WASHINGTON, March 2.- The Senats loday passed the sundry civil apbill, carrying about $65,-$50,000. Various amendments were offered and most of them were debated a Total Congressional committee to investigate the question of railroad rates. The resolution was referred to the committee on interstate commerce.

At the night session the general deficiency bill, the last of the supply measures, was considered.

Dolliver then called up his resolution providing for the appointment of a commission composed of members of ooth houses of Congress to investigate railroad rates and spoke in advocacy of it. The resolution was referred to the committee on interstate commerce. Platt (Coan) offered a number of amendments to the pure food bill and discussed the general provisions of the measure. He contended that the theory which was wrong. His amendments were intended to remedy these deficits. He admitted that, if they were accepted, very little of the bill would be left.

Spooner also opposed the bill and was still speaking when Hale inter-rupted him to report the general deficiency bill from the committee on ap-

When the Senate reconvened at 8 P. M. the pure-food bill was temporarily laid aside and Kean reported back the reso-lution instructing the committee on inter-state commerce to sit during the ap-proaching recess of Congress. The reso-lution was commented on by several Sen-tion for the Senate to consider the subject properly during the present session, much as legislation is desired, the subject being too extensive for speedy action. He favored legislation, but thought it should be just to all interests. At the instance of Martin, the scope of the resolution was so extended as to in-clude an investigation into the liability of railroads for accidents to employes.

Newlands expressed the hope that the President would call an extra session of Congress to take up the subject of rati-roud-rate legislation to meet not later than

The resolution was adopted. The greneral deficiency bill, the last of the great supply measures, was taken up at 8:30 P. M., but while it was under conat length. There also was discussion of the pure food bill and Dolliver made bill appropriating $25,000 for a celebration in 190 of the first settlement of the English-speaking people at Jamestown.

entered a vigorous protest against the action of the majority of the conferent in agreeing to the Senate provision authorising the Secretary of the Interior to renew the Osage oil lease, which has attracted so much attention.

Mr. Cowherd (Mo.) moved that the House adhere to its amendment to the District of Columbia smoke bill and "respectfully decline a conference with the Senate," which was adopted unanimously. The House then, at 12:10 A. M. adjourned until 11:30 A. M. Friday.

CHANGES IN INDIAN BILL.

Purchase of Colville Reservation and Settlement With Klamaths Fall.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The conferees on the Indian appropriation bill reached an agreement tonight on all but three amendments. The first strikes out the House provision removing the restrictions upon the alienation of lands of all allotees of any of the five divilized tribes who do not appear upon the rolls as full-blooded Indians, except minors and except as to homesteads. The second is a Senate appropriation of $1.100,000 to carry into effect the treaty with the Indians residing on the Colville reservation in the State of Washington. The other Jisagreement is the amendment appropriating $150,000 for the irrigation of the lands of the Pima Indians in Arizona.

The Senate receded from the Bard WASHINGTON, March 2 .- The con The Benate receded from the Bard amendment prohibiting the use of In-dian funds for the support of sectarian or denominational schools and it goes out of the bill.

The Senate provision was accepted providing for the investigation of leases of allotted lands in Indian Territory which the Seccriary of the Interior has reason to believe were obtained in violation of the terms of the existing agreement with the five civilized tribes. The provision for the extension of the leases of oil lands in Oklahoma held by the Indian Territory Illuminating O'l Company is accepted by the House conferees with an amendment to the provi-sion increasing the royalty to be paid on each gas well from $50 to $100. This amendment stipulates that the Presi-dent of the United States may determine the amount of royalty that shall be paid.
