AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Say.

"Joan of Arc." "Joan of Arc," at the Columbia this week, is one of the largest of the ambi-tious productions of the season at this The scene where Ivan dashes in on a beautiful white charger surrounded by soldlers and retainers is one of special beauty and never falls to call forth storms of applause. The picture is indeed a striking one. Another thrilling scene is the fail from a high tower into the most below, and it is the wonder of the audiences nightly the great nerve that Miss Countiss displays in risking so dangerous a fall for the sake of realism.

"Joan of Arc" will continue all week. with matinee Saturday and Sunday,

Seats for "Monsieur Beaucaire." Tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 16 ock the advance sale of seats will open for Creston Clarke, who comes to the Marquam Grand Theater next Tuesday night, March 21, in the beautiful roman tic drama, "Monaieur Beaucaire." It will be remembered that this delightful ro-mance adapted from Booth Tarkington's famous book proved one of Richard Mansfield's strongest hits, and our peo-ple's faith in the artistic ability of Cres-ton Clarke is sure to be rewarded in his rirayal of a character that in every way is calculated to fit his subtle talents.

Sweden Gives Way to Ireland. Ben Hendricks has kindly allowed the Ben Hendricks has kindly allowed the Ancient Order of Hibernians to use the Empire Theater tonight, but he will finish his very successful engagement with a mathee and night performance tomorrow. In his play, "Ole Oleson," Mr. Hendricks will sing six new and original songs, their titles being "Scandinavia," "Pass It On," "Philopene," "Northland Luilaby," "Pair Lend of Sweden" and "That's My Friend."

Last Performance at Matinee.

Tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, the last performance of "The Vir-ginian" will be given at the Marquam Grand Theater. There will not be a per ce tomorrow (Saturday) night

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Moonshiner's Daughter." A play that has never been seen in Portland, and one which had a New York production, comes to the Empire Theater for one solid week, starting Sun-day matinee, "The Moonshiner's Daughter" contains a story of noble heroism and a recital of brave deeds. A romantic love story, cleverly told, runs through the entire course of the play, which adds wach to the merit of the entertainment. "Thelma" at the Columbia

The delightful and picturesque love play, "Theima," will be given at the Co lumbia all next week starting Monday night. It will be the first real first-class production of the play in Portland, and special care will be given to the charm-ing scenic effects. The entire Columbia cany will appear in the cast in ideal, and "Thelma" will be one of the of the season.

Grand's Great Bill.

bill at the Grand may truthfully The bill at the Grand may truthfully be said to be great. With the Japanese troupe alone the performance would be meritorious, but when added to that is the Francesca Redding Company in the most legitimate comedy ever seen outside of New York City, and De Coe, the wonderful balancer, together with six other strong features, there is no wonder that people are satisfied. The great and thrilling ride for life by Sam Kichi has become the talk of the town. become the talk of the town.

Real Good Ones at Star.

Those babies of Hugh Emmet will make any one laugh. Emmett is at the Star this week, so that theater is the merriment center. He is a ventriloquist with feats that are marvelous as well as laughable. Inez Scott, with her novelty ser-pentine dance, a most gorgoous spectacle, is a stellar attraction. So are the Bunts Brothers, great hand-balancers: Badio Reynolds, the mimic; Mustard & Cook, vocalists; Lloyd Spencer, the all-round entertainer. The projectoscope is always
