A few days ago complaint was made from a certain district in the city that the ordinances were not being obeyed and the policeman on the beat was or-dered to look into the trouble and see what could be done as a remedy. It was reported, so the story runs, that all was well and nent and clean. The complaint was made again, and this time President Wheelwright made a little trip over the ground in person, checking up all the things he saw of the way. He made a report to the Chief, who is about to reprimand the Chief, who is about to reprimand the patroiman if the report is true.

The Chief made complaint to President Wheelwright, so it said, that every time he discharged a man for any offence the Civil Service Commission put him back on the force forthwith.

Will Ald the Chief.

President Wheelwright took an optimistic view of the matter and told Chief Hunt that if he would produce the man against whom he had any complaint for non-observance of rules complaint for non-observance of rules or duties, it would be a serious thing for him. The Chamber of Commerce might be able and would try, so the president said, to persuade the Board of Police Commissioners to stand for the entire observance of law and order. Therefore the Chief is going to call the recalcitrant member of his force before him and read the law to him as it is and should be.

though all records of the precise time in which this season first originated is lost in the dim obscurities of the first ages. This season, however, is frequently referred to by writers of primitive times as an established and well-known custom which had been sanctioned by apostolic authority.

Philo, who was contemporary with the early disciples, and is even said to have had familiar conversation with St. Peter at Rome, refers to this season in his description of the Christians at Alexandria, who were converted by St. Mark.

WHY DOES

A BABY CRY?

Because it is either hungry or in pain. Properly nourished it will usually grow up right and be comfortable -that's the principal thing for a baby. If its food lacks strength and nourishment add Scott's Emulsion at feeding time. A few drops will show surprising results. If a baby is plump it is reasonably safe. The Pills That Make New Blood

The case of Mr. Thomas F. Brown, of Amesbury, Mass., shows how readily obstinate diseases of the blood are cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills For Pale People.

Mr. Brown says: "I had scrofula over my whole body. There was chronic inflammation and a discharge of yellow pus. My physicians feared the disease would end in consumption. Three months I took their medicine without benefit. Then I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon saw that the inflam-mation was going down. After I had taken eight boxes I was cured."

Anæmia, erysipelas, rheumatism and all weaknesses due to impoverished blood are quickly cured by these famous pills.
