Kansas Congressman Urges That Texas Be Included in Government Investigation-Standard Will Resist to Utmost.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.-Representative Campbell, of Kansas, the author of the resolution providing for an inquiry into the operations of the Standard Oil Company, had an extended conference with President Roosevelt today regarding the investigation. He informed the President he had received from the Speaker of the House or the Texas Legislature a telegram urging him to request the President and the Department of Commerce and Labor to extend the proposed inquiry to the methods of the Standard Oil Company in the Beauemont field of Texas. He also told the President he had received hundreds of telegrams and letters daily from all sections regarding the investigation.

The Standard Oil Company, Campbell Informed the President, already was preparing its defense, and would resist to the utmost the Government's investi-The resumption by the com pany of the purchase of Kansas oil, he said, undoubtedly was decided upon in view of the action taken by the House of Representatives in requiring an investigation. soon with James R. Garfield, Commis-sioner of Corporations, who will direct the inquiry. At that conference a general plan of procedure in the inquiry will be mapped out.

President Roosevelt assured Mr.

Mayor of Cleveland Makes Direct Attack, and Inquiry Is Ordered. CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 21.-In the City Council last night Mayor Johnson directly charged Councilmen Dewar and Wilke, Democrats, with having accepted bribes from the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company. At the same time he charged that the votes of all the Republican members of the City Council had been influenced by contributions from that company to the last campaign fund of the Republican organization and to the cam-paign expenses of the Republican candidates for the City Council.

The charges are the outcome of Mayor Johnson's allegations of two weeks ago, that the recent defeat of the ordinance to annex the village of South Brooklyn to the City of Cleveland had been brought about by undue influence. At last Monday night's meeting of the Council the Mayor repeated his statements of alleged bribery and of undue influence, but gave n names. His accusations were denied with much emphasis by several of the Republican Councilmen and specific charges writing were demanded. These were made tonight.

The Council immediately adopted a res lution to investigate itself and City So licitor Newton D. Banker, a Democrat was appointed prosecutor of the investi-gation. The resolution empowers the gation. The resolution empowers the City Solicitor to subpens witnesses and call for any books or other documents which may be of value in proving or disproving the Mayor's charges.

ATTACKED BY IRISH

Balfour's Government Meets New Danger.

FLIRTED WITH HOME RULE

Redmond Leads Vigorous Attack, and Wyndham Explains Mac-Donnell's Devolution Scheme, Which Was Disapproved.

LONDON, Feb. 20.-In moving as an amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne, the declaration that "the present system of government (of Ireland) is opposed to the will of the Irish people," John E. Redmond led the Irish party in the House of Commons today in an attack that contained for the Conservative Ministry more of menace than lay in the fiscal debate last week. The Redmond amendment was carefully calculated to undermine the government's majority. The debate drew crowded gal leries, and peers especially were noted, among them the Duke of Abercorn. It was generally believed that the debate would bring out a sensational scene, but anything of this character was lacking. Mr. Redmond's speech was an uncom promising demand for home rule. It was necessary, he said, to emphasize the fact that the Nationalists were irrevocably committed to home rule, because there was an attempt to limit the decision at the coming election, and to smother the issue. The present system was rulnously extravagant and inefficient, and was distrusted even by the Unionists. Ireland, he declared, "is governed by a bureau-cracy more devold of responsibility than the bureaucracy of Russia, which Eng-land is so fond of denouncing." Armed revolt would be justified, if a chance of success existed.

Both Mr. Redmond and Mr. Moore (Irish Unionist), who followed, made a special point of what they termed the "shameful treatment" of Sir Anthony MacDonnell in connection with the differences to the Ministry over the devolution scheme.

Mr. Wyndham delivered a straightforward explanation of how those unfortuhad given McDonnell a free hand to deal with the situation. He knew that Mac-Donnell and Lord Dunraven had been considering a reform scheme, but he did not know all the terms of their plan. Mr. Wyndham said:

had often discussed reforms with MacDonnell, who found analogies between my ideas and ideas he had formed in India. Here we came to the first source of serious misunderstanding. I, with ig-norance of Indian affairs, did not know that a semi-elective council exists in In-dia, and therefore it never occurred to me that he had in mind any board pay tially elected as part of the reforms of which I approved. If I had thought he had any such idea, i would have told him that it was, in my judgment, quite impracticable."

Wyndham said the Cabinet never had doubted MacDonnell's loyalty, but simply had recorded itself as not approving the action of an under-secretary had approved of a scheme without first submitting it to his chief.

The night session was taken up by T W. Russell, Winston Churchill and others, who bitterly assailed the government's management of Irish affairs A special meeting of the Cabinet has seen summoned for tomorrow to discuss the situation.

In the course of his speech, Mr. Wynd ham intimated that when he invited Sir Anthony MacDonnell to become, undersecretary to the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, there was a correspondence between them embodying a previous conversation on the proposed manner of dealing with irish problems, including (1) maintenance of order, (2) a land bill, (3) education and (4) co-ordination in the direction and control of detached boards. It is unders that MacDonnell will now publish the correspondence. The Prince of Wales was an interested fistener to Mr. Wyndham's speech. It is still believed in many quarters that the Earl of Dudley's resignation as Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland has merely been postponed or that Premier Balfour has refused to accept it. Another rumor is that Foreign Minister Lansdowne has threatened to resign if the Ministers make Sir Anthony MacDonnell a scapegoat.

According to the Times this moraling. the Earl of Dudley has tendered his res ignation and the Cabinet has been sum moned to consider the resignation. Th limes says it is the belief that MacDonnell's resignation will promptly follow Willing to Be Premier. LONDON, Feb. 21.-Earl Spencer, in the course of a speech in London last night, referred to rumors that he would be the next Liberal Premier. He said he had not sought, did not expect, and did not wish such a high honor, but that, if called upon, it would only be with a stern sense of the duty to be done that he would accept such a responsible position

COMMITTEE TO REPORT FACTS North Sea Commission Divided on

Justification of Russia. PARIS, Feb. 20.—Admiral Baron von Spaun (Austro-Hungary) and Rear-Ad-miral Charles H. Davis (United States) have been designated to draw up the report of the International Commission of Inquiry into the North Sea incident. This will be presented in secret session Wednesday for discussion and final approval. The Austrian and American Ad-mirals were chosen as representing the elements of the commission which are entirely neutral. Admirals von Spaun and Davis held a session yesterday and met twice today.

The main work is to fulfill the require-ment of the protocol that the commission report all the circumstances of the incldent. The full board of Admirals reserves final determination of the main questions until after the presentation of Admirat von Spaun and Admirat Davis' recital of the circumstances.

There seems to be a definite inclination on the part of a majority of the com-mission toward partially justifying or ex-cusing Admirai Rojestvensky's action. It is generally believed in well-informed quarters that the Russian, French and Austrian Admirals Incline to the foregoing view, while the British and American Admirals are considered favorable to the British view that no torpedo-boats were present and that therefore there was no justification for firing. However, the board apparently is seeking to recon-cile differences, so that the decision may lot be a pronounced victory for either side, but measurably acceptable to both.
