The Different Store Olds, Wortman and King

THE QUALITY SHOP

The Different Store Olds, Wortman and King

Our store helps to tell what the coming great World's Exposition means. Its rapid but healthy and symmetrical growth and its plans for a broader future typify the rise, expansion and restless progress of this great Western metropolis of Portland. Both the city and our store are unfinished. Growth and building are constantly going on, and plans are carefully laid for even a greater future than the splendid past—and both the city and the store are worth knowing better as they are today. The store is like the city, again, because it is unfinished and improvements are going on now and constantly to meet the conditions of rapidly growing business. We are re-stocking throughout for the new season in the greater stores. Again is the city and its largest and best store alike, in that both offer wider opportunities for investment. This announcement is full of suggestions along that line which it will pay you to read:

HOCH WAS HOLMES' PARTNER

Bluebeard Positively Identified as Janitor of Holmes' Castle.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—The police today put more faith in the theory that Johann Hoch is identical with "Jake" Hoffman, janitor of the flat building owned by the wholesale murderer, H. H. Holmes, in 1892. Three persons have now positively identified Hoch as Hoffman. Police Inspector Shippy today obtained the names of several others who knew Hoffman, and who will be asked to say whether Hoffman and Hoch are one.

Hitherto doubt has been cast upon the assertions that Hoch and Hoffman were identical, because of a belief that Hoch did not arrive in this country until 1885. Seemingly, however, Hoch's own statement is all the authority they have for this. They have, to the contrary, the statement of a furniture dealer here, who declares he sold Hoch furniture in 1882.

Chinese Merchant Bankrupt.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 14.—Mark Ten Sule, one of the best-known Chinese merchants on the Coast, was declared a bankrupt yesterday afternoon on his own motion. For 15 years he has been a merchant in Seattle and has always been regarded successful. He placed his assets at $12,190 and his liabilities at $14,763.11. Friends of the Chinese merchant say that his business has fallen off greatly in the last year because he was compelled to move his store from Second avenue to First avenue.

Nearly Derailed a Coach.

MILTON, Or., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—As the Spokane passenger train was pulling out from this station, Amos Thompson, a young freewheeling lad, 16 years of age, threw a piece of wood under the moving train, almost derailling the coach. The agent, acting under advice of Superintendent Campbell, immediately swore out a warrant for his arrest.

Constable James Dykes started to enforce the order, but young Thompson was missing. The O. R. & N. intends to make an example of him when caught. His act is a penitentiary offence.

Will of Mrs. Wirt.

ASTORIA, Or., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—The will of the late Mrs. Susan M. Wirt, of Willapa, was admitted to probate today. The instrument was executed on February 1, 1904, and leaves the estate, which is valued at $100, to Mrs. Harriet M. Reiman, of Portland, in trust, and Mrs. Reiman is named as executrix.

HUGE PETITION FOR PARDON

Fifty Pounds of Signatures Fail to Save Mrs. Edwards' Life.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—A monster petition urging Governor Pennypacker to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence of Mrs. Kate Edwards was presented to the Governor this afternoon by three women from Cleveland, O. The petition, which contains the signatures of 50,000 men and women of Ohio, is two miles long and weighs 50 pounds. The delegation argued that Mrs. Edwards' sentence ought to be commuted because she was not responsible for her crime, and that she killed her husband in self-defense.

The Governor said that the matter was out of his hands, but promised to refer the petition to the Board of Pardons. The petition contains the signatures of lawyers, ministers, public men and thousands of women. Carl Mueller and H. H. Anderson, Cleveland attorneys, have obtained permission from the Board of Pardons to appear before that body at tomorrow's hearing in behalf of Mrs. Edwards.

Mrs. Edwards Has Collapsed.

READING, Pa., Feb. 14.—The depositions of Mrs. Kate Edwards and Gresson, who are co-defendants in the hanging Thursday, were to have been taken today and submitted to the Board of Pardons tomorrow. The former, however, was too weak to leave her cell, and made no affidavit. Gresson was questioned at length as to his connection with the crime. He again reiterated his innocence and declared that he would say so on the gallows on Thursday.

Mrs. Edwards is in a state of collapse and moans and cries continuously. She eats nothing, saying she wants to be left alone.

In his petition to the Board of Pardons Gresson reviews his case and asks for a full pardon
