Baseball Promoter Now Plans New League.

DUGDALE AIDS IN THE DEAL

Scheme to Wreck Pacific National League Fails, but Attempt Will Be Made to Start a Circuit of Puget Sound Cities.

President W. H. Lucas, of the Pacific National League, has lost another baseball war. He is out of that league and is trying start another Northwest circuit. Lucas was supreme until Portland and Seattle had decided that Lucas was not in sympathy with these two cities, so the Seattie and Portland magnates took the hurdies and joined the Pacific Coast Loague. This action brought about a costly war, costly from financial standpoint, yet at the same time it was the means of furishing the fans with better baseball. When the war started President Lucas gave it out that the Pacific Nacional League would win. He attempted to carry out this statement by invading California and placing an opposition team in Seattle and in Portland. The local fans refused to cross the river to see Jack Grim's team play and it was not long be fore Portland was dropped, and for a time it looked as if the Pacific Nationa League would collapse. It managed to struggle through the season and when it closed President Lucas gave it out that the Pacific National League was dead. Waiter Wilmot, manager of Butto, and President Williams, of Spokane, refused to have the Pacific National League declared dead in spite of the action of the National Association, which at Lucas solicitation declared the league out of existence. For months past Magnate Wil-hams and Wilmot have been engaged in a hot war with Lucas, and recent dis patches seem to indicate that Lucas is once more defeated. A dispatch from Spokane says that President Lucas has left the field clear to those who wish to keep the Pacific National League alive. He will continue with his original plan of reviving a Northwest League, which was the name of the league when Scattle and Portland were members. Lucas was granted permission to establish a new league after it was declared that the Pacific National League was dead. The threat on the part of Williams, Wilmot and others to establish an outlaw league, the following cities: Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., Bellingham and Everett. The Pacific National beague will have teams in the cities of Spokane, Butte, Salt Lake, Boise, Helena and Ogden. Those who held the franchise of the teams in those towns named refused to urrender their leases to the grounds and was this undoubtedly that caused Lucas to surrender. Before the new league can get down to business it will be neces-sary to secure grounds and erect ball parks. This will cost a great deal of

It was rumored that D. E. Dugdale, promient in the war of 1903, will have a team in the Northwestern League. Dug-dale will either select Bellingham or

The first M. A. A. C. banket-ball team will meet the crack Dallas aggregation in a return game Friday night. The game will be played on the laron local club floor and from the past 30.08. work of both teams it should be an exceptionally fast one. In the last game played at Dallas the club boys were defeated by the close score of 14 to 19. They have been working up to the limit in the recent practice work in rder to be able to wipe out that de-

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.-In the handicap at Oakland today Ananais cut a second from the track's highest mark for one mile and 100 yards, placing the record at 1:44%. to tell you the great good your remedy has done me in a case of Contagious Blood Poison. Among other symptoms I was severely afflicted with Rheumatism, and got almost past going. The disease got a firm hold upon my system; my blood was thoroughly poisoned with the virus. I lost in weight, was run down, had sore throat, ons, splotches and other evidences of the disease. I was truly in a bad shape when I began the use of S. S. S., but the persistent use of it brought me out of my trouble safe and sound, and I have the courage to publicly testify to the virtues of your great blood remedy, S. S.
