Educators and Thinkers Will Attend Fair.

SUNDAY OPENING INDORSED

Bright Outlook for the Conferences.

DR. E. P. HILL FILES REPORT

He Finds That Eastern Men of Prom-Inence Are Ready to Participate in the Discussion of Great World Problems.

The plans for a series of conferences and congresses at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, on subjects tending toward the higher life, are attracting a wide interest and attention throughout the East. The attendance of many of the foremost thinkers, speakers and writers of the country is already assured.

In a detailed report to President H.
W. Goode, Rev. E. P. Hill, D. D., who recently went East as the special representative of the Exposition to arrange for the attendance of men prom-inent in the world of thought, sets out that his mission is meeting with unexpected success. Prominent men are readily accepting the invitations. He finds the belief current among the best men that just now the Western country is in a plastic condition and that the broad discussion of specified topics will have the effect of leaving lasting impressions of a highly beneficial nature. Hence those who have been in-vited have the double stimulus of a fine trip and the knowledge that much good is to be done.

Sunday Opening Discussed. At present Dr. Hill is in New York having visited Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston and other big cities. He has recelved liberal space in all the leading periodicals because of the nature of his trip. The subject of Sunday opening in particular has raised a great deal of interest and has been given much space in the newspapers. Dr. Hill re-ports that a liberal view is taken of the Portland Exposition's determinament of the press generally, being of a favorable nature. The stand is taken on every hand that Sunday could be utilized to no better advantage than by the intellectual treats which the congresses and conferences will give and that such a course is far more laudable than the practice of keeping a great Exposition closed down on the seventh day which is the one occasion when a large mass of workers have the tion to keep open on Sundays, the comwhen a large mass of workers have the opportunity of attending. Those Who Have Accepted. In his reports Dr. Hill says:

There will be a thoroughly great educational congress. Such men as Howard J. Rogers, of Albany: Dean Russell, of the Teachers' College, New York: Frederick B. Pratt, of Brooklys, and Commissioner Harris, of Washington, are giving the matter their hearty co-operation. There will be an unprecedented congress on capital and labor, the programme for which is now being arranged by Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the National Civic Mederageoretary of the National Civic Federa-tion. This conference, it is hoped, will help the people of the Coast in avoid-ing some of the coastly blunders the older communities have had to suffer.

"The success of the civic conference also assured. Delegates from the different Coast cities and towns will be present to hear discussions on the problems which pertain to the govern-ment of cities. Clinton Rogers Wood-ruff, hecretary of the National Municipal League, is now assisting in the preparation of a programme for this important conference. Commissioner James R. Garrield has signified his intention to participate if his official duties will permit. "CHEROKEE BILL," Indian fighter, scout, cowboy, cavalryman and

"The congress which is attracting the widest interest among business men is that of the relation of America to the Orient. Of this particular congress President Roosevelt has given an enthusiastic approval and Secretary Taft has expressed his desire to be present and take part in the exercises. Senator John B. Foraker has also accepted an invitation to be present. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, of New York, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, is deeply interested in this congress and will deliver one of the addresses. Dr. Josiah Strong told me foat in his judgment not one person in a million begins to appreciate the atgriffeance of the Orient in its relation to America and the world."

R. W. McBride, executive commissioner for Idaho to the Fair, and Charence B. Hurtt, who recently held the same position, arrived yesterday to eelect a site for the Idaho building. This will be used both for display and entertainment purposes and will be one of the most attractive spots on the grounds, wherever it is. Idaho was known at St. Louis for the peculiar attractiveness of its building and the quality of cordiality of its hostosses. It will be even better known here, for the state has made a liberal appropriation of $25,000, $10,000 more than was spent at St. Louis, and there is already on hand an exhibit worth another $10,000. Besides being a place of royal entertainment, the being a place of royal entertainment, the building will contain exhibits of agricul-tural and horticultural resources, forestry, mining and educational displays.

Civic Improvement Board is Deter mined That All Obstructions on the Sidewalks Must Cease-Takes Prompt Action.

That the Chamber of Commerce board of civic improvement intends to see that the ordinances of this city relating to obstructions and debris on the streets and sidewalks are enforced was shown in the Municipal Court this morning when L. Penny, a butcher, was fined $5 for having boxes arranged in front of his place of business. Mr. Penny runs a butcher shop on Yamhill street. He has been in the habit of placing meat for display on boxes in front of his place of business. He was notified twice through the board that such action was not in accordance with the ordinances, but he failed to take heed of the warning.

Their cases were continued until Satur day. Warrants will be issued this morn-ing for Contractors A. J. Bingham, Mc-Leunan, Jacobson & Bade, Briggs & Williams, Patterson & Abraey. They will be arraigned on a similar charge. The proprietors of a number of Chinese stores will also be arrested.

"There have been several contractors who have shown an utter disregard for the cleanliness and nest appearance of this city," said L. E. Crouch last evening. Mr. Crouch is the legal adviser for the Civic Improvement Board. "We have warned them repeatedly that we were determined to prosecute every one who did not comply with the ordinances, so that they cannot say they were not given a chance to clean up. Some of the contractors, when building, have been in the habit of throwing earth and rubbish on the sidewalks and streets. It remains there for several weeks and then it gets wet and becomes a permanent obstruc-tion. As a result there is left an unsight-iy and unsanitary pile of rubbish on the street or sidewalk just because of the

He says it is impossible to reach all the places he is expected to go to by the Civic Improvement Board without this equipment.
