HEARST BOOM IS STARTED

GAS TRUST POINT OF ATTACK

Independent Democratic Organization Formed to Fight Tammany and the Trusts-Split May Elect Republican.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2L-With election time nearly nine months away, it is a certainty that three candidates will strive for the Mayoralty of New York, an official who dispenses more patronage than the President of the United States. There may be four candidates outside of the minor parties, but three are certain to run. And the identity of two of them has been fixed, although it will be month before the delegates are elected.

One of the two is Mayor George B McClellan. The other is Congressman William Randolph Hearst.

The only thing that can prevent the Mayor's renomination is his death. Hearst's supporters say that not even that will prevent their man from mak-

A year ago the Presidential bee buzzed merrily in the ears of the Congressman for the eleventh district. It is buzzing just the same now, but instead of leaping into the White House at one bound, he has planned a steady, graduated political triumph, which he expects will land him in the White House in four years. The progression is as follows:

November, 1905-Elected Mayor of New

November, 1906-Elected Governor of New York. November, 1908-Elected President of the United States. Warned by his lack of success a year ago. Mr. Hearst does not contemplate storming the City Hall citadel as a regular candidate. He is going to be irregular this time. Hearst's New Organization.

New York City rejoices in an organization formally styled the "Greater New York Democracy." It is incorporated and s mainly of officers, former Tar many men who got out of tone with the organization when John C. Sheehan was denoted as leader. John C. is the head man in it, by the way. A short time ago the Executive Committee of this body held a meeting for the purpose of arranged for a grand reorganization of the body.

By formal resolution a committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Hearst and invite him to preside. It met the Congressman at the Hoffman House, and he declined, but promised to be with it and "join in its cheers for the principles of true Democracy."

It really must have been an important meeting, for the New York American, Mr. Hearst's own paper, devoted a page to it.

in every assembly district of the city, the Greater New York Democracy has district headquarters. During the past few months the various "Hearst League Clubs" throughout the city have made these rooms their meeting places. And every one of the members is saying that Hearst would be an ideal Mayer.

Parker Caused the Boom.

Strange as it may seem, it is true that the person distinctly responsible for the present Hearst boom is former Judge Alon B. Parker, who, it may be remembered by readers of the Oregonian, was a candidate for President last November. Because of attacks made upon him in the Hearst papers, Tammany Leader Charles F. Murphy decreed that the Congressman should not be renominated.

Murphy controlled the delegates and what he said was law, and up to three days before the convention met it was arranged that the leader of the common people should be ignominiously turned down by his party. At this moment on of Hearst's lieutenants (whether acting der orders or not is unknown) went to Esopus and explained the facts in the case to Parker. The next day William F. Sheehan had a conference with Murphy at the Democratic Club and told him that Parker insisted on Hearst's renomination. Your plan would injure us with Hearst's followers," insisted Sheehan. "and it might imperil our chances of success in the state." Murphy yielded under protest, but he has bitterly regretted it ever since, Hearst ran away ahead of Parker, and if the Congressman's friends were grateful to the Judge they certainly did not demnstrate that fact at the polls. Since election Hearst has actually been convinced that had he been the nominee he would have won out. Success of Democratic candidates for Governor in states Roosevelt carried by thumping majorities proves to him that he would have done en better, for, of course, he is personally stronger than any of them.

His political managers who "conducted" his last campaign "at the greatest amount of expense and the smallest amount of results," as one outsider put it, have convinced him that the people yearn for him as Mayor. He cannot get the Tammany nomination, and realizes it. So he is going to run as an independent candidate.

Municipal ownership will be the cornerstone of his platform, and in this he has been helped by the gas conditions. If tions than exist in New York at the resent time it is unknown to most me

Formerly there were several companies, but they have all consolidated. The gas supplied is of the worst possible quality and freezes at the least possible excuse Dwellers in flats are required to pay deposits of $10, which is quite a hardship to the poor, and if bills are not paid within two days after being rendered, there is no argument whatever, even though the do-posit is larger than the bill. The gas is turned off, and that ends it. Employes are impertinent and complaints are recelved with indifference and seldom at-

Is it a wonder, therefore, that the people of New York hate the gas trust more than they do the other familiar members of the octopus family, and are eager for a chance to attack it?

The city entered into an agreement to pay the trust an exorbitant price for lighting the streets. This was Hearst's chance. He attacked the city officials, cartooned McCiellan, brought injunction suits, and, all in all, made life unhappy for Tammany. Then he sprang the municipal gas plant idea, and there is no denying it is mighty popular Tammany is now attacked almost every norning in the "Only Democratic Daily Paper in New York City." Tammany leader Murphy is asked to explain how he has managed to make a fortune, although not working, and, all in all, the leaven of discontent is fermenting merrily in the ranks of Tammany Hall.

Hearst expects to pull a larger labor vote than did Henry George, and to have his forces more effectually organized, because he has money to spend, while George was practically penniless, He also opes to benefit materially by the anti-Tammany feeling which exists among the Democrats of Brooklyn.

Republicans Hope for Division. What the Republicans will do is still nscttled. The workers believe that Hearst will split the Democracy in two, and render the success of a straight-out Republican certain. Others believe It ceasary to unite with the Citizens Union as has been done ever since 1897. In any event Republican leaders are convinced that Tammany's days of power are num bered, and an anti-Tammany Mayor will be elected, whether he is a straight-out Republican or a nonpartisan. District Attorney Jerome has been alked of as the proper man to head a fusion ticket, but he says very frankly he does not care to be Mayor.

want," he says, "Is one more erm as District Attorney to clear up a few things I have in mind, and put a few crooks behind the bars, and then I will be willing to retire to private life." But Mr. Hearst does not intend to retire to private life, regardless of what Tammany may say or think. And his boom goes marching on

"I was a candidate for Mayor myself two years ago," remarked William S. Devery, "the best Chief New York ever had," in discussing the matter the other day, "and I spent a lot of money and got a mighty few votes. I gained experience, however. 'There isn't anything in being independent. It don't seem to be popu inr with the voters."

PROMOTION FOR MISTCHENKO Cossack General Wins Honors by Raid-Japanese in Panic.

MUKDEN, Feb. II .- A correspondent of the Associated Press today saw Lieutenant-General Mistchenko, commander of the Eastern Cossack Brigade, whose wound in the leg received during the attack on Sandepas last month is almost healed, though he is still on crutches. The general hopes to return to the front in two weeks. It is reported that General Mistchenko will receive command of an army corps, which it is believed on all sides here, he merits, though it is felt as commander of a corps he will have less opportunity for independent action, in which he excels. His adjutant has just arrived here from the extreme right and

The Cossacks who followed up the Japanese ere received with volleys,

I gave instructions to have the ditches of the village well examined to avoid abandoning wounded mee and it a ordered the battery to retire and began slowly retiring myself with the Cossacks. At that moment a bullet hit

UNDER TWO MORE INDICTMENTS Federal Grand Jury Makes Further Charges Against Mrs. Chadwick.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 21.-The Federal grand jury late this afternoon re-ported two additional indictments against Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, in connection with her operations on the closed bank of Oberlin. A. B. Spear, of the Oberlin Bank, was indicted on a charge of misapplying $80,000 of the bank's money on August 24, 1903; also issuing two drafts on the Importers & Traders' National Bank, of New York on the same date for $56,000 and $30. 000, respectively, and making false entries in the bank's books. Operations of Packers to Be Laid Bare.

GOVERNMENT ON THE TRAIL

Witnesses Summoned From Fifteen Eastern and Middle Western Cities Do Not Include Any Heads of Companies.

CHICAGO, Feb. E.-United States oficials commenced one of the most exhaustive inquiries ever started under the Sherman anti-trust act today by issuing subpenses for 185 witnesses, calling for a Federal grand jury to sit March 20, and making full arrangements for producing complete evidence regarding the operations of the packers in Chicago and other packing centers in detail.

One hundred and thirty witnesses are to be from the Chicago packing-houses and offices and 15 are heads of departments and agents in 15 large cities of the country. Nearly all the subpenas directed to residents of Chicago were served before 6 o'clock tonight. The jury will be drawn Thursday or Friday.

Papers Served Late Monday.

The first subpenses were served on branch house managers and office men in New York City and Jersey City late Monday evening, commanding them to appear in Chicago March 29. In every outside city where witnesses were subpenaed except New York the deputies were dispatched from the office of the clerk of the court located there at 9 o'clock this morning. The cities in which such witnesses were located were notified as follows:

Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Pittsburg, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Sloux City, St. Paul Fort Worth, Jersey City and Milwaukee.

Seven subpenacs were served in the downtown offices of Armour & Co. late today. Assistant Treasurer Samuel M. McRoberts was one of those subpensed General Superintendent Conners was said to have received a notice also, but he depled it later. The other men called were department heads in the general office. At the offices of Swift & Co. at the stockyards the first two men to receive subpenses were W. H. Frederick, head of the railroad department, and W. B. Jones, manager of the Armour car lines. The head cattle buyer and staff at the vards for Swift & Co. were summoned. Cattle buyers at the Morris Plant, National Packing Company and Schwarzschild & Sulzeberger were served, as well as scale-house men and car checkers and officials of the Union stockyards and transit companies.

Chief Officials Not Summoned.

None of the heads of the packing com panies will be called before the grand jury. J. P. Lyman, ex-president of the National Packing Company, was served as he was leaving his office to start for California

J. Ogden Armour, as well as the heads of the other packing companies, declined to make any statement. Inquiries were referred to Attorney John S. Miller, who represented the combined packers named in the Grosseup injunction, which was sustained by the United States Supreme Court a month ago. "If all this investigation," said Mr. Mil-

HANNAH ELIAS KEEPS MONEY Judge Says There Is No Evidence to Support Platt's Charge.

Platt to compel Hannah Elias, a negress, to return to him $685,000 which he alloges he gave to her, today was dismissed by Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court. The Justice said the case was absolutely without evidence to sustain Platt's allegation that the money was obtained from him by means of threats of bodily harm and exposure of their relations.

This feature, it is stated, proved one of the most objectionable to Russia, as it was hoped that the disarmament of Port Arthur and its transformation into a purely commercial port, open to all nations, would end the vexing Manchurian question. The Eastern Chinese Railway is to be placed under a neutral international administration, and, in order to provide some sort of safeguard for future peace in Manchurla, that country, as far north as Harbin, is to be restored
