VICE IS CHECKED

It Flaunts No Challenge to Morality Now.

SHERIFF WORD'S STATEMENT

Paris House Not a Sunday-School, but Its Condition Better Than Ever Before, the Official Declares.

"The Paris House is not running as it was before. Moreover, it never will. Police Captain Bailey, who said it was, never visited the house, but one of his sergeants told him it was running the same as before the raid. If it had been running as he says, it was his duty as on officer to close it immediately. I would have done so had I been in his position. The Paris House is in a better and a more moral condition than it ever was. I had a committee of eight busi-ness men go through it and they declared there were greater restrictions on the house than ever before. There is no bar there now and no boys running through the halls. When I raided it I could have brought to jail a dozen boys between the ages of 16 and 19 years.

Never as Before.

"The Paris House will never be op-erated again as it once was. If I have to raid it again it will never be opened even as a lodging-house, and will have to run strictly as a hotel. I do not deny that it is operated the same as other rooming-houses in that locality, but the systematic reign of vice is not there, systematic reign of vice is not there, and if there is any vice it is well under cover. There is no standing invitation, no open challenge to morality, as there was before. I never expected to make a Sunday school out of the Paris House; it is in the wrong part of town. But I intended to make conditions a little bet-ter, and this I have done."

The foregoing was the statement of Sheriff Word made yesterday relative to the statement of Police Captain Balley that conditions in the Paris House and Little Paris House were the same as be-fore the Sheriff's raid. Sheriff Word states his position emphatically, says that he knows vice is not wholly obliterated. but that there is no open challenge to morality as there was before. The Paris House cannot be made a respectable place, according to the Sheriff, as long as its surroundings are as they now are, but the changes ordered by the Sheriff have caused a step for the better. Will Visit Other Resorts.

There are several other resorts in the North End upon which Sheriff Word has an eye, and he has stated that as soon as he possibly can they will receive attention. For the past week Sheriff Word has been engrossed with other duties, his deputies have been busy, and there has en neither time nor men for raids. The Sheriff promises, however, that there will be certain occurrences in the near future.

"When I am prepared to get ready," he said yesterday, "I will change the map of the North End within 24 hours. When I begin I will not stop until the work is done, and when I have finished the North End will resemble a cyclone-swept Kan-

Sheriff Word has also stated that he looks for no help from the Police De-

Whatever is accomplished I must accomplish alone, with the aid of my deputies," he said. "I have been continually hampered by interviews given out by police officers, who have often asserted that my raids have been in vain, and that I was showing favoritism. However, this does not bother me. I am going to do my duty. The Paris House or any other im-moral resort I shall close will never re-turn to its old condition so long as I am Sheriff of Multnomah County

WILL IS ATTACKED.

Green C. Love Seeks to Break

Green C. Love appeared in the County Court yesterday seeking to have a codicil in the will of his father, the late Lewis Leve, so construed that he will have absolute control over one-sixth of the estate valued at $190,000, instead of only a life estate. If Green C. Love dies withissue of his body, unless his two ndchildren be so declared, his share of the estate goes in equal parts to the other lawful heirs.

The codicil of the will specifically strates that the legacy to Green C. Love shall be for his sole and separate use and independent of his wife at all times, and in case of his death without lawful issue living at the time of his death, then the legacy shall go to the remaining devisees under the will proportionately to the in-terest already devoted to them. Green C. Love is 55 years old and is now living with his third wife. His first wife died, and he was divorced from wife number 2. Only his first wife bore him children and they are dead.

In his petition contesting the will Green Love avers that his father, Captain Love, was influenced and persuaded to add the codicil to the will by his daugh-ter. Mary C. Stafford, and that Captain Love, because of his advanced age, 83 years, was easily influenced. In support of the will Dr. Dav Raffety, Dr. O. P. S. Plummer, D. J. Buckley and others test! fied that Lewis Love retained his mental faculties to the last, and was not a person who could be readily influenced

It is stated that Captain Love did not like the present wife of Green C. Love, and there is another story affoat that the trouble was all occasioned by a quarrel between Mrs. Green C. Love and Nannie Stafford, a daughter of Mary C. Stafford. The hearing will be resumed today.

File Incorporation Articles.

Articles of incorporation of the Wildman-Raphael Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by A. Wildman, S. Raphael and D. Solis Cohen; capital stock, $20,000. The obects announced are to carry on wholesale and retail business in cigars.

The Chambers Shingle Company filed articles of incorporation yesterday, capital stock $10,000. The objects are to manufacture and sell lumber and Incorporation articles of A. E. Kern Co. were filed yesterday by A. E. Kern, M. P. Kern and Charles J. Schnaof the corporation is to print a German newspaper called Deutsche Zeit-ung and to do a job printing business.
