Butter Goes Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2-Speculative trade in grain was almost at a standarill, no option sales being made during the forenon, and only a few contracts in December wheat charged hands in the afternoon. Despite the litting duliness, prices showed firmness. Barley is in a very strong position for spot and May delivery, owing to small stocks and prospective requirements before new grain comes in. Holders of eats are firm, owing to slander stocks, but trade is of a hand-to-mouth character. Linus beans further advanced to $5.126 (% 15), and other varieties are tending upward in sympathy. Bran to easy, without quotable change. Local and general shipping trade in hay is quiet, and the market is weak.

Small bavel oranges are selling readily at firm prices. Medium sizes are in fair request for Hawalian ellipment. Large sizes are neglected and weak. Other citrus fruits are in moderate demand. Lemma and lines are easy. Tropical fruits are in sufficient supply.

Tropical fruits are in sufficient supply.

Fancy potatoes clean up readily at firm prices. Best Oregon command $1.50 to $1.55. The market is bare of tancy colons. Two carleads of Oregon are sold out clean to arrive at $2 to $2.10. Asparagus and rhubarb are in lighter supply and steadler. Receipts of other vegetables are small and prices are firm. Butter was excited and higher on sharp competitive buying in the country. Cheese was quieter. Eggs were weak. Receipts, 58.800 pounds butter, 18.100 pounds cheese, 23,000 dosen eggs. Tropical fruits are in sufficient supply.

cajus in the Northwest formed an additional factor at the opening. Later the demand improved somewhat. The moderate decline brought out covering by shorts and nurchasing by commission houses. The market soon railled from the weakness. May advancing to $1 15%; July sold up to Seige. Some reaction followed on realisting. Trading during the remainder of the day was extremely quiet. The market closed firm, with May up 160 to, at $1.1516-11.151. Final quotations on July were $85.6566.
