THE VOTE FOR A SCHOLARSHIP

To be Given Free by This House in the I. C. Schools

What prominent homefolk think of the course. Read what Mr. Corbett says:

Henry W. Corbett, President. Wm. H. Corbett, Vice-Pres & Mgr. Bert C. Ball, Secretary & Chief Engr.

WILLAMETTE IRON AND STEEL WORKS,
Founders, Machinists, Boiler-Makers.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 26, 1901.

The system and methods of the International Correspondence Schools have recently been called to our attention, and on investigation of the same we were very much impressed with the real merits of the work which they are doing. They certainly open a new field of advancement to their students, and give promise for progress which is practical and substantial.

Their scheme of education meets with our hearty approval.

Yours respectfully,
(Signed) W. H. CORBETT, Vice-Pres and Manager.

A vote with every 25c purchase. The person having the highest vote at 6 P. M. of Saturday, April 22, will be awarded the scholarship. For obvious reasons, NO VOTES WILL BE COUNTED FOR EMPLOYEES OF THIS HOUSE!

A SENSATIONAL "Renovation Sale" of Women's Wear Opens Today in the Big Apparel Salons--Second Floor

VALUES ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE! BARGAINS ABSOLUTELY UNPARALLELED! "GAINFUL TRANSACTIONS" THAT ARE SIMPLY UNMATCHABLE AWAIT TODAY'S PATRONS! AN AWFUL TREMENDOUS SACRIFICE ON WOMEN'S READY-TO-DON GARMENTS THAT SURPASSES ANY OFFERING OF ANY SORT EVER HANDED TO PORTLAND WOMEN.

IT'S AN ALMOST "HELP-YOURSELF SALE." You'll hardly believe your eyes when you read the prices; you'll marvel still more when you see the splendid garments those prices are attached to. The father of the proud owner of Creseus, the trotter that played tag with the world's record, was a multi-millionaire. On his deathbed he said: "If my son gets half as much pleasure out of spending my money as I did in acquiring it, I shall be satisfied." Equal pleasure may be yours, madam, in spending money at this

Veritable Slaughter Sale Today
It will be the quickest moving of merchandise ever known in the West, if not in America. If you've been on the second floor this week you'll know the reason for such wholesale massacre of prices--those who've been here know that pandemonium reigns! Carpenters and painters have complete possession. Scaffolding is everywhere, and business is driven into a corner. There's a hurly-burly and a hubbub that's positively frightful.

The Magnificent Garments Are in Danger
We've been compelled to move every piece of merchandise on the floor. Now, if you can stand the discomfort of mingling with the workmen and their noise, and wending your way under scaffolding and ladders, you'll be privileged to share in the Greatest Distribution of Bargains Ever Attempted in the West

The goods must be gotten out of harm's way, no matter what the loss. We prefer to benefit our patrons than to risk a loss by damage during the renovations going on. We'll lose hundreds of dollars in this sale--yes, perhaps thousands--but you'll be the gainers. Be amongst the early ones.
