Motor Car Is Constructed for Safety and Speed.

IT CANNOT BE TELESCOPED

Momentum Will Save It From Smash-Up—New Car Will Be Put on West Side Run of the Southern Pacific.

OMAHA, Neb., March 8.—(Special.)—A motor car that is expected to work a revolution in interurban traffic is to be sent from the Union Pacific shops here, where it has just been completed, to Portland. It is to be used for local passenger service.

The car differs in almost every respect from anything previously put upon the track. In shape it resembles an inverted racing yacht.

The motive power is a six-cylindered gasoline engine. The car, however, is provided with large air reservoirs in order that it may be started and stopped by means of air pressure.

Special attention has been given to the sanitary features. The floor of the car is sealed and water tight and the edges

TRY CHIEF HUNT

Investigation Before Police Committee Today.

MANY OFFICERS TO TESTIFY

Chief of Police Declares He Welcomes Investigation, and Committeemen Say They Will Probe Matter of Favoritism.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock has been announced as a time for the assembling of Police Committeemen Beebe and Scheel, Councilman Fliegel, Chief of Police Hunt, Captain Bailey, ex-Sergeant Carpenter, four patrolmen and three special officers.

The public declaration, Councilman Fliegel makes the assertion that he can absolutely prove to any fair-minded body of persons that Chief Hunt has neglected to do his duty regarding the early closing of saloons.

It is said that Chief Hunt "welcomes the investigation," and that he will emerge from it with flying colors.

Committeemen Beebe, who for some time has been corresponding with Councilman Fliegel regarding the matter, requested the "reform member" to appear and produce the evidence he is said to possess.

throughout the state will begin to tremble again at the remembrance of what they have done.

The heretofore unconsidered fact that the Federal grand jury would have to adjourn sine die on the same day that the United States Circuit Court adjourned its present term has awakened the Government officials, who are handling the land-fraud investigation, into new and active life.

It was the intention of Francis J. Heney, United States District Attorney, when he left Portland for Washington, D. C., to return to this city about April 1 for the further delving into the tangle of ungraded law.

ONE OF PORTLAND'S PICTURESQUE HILLSIDE HOUSES

HOME OF DR. EDMUND J. LABBE, AT HEAD OF LOVEJOY STREET.

There is a little light in the hill which bounds Portland to the west, the deepest portion of which is between the head of Johnson street, and the beginning of the Cornell road, at the head of Lovejoy. A number of young men have built homes there recently, one of the most picturesque of which is that of Dr. Edmund J. Labbe, just south of the road.

It stands higher than the rest and looks out over the whole city, and yet is easy to reach. There is only room for a few homes in the light, and practically all that has been already built upon.

rounded, so that it can be flushed with hot water, killing all germs and removing all dirt with the least possible labor on novel principles.

LITTLE ONE ONE SOLID SORE Covered With Scales and Scabs From Head to Foot—Doctors and All Other Remedies Fail—Skin Now Smooth and Clear.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA Writing under date of Sept. 7, 1904, Mrs. Mattie Shaffer, of Cumberland, Miss., says: "Some time ago I ordered and received your wonderful Cuticura Remedies, which I used on my little afflicted babe with wonderful results."

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS At the First Sign of Disfiguring Humors Is to Use Cuticura. Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, becomes an object of the tenderest solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity.
