MAYOR TAKES HAND IN GAME

Chief Says Charges Are False, Flegel Renews Them, and Mayor Williams Saya Hunt Is an Excellent Official.

The denial of Chief of Police Hunt that he was ever in any saloon after 1 A. M. while he has been at the head of the peace department of Portland, as charged by Councilman A. F. Flegel, has stirred up fires that have long been smoldering and brought to light two interesting letters. One is from the accusing Council-man, the other from General Charles F. member of the police committee of the Executive Board and a firm friend

General Beebe wrote to Councilman Fle gel after reading the statements of the latter, as made at the last meeting of the City Fathers. He sought information of a definite character. Answering the request, Councilman Flegel declined to grant al! that was desired, but said be could prove his charges, that is, before a board composed of impartial judges. Before the present board, he said, he thinks int or kind of testimony would change conditions. Mayor Williams says that Chief Hunt the best man ever at the head of the Portland Police Department. He declares the official is not given credit for the good work he is said by the Mayor to have done, and believes that he has done his duty at all times.

Repaired the Jail.

"Chief Hunt took the old City Jail and made it a fit place for people to be kept," said the Mayor. "He has improved many conditions. I know what he has done. but some others do not. There have been no individual charges of corruption against members of the department since Mr. Hunt took charge, which cannot be said of any previous administration. The letter of General Beebe to Councilman Fiegel and the reply are as follows: My Dear Sir: I note in the report of the meeting of the City Council yesterday aftermeeting of the tity Council pesterday after-noon that you were represented as saying that you were reliably informed that the Chief of Police knows that saloons are open after hours, and that, as a matter of fact, you know that his then go into saloons after bours, and that you also know that the Chief of Police himself has been in saloons

flect seriously upon the administration of the Police Department, I am very anxious to be informed of the facts in this connection, and I will feel under great obligat tion, and I will feel under great obligations if you will kindly advise me fully with reference to the matter, giving all defails as specifically and cancily as may be possible, in order to afford me as opportunity to investigate the circumstances, and have the necessary measures instituted to correct these conditions, should they exist as alleged, Very respectfully.

CHARLES E BEFORE

CHARLES F. BEEBE. Councilman Flegel replied as follows

My Dear General: I have your letter of Friday afternoon. In regard to my statement in the Council that I was informed that the Chief of Folice knows that sahoons are open after hours, I beg leave to advise you that I am so informed, and have no doubt that I could prove it to any impartial board, or to any court that we have such board, or to any court, that we have such knowledge and that the saloons remain open with his comment.

My statement that he and his men had been in the saloons of this city after I o'clock A. M. and before 5 o'clock A. M. was not for the purpose of criticising them for having been there, but to show that the saloons were open during the prohibited time, and that it was a matter of common accordance and common convent on the part knowledge and common consent on the part of the Police Department.

I do not believe it possible to bring in-ormation before the police committee or the I do not believe it possible to bring information before the police committee or tha Mayor which would change the existing order of things in regard to the saloons remaining open after I o'clock A. M., and if I had not thought so I would have preferred charges and substantiated them by proofs long ore this. Yours very truly,
A. F. FLEGEL.

SECOND MATE MISSING.

Nicomedia Sails for Orient Minus One of Her Officers.

The Portland & Astoria Steamship Nico media salled for the Orient yesterday morning short one of her officers. When preparations were begun for her departure, it was found that Second Mate Partz was not on hand. Search was made for him on the vessel, but he was not there. Neither were his belongings. From all that could be learned from the watchman, he had apparently taken his leave about midnight, carrying his effects

This was Mr. Partz' first trip on the Nicomedia. He had been in the Hamburg American service in Oriental waters sev-eral years, and joined this steamer just before she called from Yokohama last month. It is presumed that he grew tired of serving on the deep sea and de cided to change his vocation

Narrow Escape of Gray's Harbor Tug. HOQUIAM, Wash., Feb. 21.—(Special.)— The tug Traveler, with Captain Johnson in charge, met with what might have proved a disastrous accident had it not been for the timely appearance of the tug Daring, which was off shore sighting in coming vessels. The engines were shut down and the tug flour dered around for 15 minutes, being washed nearer shore all the time. The tug Daring came in sight, and was bailed by Captalo Johnson. He immediately came to the rescue, and the disabled tug was towed to pert, when the hawser was taken out of the wheel.

LOSS IS ABOUT $1,000,000. Great Damage by Boston Fire-Several Persons Injured.

BOSTON, Feb. 21.-The loss to the Boston & Maine Railroad Company, owner of piers 3 and 4, from the fire early this morning is estimated at fully $400,000, while the damage to the Philadelphian and merchandise will, it is thought, bring the loss up to about $1,000,000.

The adjoining pler, No. 5, which was burned last November, and which was being rebuilt, was slightly damaged, while the steamer Dalton Hill, on the opposite side of the pier from the Philadelphian, backed out under her own steam, prac-

Chief Steward Fellows, of the Philadelphian, jumped overboard and was rescued in an exhausted condition, while one of the firemen suffered a broken leg. Captain Dickinson and his wife were taken off by the fireboat.

Chief Steward Fellows was taken to a hospital, where he was pronounced to be in a dangerous condition. Four oth-ers, including two firemen, were taken to the hospital, but will recover.

The escape of the Dalton Hall is con-sidered most fortunate, as she has on board a very valuable cargo, having been oractically loaded to sail today for Rotterdam. The steamer Michigan, of the Warren line, and steamer Martello, also were threatened, but escaped damages. The fire was started presumably from spontaneous combustion in some hay on Former Portland Player Starts for New Orleans.

HALL NAMES SEATTLE TEAM

Swash Chief Has Rounded Up a Band of Young Braves McCredie to Import an Eastern Groundkeeper.

Irve Beck, whom Manager McCredie traded to New Orleans for Shortstop Atz. left last night for New Orleans. Accompanied by his wife, Beck will journey to his destination by way of California. He will stay over one day in the Bay City and then go direct to the Southland. The season opens in the South on April 35, and Beck, who has taken on a great deal of flesh, will have to hustle in order to be in shape. Beck would have reported sooner, but there was a hitch in the salary question. This was only patched up the other day.

It is not known yet whether Ike Butler will consent to play with Atlanta this year or not. The big twirler has returned from his trip to the Springs. Van Buren came back with him, but they left Shields there, declaring that he would stay there until it was time to report for practice.

Russ Hall, chief of the Siwashes, is the latest manager to give out the line-up of his team. Hall has surrounded himself with a band of young braves, and being a "ready-letter writer," Hall predicts that he has better than an even chance to win the pennant. He gives the line-up as Catchers, Frary, Curtis, Leahy; first base, James; second base, Burns, Bgan; third base, Voorhes, Culver; shortstop, Hall; outfield, Houtz, McHale, Miller, Kane: right-handed pitchers, C. Hall, Skel Roach, Nick Williams, O. Laughlin, Franklin; left-handed pitchers, Hender-son, Starr, Shields.

Of this team, Hall says:
This seems a big bunch of men to get together, but this will probably be cut down before reporting time. I expect to get five good pitchers out of the list down before reporting time. given. That number I will carry through the season. Also two catchers. Voorher and Culver I look for to make good at third, as both have played semi-professional ball and are touted highly by good judges. Burns will cover second as well as it has ever been. The outfield is fast, on bases and in the field, and are well up in the hitting line. Curtis was slated for Selee, but he was turned over to me, and from what his fellow-players say he will make good with a rush. Frary introduction as either catches or sufe batter. James, having the benefit of more experience, should pick up ma-terially in his hitting and is sure to make good. We have a young team this year, but that is a help. Ball players don't last always, and we are breaking in a few new ones. If they have any luck and good judgment they will easily make the team Every indication looks toward a success

Manager McCredle's new ground-keeper will report at the Vaughn-street grounds early in March. McCredle is importing him from the East.

W. H. LUCAS' NEW LEAGUE Moguls Will Form Organization To-

day at Seattle. SEATTLE, Wash, Feb. E.—(Special.)— The new International League will be or-ganized at the Seattle Hotel tomorrow afternoon. W. H. Lucas, John J. McCloskey and D. E. Dugdale will assist in the organization of the new league. Delegates will attend from Vancouver, Bellingham, Everett, Walla Walla, Pendleton and Spokane. Vancouver will be represented by A. E. Tulk and William Hayward; Bellingham will send G. W. Smith and A. M. Hadley; Everett will have Fred School and William Taylor; Billy Nash, the old Boston third baseman, will represent Walla Walla, and Leon Cohen will represent Pendleton. The circuit, as now proposed, will be obmposed of Victoria, Vancouver, Bellingham, Everett, Spokane and a joint club in Walla Walla and Pendleton. A salary limit of $1500 will probably be agreed.

Spokane: James O'Conner will represent

Each town will deposit $1000 in a bank to insure going through the season. The money is ready in all of the towns. The Vancouver men think so well of the proposition that they have secured an option on a piece of ground down town for $30,000 and will build a new park. Mc-Closkey will probably manage the team in Vancouver, which insures a good park and a winning team there. Beilingham has $3000 in the bank already to start They want Dugdale up there.

Joining Lucas' League.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. E.-A. E. Tulk and W. D. Haywood left for Seattle this morning to take part in a meeting of baseball men supporting Lucas, who want to form the four-cornered league of Bellingham, Everett, Vancouver and Victoria. It is said that Dugdale will manage the Bellingham team, McCloskey Vancouver and Schock Victoria.

ARE MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Locomotives to Burn Oil.

It is announced that the engines of the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad will be equipped with oll-burners in the near future and that other extensive changes and improvements will be made in the service.

The management of the road, in common with the men at the head of the other transportation companies, will make preparations to handle a very heavy traffic which it is expected will result from the Lewis and Clark Fair. It is also expect ed that on or about June 1 a new freight service will be put on to handle perishable goods between Portland and the other terminals of the line. Special refrigerator cars will be connected with the passenger trains and a very fast freight service will thus be maintained, in order that the Coast products of fish and the fruits from the Valley may be exchanged between the two sections with as little delay and consequent waste as may be,

TOOK A STRAW VOTE

Interesting Experiment in a Reetaurant, An advertising agent, representing a prominent New York magazine, while on a recent Western trip, was dining one evening in a Pittsburg restaurant.

While waiting for his order he glanced over his newspaper and noticed the advertisement of a well-known dyspepsia preparation. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. As he himself was a regular user of the tablets, he began speculating as to how many of the other traveling men in the dining-room were also friends of the popular remedy for indigection. He says: I counted 22 men at the tables and in the hotel office I took the trouble to interview them and was sur-prised to learn that nine of the 22 made a practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. One of them told me he had suffered so much from stomach trouble that at one time he had been obliged to quit the road, but since using Stnart's Dyspepsia Tablets had been entirely free from in-digestion, but he continued their use, es-pecially while traveling, on account of irregularity in meals and because like all traveling men he was often obliged to eat what he could get and not always what he wanted.

Another, who looked the picture of health, said he never ate a meal without taking a Stuart Tablet afterward because he could eat what he pleased and when he pleased without fear of a sleepless night or any other trouble. Still another used them because he was subject to gas on stomach, causing pres-sure on heart and lungs, shortness of breath and distress in chest, which he no longer experienced since using the tablets regularly.

Another claimed that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was the only safe remedy he had ever found for sour stomach and acidity. He had formerly used common soda to relieve the trouble, but the tabets were much better and safer to use. After smoking or drinking or other ex-cesses which weaken the digestive organs, nothing restores the stomach to a healthy, wholesome condition so effectu-ally as Stuart's Tablets. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the natural digestives, pepsin, diastase, which every weak stomach lacks, as well as nux. hydrastin and reliow parti-la, and can be safely relied on as a rad-ical cure for every form of poor digestion. Sold by druggists everywhere

NO FEAR OF SENATE

President Relies on Confidence of the People.

SENATORS HAVE BACKS UP

Having Defeated Roosevelt on Arbitration and Tariff Revision, They Hope to Kill Rate Legislation, but He Has Trump Card.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washngton. Feb. 21.-The difference between the President and the United States Senate have caused a great deal of discussion about the National capital and somewhat throughout the country. The Senate seems to have gained some prestige by its position in daring to oppose a man who is as popular as President Roosevelt, and while it does not mean that the Senate is right, the fact that Senators have laid aside all considerations which usually control men under pressure of the Executive, has caused them to rise somewhat in public esteem, at least in many quarters.

Mr. Roosevelt is not the first President that has had a controversy with the Senate, and he is not the first man not afraid of the Senate and its methods. President Cleveland was just as emphatic in his opposition to some of the Senatorial policies. It is told that, when a canvass of the House in 1880 showed that that body would pass a bill repealing the silver purchase law, some apprehension was felt in regard to the Senate, but that Cleveland promptly said he could take care of the Senate, as they were a lot of blankety-blank patron-age brokers. There is no denying the fact that patronage has cut a great deal of figure in the repeal of the purchase act, and that Roosevelt has found how powerful an instrument it is. He knows by the experience he had in securing the confirmation of Leonard Wood. It was a well-known fact that many Senators would have held out and defeated Wood s firmation, had it not been for the fact that they did not want to break with the President and lose control of the patron-age in their states.

Roosevelt Relies on the People. No one can say the President of the Inited States will punish men because they do not do as he wants-that is, pur ish them by refusing to give them the distribution of the offices in their respective states-but a man who opp spective states—but a man who opposes what the President wants has some diffidence about immediately rushing up to ask him to appoint a friend of his to office, especially if there are many reasons why that man should not be appointed, and he is not altogether fitted for the place. for the place. But it not upon patronage that President Roosevelt depends in his contest with the Senate. He believes the people are with him, and they are because they believe he is sincere. President Roose-velt believes that he is right. He thinks that an administration elected by the people can be trusted to make a satistory arbitration agreement with a foreign power as well as can the United States Senate. But the very large ma-jority by which the Senate voted in favor of the amended treaty is one of the great drawbacks to the President's position, drawbacks to the Presuent supporters, especially as his most ardent supporters, the Loire and Foraker, were found like Lodge and Foraker, were four leaders of the opposition against him, Probably the worst effect, viewed from the standpoint of those who want to see some railroad legislation at this session

New Arrivals In Brass Beds

Have you any interest in beautiful bedroom furniture? If so, we'd like you to see the handsome new-design Brass Beds we are now showing on our second floor. They represent the highest types of the brassworker's art. Built on solid, graceful lines, yet graceful and symmetrical. All honest constructionno flimsy piping about these beds. They're built to wear for years, and finished in the finest lacquer polish that defies tarnish. Simple or ornate designs as you may desire. Prices as pleasing as the patterns.

Extra Session the Only Thing. Already some men are pointing out that it is now a question of whether he the President, when he went up against a strong wall in the tariff revision matter, quietly backed out and accepted the inevitable. They are saying that he will be compelled to do the same in the matter of the arbitration treaties and in the matter of railroad rate legislation. The only thing for the President to do about rate legislation is to have a session of congress in the Spring. If he does not, the Senate will be able to prevent anything being done during the next two years. A continuous session from March for two years would compel the Senate not less than 750 bull elks. It is not known to act and legislate on lines which the where all the elk were obtained. The gar-people want, but if the Senate gets an ment was finished in 1874, and was used

Senate do not want.

Already those who are secretly opposed to the President's policies are poking up Ida Lone Wolf, who sold it three years of Congress, is that the Senste will their heads and saying he met one desperation. Having opposed the President once, it is easier to do so again. This is the first real instance of direct opposition on the railroad legislation. They is the first real instance of direct opposition to the President, although a large number of the Senster state that this third defeat will be the beginning of a split between the President which has more value than this savage beginning of a split between the President which has more value than this savage when down from another on the savage when the president which has more value than this savage when the president which has more value than this savage when the president which has more value than this savage. ber of the Senators grated their teeth and his party, and will result in antagon- won and growled to themselves when they lems that are likely to make his adminday.

WONDER SCIENCE OF THE AGE

THE PRINCIPAL EXPONENT IS PERFORM-ING STARTLING CURES IN THIS CITY

One week ago today Professor C. W. Harris began to receive his guests at his commodious Portland headquarters, 23-24 Selling-Hirsch building. The line of inquirers has been continuously increasing, including those afflicted with diseases of every nature, and those desirous of hearing his wonderful course of lectures on this new science.

We say new science, and we mean that the healing of the body and mind by the method first worked out and practiced by Dr. Harris is in the truest sense both scientific and new. It is scientific from the fact that the work is done on purely rational and sensible lines, fully recognized scientific truths, which have, however, never before been formulated in a definite, easily comprehended system. It is new in the sense that while the brightest intellects of the world have for centuries been reaching out for this power, they have been uniformly unsuccessful in attaining it. Here and there along this search of centuries we find a mind more acute than others, which has grasped some fragment and, unsuccessful theories. It is such minds as this that have tried to utilize Mesmerism, Christian Science, Hypnotism and the dozens of other familiar cults in accomplishing the work which it has remained for Professor Harris accepting it as a whole, has developed one of the alone to do. "Prove all things and hold fast to that which is good."

"When Paul wrote these words wild beasts were tearing human beings in the Coliseum, which now stands a ruin and a monument. It is a ruin because its walls are crumbled, because trees grow and vines tear down the stones of the seats where Emperors, Senators and women, with screams of delight, watched the blood flow.

It is more a monument, a glorious monument than a ruin, for it reminds every visitor, and every child at school of the fact that humanity has progressed beyond voluntary brutality, deliberate torture and horror as the amusement of the greatest city of the most civilized race:

Truly Paul, the great and brave Christian, was an inspired man. He did not say to men that they must believe without understanding, or accept without questioning things as they are -but he said to them: "PROVE all things" and after we have proved FOR OURSELVES all things, he tells us to 'hold fast that which is good.''

The trouble with nine in ten men is their narrowmindedness, their lack of capacity to accept new truths, or, at least, to consider them fairly. The ordinary individual prides himself in an egotism, a self-sufficiency that ought to fill him with humiliation. Different was the spirit of Paul, the apostle. These words of his are recommended to narrowminded people who shut out the new truth.

Quench not the spirit, despise not prophesying, People are awakening to the needs of something surer than the old methods of cure, which, while they promised nothing, certainly were slow in their results, and temporary in the relief obtained. It oftentimes takes quite a while to perfect a cure by the Harris Treatment, but the results are invariably permanent. All I ask is to meet you and convince you as to the efficacy of this treatment. Especially do I desire people who are suffering with stomach trouble, heart and kidney affections, diseases of the female generative organs, in fact, these diseases are the starting of nine-tenths of the other diseases. Remember you are not expending money by the treatment. I know what I can do when I accept a ease, and the price given is for a cure, not an experiment. People who have called upon me seem to be surprised that I should guarantee a cure without the full amount paid for in advance. I am here to treat you right and give you benefit for every dollar expended. I will place the charges within the reach of all, and accomplish your cure at the earliest possible moment. Those living away from Portland and desiring to know more on this all-important subject should write me, describing their symptoms, when I will immediately inform you what can be done in your case, and I will mail you my book, "The Harris Treatment," free of charge, which gives considerable information on the subject. Address all communications to C. W. Harris, 23-24 Selling-Hirsch Bldg., Portland, Or. Office hours 19 A. M. to noon; 2 to 5 P. M.
