition, but was obstructed by small property-owners, whom he averred were mortgaged and not in position to pay for improvements. The matter was taken under consideration while Mr. Sharkey consults other of the property-owners.

The matter of a franchise for the Oregon Water Power & Railroad Company was tabled indefinitely. It was ordered that the City Engineer plan for the establishment of a grade at Twenty-ninth and Quimby streets so as to facilitate the improvement of thoroughfares in that vicinity.

The street committee seems inclined to the opening of specifications for street improvements so as to allow competitive bidding. Messrs. Sharkey and Rumelin expressed themselves as being in favor of open bidding for Holladay avenue. City Engineer Wanzer stated that he wished the first two blocks of the improvement paved with stone blocks and while he was opposed to the specifying of special pavements if the property-owners wanted a patented article he did not see any reason why they should not be allowed

A number of other matters of minor importance were before the meeting, which adjourned at 4 P. M.

DISTRICT CONVENTION HELD. Degree of Honor Delegates Form a New Organization.

Enthusiastic members of the Degree of Honor of Portland, Astoria and Oregon City gathered at Logus Hall, East Port-land, yesterday for the purpose of forming a district convention of the order. Following the preliminaries of organization, Sarah Fastaband, of Astoria, grand chief of honor, was elected chairm were made by C. H. Stockton, of Astoria, and Ralph Feeney, of Portland.

At the evening session competitive reci-tations of ritualistic work were listened to and prizes awarded to Lizzie Gardener for rendering the past chief's charge, and to Margarette Reed for repeating the charge of the chief of honor. After the drills the convention adjourned to meet again in this city next June.

DE PACHMANN'S PROGRAMME Sensuous, Poetic Grace of Mozart's "Turkish Sonata."

In addition to the fascinating array of Chopin numbers with which Pachmann will delight his audience at the Marquam tonight there will be a generous allotment of that pianist's famous "battle-pieces" by other great composers.

Of the opening number, Mozart's Turkish Sonata, the San Francisco Bulletin says: "Mozart's Turkish Sonata had spurned him for more than one year had spurned him for more than one year was busy arranging her stock of trade, but he demanded her attention. She did not heed him. He became quarrelsome, sible from the gentle, clevated spirit of Mozart, but he has somehow, in the of delicately woven harmonies midst of delicately woven harmonies and a marked, rapid tempo, managed to convel some of the languor of the people of the Bosphorus region and of oddity of their religion.

"De Pachmann's fingers ran in and out of the quick, complicated phrases producing a sound harmony as sensuous, yet refined in its way, as the poetry of 'Omar Khayyam.' "
