MEREY WANTED MONEY

BURGLAR RIFLES COMMISSIONER BARNES' TROUSERS.

He Pays an Early-Morning Call, and Takes $15 of Mr. Barnes' Money—Mrs. Barnes' Mistake.

"Keep still and it'll be all right," was the greeting of a burglar who entered the residence of F. C. Barnes, the well-known market man and County Commissioner, at 25 Tillamook street. The intruder is the celebrated thief who has been entering houses all over Portland of late and taking trunks. The time of his visit this morning was 2 o'clock.

The remark of the burglar was due to the fact that Mrs. Barnes was awakened by the tramping of feet about the sleeping apartment of herself and husband. She called to her husband, asking him if a dog was left in the room last night. He replied that he thought it was, and it was then that the early morning intruder spoke up.

"I don't want to harm any one—merely want money," said the burglar. Then the burglar made a dash from the room. It was supposed he was badly frightened, but upon close examination of the room, it was discovered that as he ran out, he laid hold of a pair of Mr. Barnes' trousers, containing $15 in cash, and carried them off.

As the burglar hurried from the room, the dog that was kept in the house gave chase, driving the fleeing "trousers" man away. Immediately after the occurrence, Mr. Barnes notified Captain of Police Bailey, and officers were dispatched to the vicinity. They found no trace of the burglar, although they remained in the neighborhood some time.
