MANY CANDIDATES IN FIELD

Approach of Date for City Election Brings on Preliminary Maneuvering - Mayoralty Race Is the Chief Issue.

* MENTIONED FOR MAYORALTY OF PORTLAND.

Geo. H. Williams. W. P. Olds. George H. Howell. T. B. Wilcox. L. H. Webster, H. R. Alber, Dr. Andrew Smith, W. M. Ledd. T. C. Devlin. H.W. Goode. Samuel Connell W. D. Wheelwright. A. L. Mille, W. B. Ayer.

A. A. Bailey. H. M. Cake. L. Zimmerm Whitney L. Boise. Fred T. Merrill. Amedee M. Smith. E. M. Brannick. Dr. Harry Lane. W. B. Ginfke. J. N. Tenl. I. N. Fleischner.

Though Portland's city election is three and one-half months distant, class are getting togother for selection of condidates. The office frought with heav-lest importance is that of Mayor, for which many notables and celebrities are carried on the tongue of political and reform patriots.

Some of the aforesaid notables and celebrities are openly desirous of devoting their energies to the welfare of their urday matinee. fellow mortals, others wish to be coaxed, and still others will not enter the sacrifice unless pulled into it.

Of first concern is the question whether reform elements will put up can-didates of their own or will fall into line behind the banners of the regular par-ties. But reformers themselves have not decided this question and, as a prominent member of the Municipal League said last night, they will not do so until they behold the character and purpose of the party nominees.

Officers to be elected besides Mayor Mayor is vested with large powers for enforcement of law and administration of departments and as his authority constigrandoscope. totes a virtual "one-man government," reform forces are very eager to elect to the office somebody who will piedge him-self to suppress gambling and hold saloons and other instruments of vice under rigid surveilance, and who has energy to make good his pledge and hold to it until the end of his term in July, 1907. Political parties on their side are waiting to see what reformers will do, and thus each is looking for the other to take the initiative. The Republican or-Enization of the city does not feel itself in very good shape, just now, owing to the policy pursued by Mayor Williams for the licensing of gambling, the scandal unearthed in the City Engineer's depart-ment, and the indictment of machine leaders for land frauds; consequently some influencial counselors of the or-ganization have been advising that the machine lend its influence to the homination of a citizens' fleket and thus ride to glory in a non-partisan bandwagon.

Will Play for Reform Vote.

That Republicans and Democrats will endeavor to nominate a ticket which will fraw the support of the reform elements seems likely. Those elements have already organized a movement for the nomination of candidates pledged to lawman that we shall support for Mayor," said a prominent reformer last might, "must be not alone good and honest, not alone a man of integrity, but a man who will enforce the law. It will not be enough for him to be of un-blemished character. We don't want another Judge Williams. We have a good segative man now. Next time we want a positive man. We prefer him to be promtnent in business affairs. We do not ask that he be radical or a Sunday school ader if he will promise to suppress Surveying for Candidates.

Leaders of reform organizations have been surveying the field for candidates for some time and now that the Legisla-ture is out of the way and the local option law is safe, have renewed their quest. Among the eligibles whose names adorn their roster are R. Livingstone, but who is reluctant to become the candidate because of his desire to travel abroad this Spring; H. W. Goode, presiof the Lewis and Clark Fair: A L. Mills, speaker of the House of Rep-resentatives, president of the charter coard, who has taken a prominent part in affairs of the city government in time past: Tom Word, Sheriff and foe to cambling joints; W. P. Olds, of the firm of Olds, Wortman & King; Samuel Con-nell, a sash and door manufacturer and a prominent member of the anti-saloon firm of Ladd & Tilton. Others who are spoken of in reform counsels appear in the foregoing list of Law and order forces desire the Republican and the Democratic organizarepresented by those mentioned above as their candidates, and should that be done they say they will not put citizen candidates into the field. Such is the attitude of the Municipal League and the anti-saloon league Dr. J. R. Wilson, president of the latter rganization in Oregon, said yesterday, hat the policy of the league is to engage n anti-saloon politics but not in party polities, and to select from party tickets such candidates as will uphold its prin-The rule of the league, he said was not to put candidates into the field but to secure the nomination and election of anti-saloon condidates. W. B. Ayer is a favorite of the Republican organization but has said he foces not desire to sit in the Mayor's seat and would not accept the nomina-tion. Mr. Ayer, as president of the East-ern & Western Lumber Company, has a foe to labor unions and they regard him as being one of the chief leaders of their defeat in the strikes of a year a half ago, thereupon he would be a target for revenge. Another man who finds grace in the eyes of the Reublican organization is L. R. Webster, County Judge, who is oftentimes spoken of as a possible nominee for Governor next is a pessible nominee for Governor next Say "No" when a dealer offers you a substitute for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Insist upon Hood's.

Lane sits on a high pedestal among the cligibles; also Tom Word and J. N. Teal.

A. F. Flegel is being groomed for the race by an element of devoted Democratic patriots, and another possibility dwells in the person of W. B. Glafke, a commission merchant of Front street.

AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Say.

Mary Adell Case Concert Tonight. oice musical event of the be the popular concert at Marquam grand tonight. It will be the farewell hearing of Mary Adell Case, the alented Oregon contralto, and will introduce to the local public Mrs. Rosemary Glosz Whitney, the newest acquisition to Portland's musical realm. Another great feature of the concert will be the reap-pearance of Millard O. Lownsdale, the famous baritone, whose voice has not been heard in public for many months. Senor Ricardo Ruiz, the renowned Spanish violinist, has been specially engaged. The programme is being arranged with great cars and will be one of unusual variety, including celebrated operatic se-lections that will best show the quality of the splendid trio of voices, as well as ighter and more popular numbers.

Among the early seat reservations were boxes and loges for well-known social aders who are giving parties in honor of the popular young contralto, and there is every indication of a large and brilliant attendance. From Oregon City, Miss Case's native heath, there will be a representation of at least 100 people, who have arranged for a special car to bring them to Portland Monday evening for the concert and return at its conclusion.

"Quo Vadis?" Presented Tonight.

The great religious production, "Quo Vadis" which played to such splendid crowds all last week at the Columbia. Theater, is to be repeated tonight and tomorrow night. Seats should be ordered at once, as this is positively the last op-portunity to see the production.

Advance Sale Next Wednesday.

The advance sale of seats will open for the clever actor, Paul Gilmore, and his excellent company next Wednesday morning, February 2, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Gilmore will present John Drew's famous s, "The Mummy and the Humming-at the Marquam Grand Theater next Friday and Saturday nights, February 24-25, with a special matince Satur-

Columbia's Wednesday Matinee. Wednesday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a special matinee of "The Lady of Lyons" will be given at the Columbia Theater. Seats are now seiling at the box office. This famous love play has not been seen in Portland for many years, and opened yesterday to two packed houses. The Wednesday matinee will afford an opportunity to many ladles and children to see the play who are unable to obtain good seats for the regular Sat-

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

The Grand's New Bill. This afternoon and evening, at the Grand Theater, there will be a new bill from beginning to end. Do not fall to note the fact that on Wednesday, Washington's birthday, the performances will be continuous from 2 to 11 P. M. Among the novel acts to appear on the new bill are: The Shanty Town Trio, Miss Jean St. Remy, operatic soloist; Onan and Boss, Louie Brothers, Joe are Auditor, Treasurer, Municipal Judge, ist; Onan and Boss, Louie Brothers, Joe City Attorney and 15 Councilmen. grandoscope.

Commencing this afternoon the Baker will offer its patrons the greatest vaude-vill sensation of the age, in the shape of the wonderful "cycle dazzle," positively the most daring act ever attempted by cycle riders. It has been seen all season up to this time at the Madison-Square Garden in New York. This great feat will introduce to Portland audiences the chamgreat artists appearing on the bill will be the Four Graceful Grobs, contortionists and balancers: DeNover and Ward, the the celebrated violin virtuoso, and many

New Bill at the Star.

A vaudeville bill of extraordinary merit begins today at the Star Theater when the new programme is started with such an excellent headliner as Miller, the great rope king. His feats vary from difficult lassoing to twisting his lariat in a hoop like maze. The Three Voltens are equilib rists and acrobats who disguise their strength by appearing in evening garb. Beaty and Price are comedy sketch artists who possess originality and a price-less one-act farce. Hawley and Vass appear in a merry skit, "The Jew and the us a musical shadowgrapher, whose speas a missical smallowgrapher, whose spe-cialty is making his facile fingers form fantastic figures. Arthur Jackson will sing pictured ballads, while the record-breaking bill will close with imported films on the projectoscope.

"Beyond the Rockies" Opens Today. The Lyric Stock Company will open another great week today in the thrilling Western melodrama of Colorado mining-camp lue "Beyond the Rockies." It will appeal with equal force to all classes of theater patrons. There is a generous vein of comedy running through it, and the lines and situations hold the undivided interest from beginning to end. It is an ideal piece for the Lyrc company and each member of it is cast in an approand every lady accompanied by a paid admission will be admitted free
