TO CLEAR OREGON'S NAME

Rev. W. E. Randall and Rev. E. Nelson Allen Give Views on Land Frauds Investigations in Their Sermons.

The climax of the investigations is the land frauds in Oregon was the theme taken by several pastors of Portland's churches yesterday. As the speakers referred to the men whose names have been connected with the frauds, evidence of great interest spread throughout the congregations. Listeners suddenly sat upright or leaned forward to follow more closely the minister's remarks.

The burden of the remarks of Rev. E. Nelson Allen, of First Cumberfand Presbyterian Church, was that justice be meted out to the perpetrators of the frauds, and the fair name of the state impurity in this state. Oregon's humiliation before the Na-tion as a result of land frauds was the salient point of Rev. William S. Ran-dall's address to the congregation of Central Baptist Church last night.

He referred to the charges that have been made during the last few weeks against the state's highest officials and spoke of the charges as being one of the "Great Issues of the Church," waich

Upon this anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, when our eyes lift to that tall, majestic man, citizen, official, statesman; when our hearts thrill with the memory of his rugged hencety, unflinching fidelity and sterling integrity, Oregon's present humillation rise a black storm to mar the picture

It will not play with little undertakings, but will invest itself in the things that are great by the verdict of the ages and the under score of God.

The relation of the churches to the problems, perils and possibilities of hu-manity is pertinent inquiry. Does the ordinary church make adequate contribution to the welfare of mankind? Does it deal in a practical manner with things fundamental? Are the surface emotions of men played with, only to subside, or are deep, lasting convictions cultured? Are currents of power put into the net-work of social and industrial wires that extend to every organization, home and

WISHES LAW TO HAVE COURSE Rev. E. Nelson Allen Says Safety of Country Demands It.

Judge Alfred F. Sears Says Robbers Wish to Plunder State.

Judge A. F. Sears lectured last night before the William G. Ellot Fraternity at the First Unitarian Church. In his opening remarks Judge Sears referred to the deep sense of humility felt by the people because of the astound-ing revelations of civic impurity today

"This debasement," he said, "Is not confined to our own state nor even to public officials. It has been demonstrated that it permeates the people of the com-monwealth which was founded at Plymouth Rock by those who sought to form state, the corper-stone of which was

Rev. H. T. Atkinson Gives Last Sermon on Would-Be Disciples.

Yesterday was made memorable at the orth M. E. Church, on Twenty-third and Irving streets. In the morning five new members were received into the fellowship of this church, and last night Rev. Henry T. Atkinson, the pastor, closed the interesting series of sermons which he has been preaching on "Three Would-Be Disciples." The sermon last night was from Luke ix: 6i, and was on "The Wavering Disciple." He said., "This man had listened to the words of Christ in which the other disciples were taught, first, that there was a cross to bear by all who would follow Christ, and econd, that no interest was great enough to overshadow the Kingdom of Ged. The wavering disciple's plea. however, was spparently based upon ties of affection. hrist's reply to him taught him that inecision to perform a righteous action, while the opportunity to do so is slipping away, is sin.

"History reveals the fact that all who have been famed for greatness have been men of purpose. When Abraham Lincoln was signing the emancipation proclamation, he labl the pen down twice, and explained that, having been shaking hands all day, his hand trembled; then, taking his pen for the third time, he wrote his name in a firm hand, saying to Secretary Seward: There, I think that will do. No man who ever sees that signature will ever say 'he hesitated.

The singing of the Oliphant Sisters was exceptionally fine, and the sermon by Dr. Brougher on "Climbing the Golden Stairs" was a char-atceristic one, and made a dep impres-sion. TO DISCUSS RIGLER'S SALARY School Board Will Probably Consider Matter at Tonight's Meeting.

There may be new developments at the meeting of the School Board tonight con-cerning the method pursued in voting the increase of $1000 to the salary of Super-intendent Rigler, but it is doubtful if anything definite will be done beyond discussion, as Herman Wittenberg, one of the members of the School Board, is at present absent in California on business and is not expected home for a week. A rumor was current yesterday that Henry S. Allen, clerk of the School Board, will not sign the minutes of the meeting at the eventful session, which gave Mr. Rigier his advance in salary, on the ground that he, Mr. Allen, was not present. But it is believed by those who vot-ed for the salary increase that they have the right, under the law, to appoint a deputy clerk, should occasion warrant this

"But is the action advancing Mr. Riger's salary legal, seeing that the regular clerk, Mr. Allen, was not actually pres-ent?" was asked.

"The members of the board have nothing to fear in the way of criticism in this regard," was the reply. "Two of them are lawyers, and no action was taken contrary to law. Surely the board has a right to appoint a deputy clerk, if it should so choose. Mr. Rigier was offered another position elsewhere at $6000 per year, and he would undoubtedly have left Portland had he not been given the advance. Little Girl Abandoned by Supposed Abductor.

CASE CLOUDED IN MYSTERY

Geneva Rossie, Whose Parents Live at Bakersfield, Cal., Found in Room, Where She Had Been Abandoned by Stranger.

Little Genevieve Rossi, aged 8 years. bright and intelligent child for her age, was kidnaped from her home in Bakersfield, Cal., three weeks ago by a friend of her family, and deserted Saturday morning in a rooming-house in this city, The story she tells is an unusual one, and enough has been substantiated through the efforts of Detective Hawley to warrant belief in all. The child is in custody of the Boys' and Girls' Ald Society, pending further investigation of

Saturday afternoon the landlady of the Raymond lodging-house, 31/2 North Third street, telephoned to police headquarters that a little girl had been descried there. The aid of the police was requested and Detective Hawley was sent to investi-gate. The giri was taken to the station, where she told her story.

She stated that three weeks ago a friend of her family, known to herself only as "Joe," took her to San Francisco from Bakersfield for the purpose of visiting his sister a day and then returning to Bakersfield. He was well known to the child's parents, and when he asked to take the child on a visit to his sister the permission of the parents was easily obtained, understanding being that they were to return the following day.

The visit to the home of the sister in San Francisco was made, but when they started to return home, the man known as Joe told the child that high winds prevented the boat from running and they could have to take the train. in her innocence, took him at his word and fell asleep shortly after boarding the train. Instead of returning to Bakersfield, however, Joe took her to Sacra-mento. From there they journeyed by easy stages to Portland. They arrived here Friday night. Rooms were obtained the Raymond lodging-house, and on Saturday morning the man told the girl he was going to the depot for his trunk. He left and did not return. The child waited until along in the afternoon and then began to feel afraid. She went to he landlady, and the matter was reported to the police The child gave a good description of the nan, but police officers have so far failed apprehend him. It is the opinion of ne police that he deserted the child and left the city. No reason can be ascertained for the circumstance. It is evident that there is a phase of the story yet to be unravelled, and the police at Bakersfield have been communicated with in an effort to solve the mystery. "Bonnie Brier Bush" Tonight. One of the dramatic treats of ti son will be the engagement at the Mar-quam Grand Theater tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, of "The Bonnie Brier Bush," that enduring stage picture of Scotch life, with J. H. Stoddart, in his farewell season, as Lachian Campbell, and Reuben Fax still giving his able interpretation of the lovable rascal,

This favorite exponent of the old school of acting, Mr. Stoddart, has long been s conspicuous figure on the American stage, and his instantaneous success in this piece was to be expected. The role of Lachlan Campbell suits him better than any of the parts he has portrayed in his 70 years before the public, and will be long remembered to his credit. This is to be Mr. Stoddart's last tour in "The Bonnie Brier Bush." The supporting company and scenic production is promised to be up to the standard of Kirke La Shelle enterprises and a delightful performance is assured. Among the players are Irma La Pierre, Robert C. Easton, Adelaide Cumming, Carlyle Moore, formerly of the Baker Stock Company, this city; Louise Rutter, F. Elliott Jenkins, Edith Talbot, J. Palmer Collins and Robert Ireland.

It is in the nature of taking a dare that Managers Keating & Flood are undertaking this week, for comparisons have been made between the local vaudevilles am those of the Keith and Proctor and ever the Orpheum, which are not altogether complimentary to Portland.
