

FISHING LAW IN FORCE

Oregon Legislative Enactment Carried Emergency Clause.

GOVERNOR INCLINED TO VETO

Deferred From So Doing Because Representatives From Two States Had Agreed on Provisions for the Columbia.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—The new fishing law enacted by the last Legislature, revising the closed seasons for fishing on the Columbia and many other streams, carried an emergency clause and is now in full force and effect.

So far as the Columbia is concerned, this law was drawn in accordance with the agreement reached by the joint conference committees appointed by the Legislatures of Oregon and Washington. It was because of the agreement between the two states that the emergency clause attached to the act, but the emergency clause is also effective as to changes in closed seasons on other streams mentioned.

This bill shortens the Spring closed season on the Columbia and Willamette to the closing of the season of 1905, and it is this change that is of chief importance to the fishing industry. Heretofore the closed season began March 1, but hereafter it will begin March 15, and the closed season has been lengthened and the closed season shortened, thus making it more difficult to prevent the extermination of salmon. Governor Chamberlain is strongly inclined to veto the bill and was only deterred by the fact that this measure had been agreed upon by representatives of the two states.

The changes made in the fishing seasons on other streams are amendments to the fishing act of the session of 1903, the principal change being the abrogation of the Sunday fishing law which is now in force in this state changes the fishing laws so that the section of the code here mentioned will read as follows:

Columbia and Willamette.

Sec. 4061.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon, steelhead or trout in the Columbia River or its tributaries or in any of the following named streams, between March 15, and April 15, noon, and from June 15, noon, and September 15, noon, of any year.

Sec. 4062.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in the Willamette River or its tributaries, south of the falls at Oregon City, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to April 15, noon, and from June 15, noon, to September 15, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout after the passage of this act, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, in the Willamette River or any of its tributaries south of the lower part of the falls at Oregon City.

Rogue River.

Sec. 4063.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in Rogue River and its tributaries or in the Rogue River and its tributaries, above their confluence with the Rogue River, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in Rogue River and its tributaries, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to April 15, noon, and from August 1, noon, to September 1, noon, in any year, or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in Rogue River and its tributaries by any means whatever, west of its confluence with the Willamette River, or any of its tributaries from August 15, to September 1, in any year, or within three miles outside of the mouth of said Rogue River from May 1 to August 1 in any year.

Tillamook Bay.

Sec. 4064.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in the tributaries of Tillamook Bay, above its confluence with the waters of Tillamook Bay or its tributaries, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 20, noon, to April 20, noon, and from November 20, noon, to December 20, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the tributaries of Tillamook Bay, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 20, noon, to December 20, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the tributaries of Tillamook Bay, by any means whatever, west of the mouth of said stream by the sea line of section 12, in township 13 north, of range 10 west of Willamette meridian.

Umpqua River.

Sec. 4065.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in the Umpqua River, or any of the tributaries thereof, below the points hereinafter named, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to April 15, noon, and from August 1, noon, to September 1, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the Umpqua River, or any of its tributaries, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to December 20, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the Umpqua River, or any of its tributaries, by any means whatever, west of the mouth of said stream by the sea line of section 12, in township 13 north, of range 10 west of Willamette meridian.

Wilson River.

Sec. 4066.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in the Wilson River, or any of the tributaries thereof, below the points hereinafter named, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to April 15, noon, and from August 1, noon, to September 1, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the Wilson River, or any of its tributaries, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to December 20, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the Wilson River, or any of its tributaries, by any means whatever, west of the mouth of said stream by the sea line of section 12, in township 13 north, of range 10 west of Willamette meridian.

Frank River.

Sec. 4067.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in the Frank River, or any of the tributaries thereof, below the points hereinafter named, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to April 15, noon, and from August 1, noon, to September 1, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the Frank River, or any of its tributaries, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to December 20, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in the Frank River, or any of its tributaries, by any means whatever, west of the mouth of said stream by the sea line of section 12, in township 13 north, of range 10 west of Willamette meridian.

Cook Bay.

Sec. 4068.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in Cook Bay or Coquille Bay, or any of the tributaries, or Lower Ten-Mile Creek, at any time or by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from 6 A. M. on the 20th day of July, or between 6 A. M. on the 20th day of November and 6 P. M. on the 30th day of December of any year. It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon at any time, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, in the north or south fork of the Coquille River above the junction of the same with the main body of the river, or in the north or east fork of said river above the junction of said fork with the main body of the river, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, in the north or south fork of Cook Bay, above the junction of the two streams, except during the season commencing at 6 P. M. on the 15th day of December and ending at 6 P. M. on the 30th day of March, during which time salmon may be caught, other than with hook and line, so far as the forks of the north fork, commonly known as "Aldrich," and as far as the island opposite the "Mark Cutler" place in the south fork.

Coast Stream.

Sec. 4071.—It shall be unlawful to take or fish for salmon in any of the following named streams, or any of their tributaries, above the points hereinafter named, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in any of the following named streams, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to April 15, noon, and from August 1, noon, to September 1, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in any of the following named streams, by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling, from March 15, noon, to December 20, noon, in any year; or to take or fish for steelhead or trout in any of the following named streams, by any means whatever, west of the mouth of said stream by the sea line of section 12, in township 13 north, of range 10 west of Willamette meridian.

NO STATE FAIR THIS YEAR

Attorney-General Says State Funds Cannot Be Used for Race Meet.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—"No State Fair can be held in 1905," declared Attorney-General Crawford today in answer to an inquiry from the State Fair Board. The board has petitioned the attorney-general for an act authorizing and directing the State Fair Board to expend the annual appropriation of $20,000 for improvements in 1905, and directing the board to hold an exhibit in that year.

The fair board, however, was anxious to hold a fair this year and sought to hold authority therefor in section 418 of the code, making it the duty of the board to hold "an annual fair or exhibition," which section has not been repealed.

The attorney-general holds that, although this section has not been repealed, expressly or by implication, the Legislature has suspended the holding of the fair for one year. He also holds that the annual appropriation of $20,000, together with the additional $5000 appropriated by the Legislature, must be used for improvements at the fair grounds during the year 1905, and that any sum not so used will revert to the state treasury.

Filipino Paper at Berkeley. UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Berkeley, Feb. 24.—(Special.)—Filipino students at the University of California are making arrangements to publish a paper in the interests of their countrymen now attending educational institutions in the United States. The publication, the first issue of which is on the press, will be printed in English and Spanish and is the pioneer of its kind to be published in this country.

Scotch at the Summer School. UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Berkeley, Feb. 24.—(Special.)—Scotch will probably be taught as a regular feature of the language department of the University of California during the Summer Session this year. President Benjamin D. Wheeler has, during the last few weeks, been in correspondence with a large number of Scotchmen in San Jose Valley, who have petitioned him to institute a course of instruction in Scotch Burns at the Summer school, and have proposed as the lecturer, Professor James M. Dixon, formerly of Edinburgh, who is now at the University of California, the psychological laboratory at Berkeley.

Wooded by Convict on Parole. WALLACE, Idaho, Feb. 24.—Bert T. Prout, piano man, was arrested at Wallace yesterday for passing a worthless check, and his wedding to Miss Loyal Whitfield Sunday was interrupted. Prout has a wife and four children in Moscow, Idaho.

Bill to Reach the Courts. HELENA, Mont., Feb. 24.—There will be a bill introduced in the House tomorrow, the object of which will be to regulate trusts in Montana. Tonight there was a meeting of the House Judiciary Committee at which it was decided to report such a bill.

Local Option Falls in Idaho. BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 24.—(Special.)—The House of Representatives today was crowded today with women who were interested in the local option bill. The members had all been furnished with books and pamphlets, and each woman had a card on which was inscribed, "From the Mothers of Idaho, in the Interest of the Home."

Fund of $10,000 Raised by Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane Contractors. SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—Contractors in Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane have joined hands in an effort to have the State Legislature repeal the eight-hour labor law, passed at the session two years ago. A fund of $10,000 has been raised, of which $5000 is contributed by Seattle contractors, $3000 by Spokane and $2000 by Tacoma.

Plenty of Money for Railroad. VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 24.—General Manager Morse, of the Grand Trunk Pacific, has received a cablegram from London, stating that the public there has subscribed in subscription for ten times the amount of money asked by the railroad. This means financial arrangements for the line as far as the Rockies are complete. Morse adds that if British Columbia gives a land grant the line in this province will not be constructed from the coast, but from the east. He declared that the $25,000,000 contract has been let to Peter Larson or any one else for the private section.

Toole Wants to Name the Judge. HELENA, Mont., Feb. 24.—Governor Toole, in a long message, vetoed a bill recommending the appointment of Judge Toole as his principal reason that the bill was unconstitutional in that it named the judge. He called attention to the fact that in other measures before the Legislature creating new offices the incumbents are named, and he warned the House they stood on the same footing. It is taken to mean he will veto the Railway Commission bill, which names three Commissioners.

Special Officer for Express Company. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—John P. Emery, chief of police of this city, has been appointed special officer of Wells, Fargo & Co., and will take charge of the delivery department of the express company March 1, to succeed the late James B. Hunt, who was one of California's most famous detectives.

President Richards, of the Washington Water Power Company, Gives Official Outline of Plans for the Future.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—"Over a million" people provided $2,500,000 for extensions and improvements here the next three years, $1,200,000 of which is already called for in the estimates for this year," said Henry M. Richards, president of the Washington Water Power Company, who arrived from the East. He said:

"The $1,200,000 to be expended this year will be for the building of our power plant at Post Falls, the Medical Lake electric line, our new office building and the extensions of our city system and to pay our interest in the Spokane Southern Traction Company."

"While in the East I arranged for the financing of the Spokane Southern traction line into the Palouse country, and placed enough of the bonds to provide ample funds to complete the road as far as the definite surveys are made now."

Mr. Richards said the money was got secured to build the line to the Snake River, and he started to say there was enough to build to Colfax, but emphasized that he had secured the money to build the line as far as surveyed now.

Mr. F. Mendelhall says the line is definitely located as far as Oakesdale, in a line nearly 50 miles long. Mr. Richards continued:

"Individual stockholders in our company who are interested in Moran Prairie land, have also made substantial subscriptions to the stock of the company and the balance needed can be secured without difficulty. Charles Francis Adams, of Boston, has taken $50,000 worth of the bonds."

Mr. Richards exhibited a letter to verify Mr. Adams' interest in the concern.

REFORM MEASURES AT SALEM

Gambling Must Close All the Time, and Saloons on Sundays.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—All gambling-houses in Salem have been ordered closed by Chief of Police Cornelius, who made a tour of the city and served notices this morning. This order will close games at eight or ten establishments that have been in operation until today. Some of the games have been conducted in saloons and others in cigar stores, and all more or less openly. Cornelius says this order means that the games will be closed and stay closed.

An order has also been given that all saloons shall close at midnight Saturday night and stay closed until midnight Sunday night. This order was made in pursuance of an ordinance passed by the City Council last Tuesday evening, for Sunday closing.

THE IDEAL WIFE

Shapes the Destiny of Men—The Influence of a Healthy Woman Cannot Be Overestimated.

Seven-eighths of the men in this world marry a woman because she is beautiful in their eyes—because she has the qualities which inspire admiration, respect and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature. The influence of women glorious in the possession of perfect physical health upon men and upon the civilization of the world could never be measured. Because of them men have attained the very heights of ambition; because of them even thrones have been established and destroyed.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

What a disappointment, then, to see the fair young wife's beauty fading away before a year passes over her head! A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home, and a drag upon her husband. The cook of a wife's constant illness is a serious drain upon the funds of a household, and too often all the doctoring does no good.

If a woman finds her energies are flagging, and that everything tires her, dark shadows appear under her eyes, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams; if she has backaches, head aches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities, or dependency, she should take means to build her system up at once by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This great remedy for women has done more in the way of restoring health to the women of America than all other medicines put together. It is the safeguard of woman's health. Following we publish, by request, a letter from a young wife.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley of 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash., writes: "Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, feverishness, bearing-down pains, backaches, and nervousness. It affected my stomach so that I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every woman who is in poor health and ailing. Its benefits begin when its use begins. It gives strength and vigor from the start, and surely makes sick women well and robust. Remember Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of woman's ills. This fact is attested by the thousands of letters from grateful women, which are on file in the Pinkham laboratory. Merit alone can produce such results.

Women should remember that a cure for all female diseases actually exists, and that cure is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Take no substitute. If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail. and came to San Francisco in early days, engaging in the hotel business. Later he moved to Vancouver, Wash., and about ten years ago came to Astoria, where he had resided since. He left a widow & 4 children.
