OLD VETERAN KILLS HIMSELF

John Kurtz Ends His Own Life While Temporarily Insane.

While his wife and family were searching for him, John Kurtz, aged W years, a veteran of the Civil War, committed suicide by shooting himself three times At Gilman's auction-rooms, 418 Washing ton street, at 10 o'clock A. M. S. L. N Gilman, auctioneer. in the head at an early hour yesterday morning. He was temporarily insane. As the place for the act, he chose a lonely spot below the woolen mills at St. Johns. From the fact that shots were heard in the vicinity at S A. M., it is believed it was then he did the deed. He was found by James Ewen, of 284 North Twentieth COLUMBIA LADOAS

M.—dipectal communitestion this (Thursday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock, Burkhard hidg, Work E. A. Degree, Whittory welcome. By order J. H. RECHMOND, Secretary.

Thorough investigation of the case by Deputy Coroner A. L. Finley developed the fact that the aged veteran of the war was seen in several places yesterday af-ter leaving his home at 30.30 in the morn-ing, acting very peculiarly. That he was mentally irresponsible there is said to be The wonderful vitality shown by the aged man was the subject of much comment yesterday. He fired three shots into his head, at the back, and was exposed through the long, cold night, yet he lived until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Thinking to go to the Portland Library to secure some reading matter, he left the home of his son-in-law, F. C. Bow-ers, 315 East Thirty-fourth street, at 10:30 yesterday morning. At nightfall, when he did not appear, his wife became anxious and a search was made without results. At midnight the disappearance was reported to Captain of Police Moore at headquarters, but no trace of him could be found until he was discovered lying helpless and unconscious near the woolen nills. He died before his wife and daughter learned of his condition. When word reached them of his death, they were still engaged in a search for him. The Denver & Rio Grande scenery is even more beautiful in Winter than Sum-mer. Travel East via that line and spend a day in Sait Lake City.
