President Rests After an Exciting Day.

SWARM AT WHITE HOUSE

VICE-PRESIDENT AT CHURCH

Pastor and Congregation of Metropolitan Methodist Church Gather About Pew After Service and Extend Congratulations.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Roosevelt passed the first day after his inauguration quietly at the White House, except for a horseback ride through the suburbs during the afternoon. He was alone and took his mount at the outskirts of the city. Surrounded by the members of his family and his house guests, he spent the day in recuperation from the fatigue incident to the heavy mental and physical strain which he underwent during the inaugural ceremonies.

It was expected that the President would attend religious services today, and in anticipation of his leaving the White House thousands of people gathered in and about the White House grounds as early as 8:30 o'clock.

No restrictions were placed on entrance to the grounds, and throughout the day innumerable thousands of people wandered about the historic mansion. They swarmed about the main entrance and peered through the closed glass doors and windows.

Only Friends Admitted.

The White House, of course, was closed to all visitors except the personal friends and relatives of the Roosevelt family. During the day the President and Mrs. Roosevelt received informal calls from friends, and at both luncheon and dinner large companies were entertained.

It became evident early in the day that if the President should leave the White House to attend services at their usual place of worship, the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, at the conclusion of the service the pastor, Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol, and a large part of the congregation gathered about the Vice-President's pew and extended to him their congratulations on his induction into his high office.

Vice-President Goes to Church.

While thousands of visitors to the inaugural ceremonies left the city last night and early today, other thousands remained over Sunday. The day was fair, but the air was sharp with frost. "Seeing Washington" automobiles and streetcars were thronged to their capacity, and the principal thoroughfares of the capital were congested with humanity throughout the day.

It was remarked by old Washingtonians that this was the first inaugural period for 30 years when the weather had been so uniformly pleasant for so many successive days, and comment on "Roosevelt's luck" and "Roosevelt's destiny" became trite in repeated among the vast crowds which thronged the capital.

The electric illuminations of the buildings along the line of march of the inaugural parade, which have proved so attractive to the thousands of visitors, were turned on again tonight. The streets were thronged with people, most of whom spent much of their time within the precincts of the Court of History, where the electrical display was particularly pleasing.

INVESTIGATION OF OIL TRUST

Commissioner Garfield Says Work Will Be Thorough.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Commissioner James H. Garfield, of the Bureau of Corporations, has instituted a rigid investigation of the operations of the oil industry in Kansas and contiguous states. In response to a resolution of the House of Representatives, introduced by Representative Campbell of Kansas, the investigation of the oil industry will be carried on as rapidly as is consistent with thoroughness.

The report of Commissioner Garfield will be made directly to President Roosevelt. Whether it will be made public will be within the discretion of the Chief Executive. Depending on the facts developed, it may be turned over to the Department of Justice for such action as the Attorney-General may deem proper.

Commissioner Garfield said today that nothing would be left undone by his bureau to develop the facts regarding the operations of the oil trust in Kansas, as well as in other states. It is not the purpose of Commissioner Garfield to confine the inquiry to Kansas. It will not be circumscribed by state or geographical lines. It is the intention of the Commissioner to make the investigation as exhaustive as the resolution of Representative Campbell contemplates, the purpose being to develop all the facts regarding the operations of the oil trust.

"During the past year," said Commissioner Garfield to the Associated Press, "a great amount of general information relating to the oil trust has been obtained. This affords a basis from which to undertake immediate specific inquiries into the conditions existing in specific fields, such as Kansas, Texas and California. The method of procedure will be similar to that followed in investigating the operations of the beef trust."

"The Commissioners of Corporations, personally and through special agents, will obtain information from original sources. Already these sources of information have been sounded. They have responded to the Commissioner of Corporations by agreeing to furnish information, to afford the fullest opportunity for inspection of records and accounts, and to answer all questions pertinent to all matters involved in the inquiry."

It is the intention of Commissioner Garfield, under the direction of President Roosevelt, to make the inquiry into the operations of the oil trust as complete and exhaustive as possible. Nothing will be left undone that will develop single facts relating to the work of the trust, and if it has been unjust in discriminating against the producers of oil in Kansas or in any other state the inquiry will show it. It is pointed out that the oil trust, through its pipe lines, is not a common carrier under the law, and it cannot be compelled to carry oil from any one field to another on equal terms. To its terms, the oil trust maintains that it has conducted its business not only in accordance with the law but in strict regard to recognized business principles; and that, therefore, it is perfectly willing to have the government make a rigid inquiry as it may desire into its methods of doing business.

Impression being that the Sinitin Railway was being employed by them as a line of communication.

The combatants confront each other now for a distance of six and one-half miles west, the Japanese, it is believed, having three divisions and the most theatrical and bold event of the war is imminent. The Russians consider the situation as very favorable to them on account of the great extension of the Japanese line.

There is great activity at Mukden. All the streets and outlying roads are crowded with transports of the army which has been assembled to oppose General Nogi. The events of the last three days have electrified the entire army.

PEACE IS NEARER AT HAND

Russians' Only Hope is in Decisive Defeat of General Nogi.

LONDON, March 5.—The intensely dramatic situation in Manchuria developed by General Nogi's rapid advance and his strategic possibilities have raised excitement in Europe to the highest pitch. English papers for a long time have practically ceased to record any special news in this respect are lacking much information that is available in Associated Press dispatches.

It is believed here that General Kuropatkin is in a very tight place, and the chances of his extricating his army are keenly discussed. The abandonment of Mukden is considered to be inevitable, the only question being whether he will be able to effect a retreat to Tie Pass.

An immediate repulse of General Nogi's army, it is held, might save the situation, but failing that, General Kuropatkin will have committed to him the dangerous and difficult task of retiring northward, harassed by ranging attacks by the Japanese army. Whatever may be the result it is felt that peace is appreciably nearer.

According to the Daily Telegraph's Antwerp correspondent, the Russian official purchasing agent there has received orders to cease buying for government account. This is a significant statement if true, as Antwerp throughout the war has been the principal center of Russian purchases for carrying on the conflict in the Far East.

MISTCHENKO IS GOING HOME

Russian General Has a Disagreement With Kuropatkin.

LONDON, March 5.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Tokio states that the Japanese Colonel Himidima was killed at the capture of Selkiao and that General Kober, commander of the second Manchurian army, was wounded and sent to a hospital at Mukden.

The same correspondent reports that the Russian authorities have requested the military attaches to withdraw from Vladivostok.

The correspondent adds that 10,000 Russian troops are reported to be at Liao-shan, 25 miles south of Sinitin, and that General Mitchenko has had a disagreement with General Kuropatkin and is returning to Russia. The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Times says:

"Russian war correspondents express the greatest wonder at the irresistible and frenzied rushes of the Japanese line."

ONE CAKE OF CUTICURA SOAP

A. W. Taft of Independence, Va., writing under date of Sept. 15, 1904, says: "I have had falling hair and dandruff for twelve years and could get nothing to help me. Finally I bought one box of Cuticura Gintment and one cake of Cuticura Soap, and they cleared my scalp of the dandruff and stopped the hair falling. Now my hair is growing as well as ever. I am highly pleased with Cuticura Soap as a toilet soap." (Signed) A. W. Taft, Independence, Va.
