GRAND DUKES HOLDING OUT

Ye Would Allow Assembly to Propose Laws, but Retain Essence of Power-Poland the Center of Disturbance.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 2 02:41 A. M.) .- The great anad overshadowing questions for Russians, that of granting the people a voice in the government, reundecided at Tsarskoe-Selo. Em peror Nicholas has not yet given the final of many conflicting statement printed abroad, the Associated Press is authorized to make the above definite anuncernent. At the same time it can stated that the recent developments Russis, which brought the social, economic and educational life of the empire almost to a standstill, have left the Emperor no illusions regarding the strength of the popular demand for something in the nature of constitutional gov-ernment. In addition to the addresses voted by the Zemstvos, Doumas, educational and other bodies, he has received thousands of private memorials.

In consultation with his advisers, the Emperor has displayed sympathy with the aspirations of the people and ex-pressed concurrence in the opinion that something must be done to bridge the chasm between himself and the people. Since the death of Grand Duke Sergius some of the influences at court which for-merly were antagonistic take the same view. Nevertheless, the grand ducal party, as a whole, still holds out yield-

Form of Parliament Adopted.

The Ministers with whom the Empere ad discussed the problems since the in auguration of the Cabinet Council three weeks ago, entertained, divergent opin-ions, but by a process of elimination two propositions have been definitely rejected, the first a constitutional monarchical regime based upon Western models, with a Parliament to frame laws and control the budget; and the second the convening of the Zemsky Sobor. The former proposition has been rejected on the ground that Russia is not yet ripe for constitutional government, and the second because the Zemsky Sobor is now an anachronism.

In substance, the proposition which the Emperor is now considering with the Council of Ministers is the establishment Council of scimisters is the constitution of an annual assembly based on direct class representation, to sit in a consultclass representation, to sit in a consultative capacity and propose laws, or, in other words, yielding the form while retaining the essence of autocracy. The majority of the ministers have joined in expressing the opinion to his majesty that such a measure, coupled with the reforms enunciated in the manifesto of Decomber $5, 1904, guaranteeing equality before the law, responsibility of officials and practical freedom of the press, will meet the present situation.

Will Lead to a Constitution

Will Lead to a Constitution.

All, however, recognize and so advise his majesty, that such a solution can be only temporary. An assembly of this kind would be an anomaly in the Russian government and must soon give way to a regular purilamentary body. This fact is equally recognized by the Liberals, whom the proposed form would not satisfy, but who are convinced that this would be a forward step and who would hall it as a practical victory for future. would be a forward step and who would hall it as a practical victory for future constitutionalism. M. Witte, president of the Council of Ministers, whose position is not yet clearly defined, but who is understood to hold that the country is not yet prepared for a constitution, is said to have told the Emperor biuntly that a reversal is required after a step. that no retreat is possible after a step has come been taken.

It is the ultimate consequences rather than an immediate step which apparently make the Emperor pause. It is possible that he may announce his decision at the meeting of the Cabinet Council on Friday night, but a minister with whom the Associated Press talked last night was ot sanguine that a decision would be eached. When a decision is reached it is said it will be announced immediately after for its effect upon the country, though naturally some time must elapse before a representative assembly can be convened, as election machinery, tion of duties, etc., must be worked out.

One is a letter addressed to "Nicholas Romanoff, former Cuar and actual assessin of Russia," and says the blood of innocent workmen and their wives and children will forever septheir wives and children will forever separate their assessin and his heirs from the Russian people. AGITATORS ARE IN CONTROL

Joint Commission of Employers and Workmen May Be a Fiasco. Workmen May Be a Fiasco.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 2 (2:6 A. M.).—As the result of yesterday's meeting of workmen in the People's Palace, preliminary to the election of 50 representatives to the proposed imperial mixed commission charged with the consideration of arrangements for the adjustment of grievances of the workmen of St. Petersburg, there seems to be reason to doubt if the commission will be convoked. This doubt is based upon the fact that in certain quarters the attitude of the delegates is remarked as indicating that the labor movement has fallen completely unlabor movement has fallen completely un der the control of political agitators, pro-ducing a condition which would afford small prospect of the commission being productive of results acceptable to emloyers or the government.
It is affirmed tonight that unless the men recede there will be no commission, but that the Government will go shead with a scheme of reforms without taking counsel formally of the representatives of capital and labor.

BOMBS IMPORTED AS ORANGES

Russian Terrorists Prepare for Fighting With Troops.

RT. PETERSBURG, March 1.—Vast quantities of hand bonds are being imported into Russia. The discovery was accidentally made by the customs authorities at Wireballen, Russian Poland, on opening an ordinary fruit box marked "oranges," which was found to contain 100 small bombs. Scores of similar boxes have been coming in for weeks, and the authorities hear they weeks, and the authorities hear they are already distributed. The bombs are not of the type of those used by the terrorists.

They are more like hand grenades, and it is thought possible that they were intended for distribution among the strikers as weapons with which to fight the troops. The efforts made by the police to locate the plotters have as yet been unavailing.

SHOEMAKERS CAUSE RIOT. Soldiers Disperse Mob, Wounding Three With Swords.

WARSAW, March 1 (11:35 P. M.) Disturbances broke out here tonight in connection with the strike of shoe-makers. The strikers attempted to compel the owners to close their shops. and paraded the street, where they were met by a patrol, which fired upon the strikers without hurting any of them. The soldiers then drew their awords and dispersed the crowd, three strikers being wounded in the affray.

The Chief of Police tonight issued orders that all house doors must be closed the whole day under heavy penalties.

REBEL ARSENAL IS SEIZED. Rostov Disturbed by Strikers and Dread of Violence.

ROSTOV-ON-DON, Russia, March 1.— The police have seized a quantity of arms and gunpowder at the residences of Persians here. The men have struck in many factories and attempts are being made to secure a general cessation of work. There is great fear of disturbances and the people are laying in stocks of provisions, but so far everything is quiet.

The rector summened the pro-ressors to resume their studies, but the latter are opposing the proposition, main-taining that it is impracticable to subject the students to danger.

More Strikes in Poland. LUGANSK, Poland, March 1.—The situation is growing worse. Today 600 men struck at the Hartmann works. A general strike of 200,000 miners in the Donetz coal

"Gocupy yourselves unceasingly with the propaganda and organization of armed insurrection will be elaborated so soon as possible by your committee for your revenge and your defense.

ment was started among the Commission Senators just before noon which was signed by 24 of them. The agreement pledged in no way the members to further or defeat any particular bill, but simply recited amendments of minor importance that would be agreed to, and pledged the signers to the sup-

Those who signed this agreement were: Boone, Henry, Bratt, Graves, Rasher, Moore, Ruth, Reed, O'Donnell, Condon, Potts, Wilson, Brown, Bronson, Pauly, Tucker, Hutson, Russell, Watson, Venezs, Le Crone, Pogue, Stewart and Gunn.

The last signature to this agreement was secured just before 1 o'clock. While It was in circulation the opponents of the bill held a consultation and decided upon the action subsequently taken. They had under particular consideration the fish bill, primary election bill and the land and timber legislation. They decided to pre-cipitate the passage of the railway commission bill and offset the hold-ups of the legislation mentioned...

While the commission men were taken by surprise, they were compalled to stand by the bill, and there were no incidents of note connected with the taking of the roll, other than Davis' speech and a statement by Clapp, who declared that he had consistently opposed railroad legislation for ten years, and he proposed to remain consistent. He called this bill an "iniquitous measure," and commented upon the fact that the bill was put through at a time when competing lines were talking of building to this state.

In the rollcall the votes recorded agains the bill were by Clapp, Helmrich, Kinnear and Rands.

COLD WELCOME TO STOESSEL Reception in St. Petersburg a Contrast to Former Enthusiasm.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 1 .- Lieu tenant-General Stoessel arrived in St. Petersburg from Moscow. A quarter of an hour before his train was due it looked as if not more than 130 persons would be present to welcome the defender of Port Arthur, but their number augmented rapidly and when the train steamed into the depot many hun-dreds of people, especially women, crowded on the platforms. War Minister Sakharoff and Admiral Silotti, in behalf of the Admiralty, wel eral Stoessel, who was cheered and pre-sented with flowers.

After receiving the personal congrat-ulations of friends, the General, look-ing bronzed and in good health, trav-ersed the cheering crowd to a reception room, stopping now and then to snake hands with admirers. Behind the Gen-eral came Mme. Stoessel, leaning on the arm of a military officer. She seemed to be even more bronzed than her hus-band and smiled happily at the warm welcome accorded him. It was re-marked that the General's hair was saying that when General left Russia calm prevailed, walle no in-ternal enemy was endeavoring to un-dermine the prestige of the state. Replying, General Stoessel said he had heard while at Constantinopie of the disorders in Russia, and since then he had traveled in Southern Russia, had spoken to the people and had noticed their tranquillity of mind and especially their loyalty to the Emperor. He was confident that the people would remain loyal and that Russia would issue victorious from the present crisis.

When the reception ceremonies were over, General and Mms. Stoesel entered an open carriage and drove through the Nevaky Prospect to the residence of Lieutenant-General Prince Vianmy, a member of the Imperial Council, where he will stay. The crowds in the streets cheered the General. The absence of military and naval officers from the platform was very noticeable. Only a few military men and no naval officers, excepting Admiral Silotti, were present. A large force of police surrounded the ratiroad station, while the route to Prince Viazmy's residence was patroled by numer-ous detachments of Cossacks and Life Guards, apparently in expectation of a hostile demonstration.

Altogether, the General's welcome was by no means in the nature of a popular demonstration, and lacked genuine enthusiasm. Two months ago all Rusaia was singing the praises of the detender of Port Arthur, yet when he came home comparatively few people he charged that the stories emanating from Chefoo and attacking the com-mander of Port Arthur, originated with a Russian connected with the Novi Kral (a newspaper of Port Arthur) who was expelled by General Stoessel.

WESTERN PACIFIC BUYS ROAD Small Line in Nevada Needed in Construction Through Sierras.

RENO, Nev., March L-On good authority it was reported in Reno today that the Western Pacific Railroad has purchased the Boca & Loyalton, a small road running from the heart of the Sterra Nevada Mountains to Boca, where it connects with the Southern Pacific. The road is in direct line with Beckwith Pass and is a valuable property. The officials of the Boca & Loyalton road refuse to either deny or affirm the report. The purpose of carrying the deal out at this stage, so it is understood, is for the purpose of providing an easy means for the Western Pacific to transport huliding material to the Pass.
