

TWO FAT PUMPS

Senator Fulton to Give Away Good Jobs.

EACH PAYS $3000 A YEAR

Register and Receiver for Roseburg Land Office.

NEARLY SCORE OF ASPIRANTS

Senator Will Be Allowed Voice in Dispensing Patronage, and Will Be Besieged by Applicants on His Arrival Next Week.

Appointment of a new Receiver and Register for the Roseburg Land Office seems not far off. According to recent dispatches from Washington Secretary Hitchcock will be willing to have Senator Fulton's recommendations recognized. If so two fat jobs are at the disposal of Senator Fulton. Each pays $3000 a year and many political celebrities, yes, nearly a score, are hungry for one of the two slices of pie. Chief of these are:

- Thirteen of the Aspirants:
- S. L. Moorhead, of Junction City, chief clerk of the State Senate, newspaperman, a faithful adherent of the Mitchell wing of the Republican party.
- J. M. Shelley, ex-Representative to the Legislature, one of the steadfast followers of Senator Fulton in the last Legislature, and a miller of Eugene.
- S. M. Moran, of Eugene, shoe merchant and a prominent member of the G. A. R.
- E. P. Mulkey, ex-State Senator and president of the Ashland Normal School.
- F. B. Hamlin, of Roseburg, County School Superintendent; served in the Philippines as a Lieutenant of the Second Oregon Volunteers.
- W. C. Hale, of Grant's Pass, ex-Circuit Judge and ex-member of the lower house of the Legislature, a supporter of Senator Fulton's in the last Legislature and choice of the Oregon delegation in Congress for a Judgeship in Alaska.
- D. E. Shambrook, a business man of Roseburg, an ex-County Clerk; served as color sergeant of the Second Oregon Volunteers.
- Ira B. Riddle, of Riddle, Douglas County, ex-member of the lower house of the Legislature.
- C. S. Jackson, a lawyer of Roseburg, son of a well-known pioneer family and a graduate of the Law School of Washington.
- T. M. Dimmick, a tanner of Marshfield, and an ex-State Senator.
- J. M. Hansbrough, of Roseburg, ex-Representative to the Legislature and formerly a conductor on the Southern Pacific.
- George A. Waggoner, of Corvallis, author of a book of "Stories of Old Oregon," pioneer of 1852, once a member of the State Railroad Commission since abolished.
- George W. Riddle, a farmer of Riddle, pioneer, twice a member of the lower house of the Oregon Legislature, a prominent citizen of Douglas County and now a director of the Lewis and Clark Fair Corporation.

The foregoing 13 are not all, for echoes of other aspirants have been heard, such as Walter Lyon, a newspaper man of Independence, Polk County; an insurance man named Cochran, of Medford, and several more. Nor are they allowing the grass to grow under their feet. Most of them have been chasing the rainbow of promises for many moons. During the late session of the Legislature they strutted about the Capitol at Salem, spreading their fine feathers.

Senator to Be Besieged. President Roosevelt has shown a desire to allow Senator Fulton a voice in the dispensing of patronage in Oregon. Consequently the Senator doubtless will be hotly besieged when he arrives in Portland next week. He expects to start homeward from Washington tomorrow. The candidates to whom he is indebted for support for his Senatorship are: T. M. Dimmick, J. M. Shelley, Ira B. Riddle and J. M. Hansbrough, all of whom voted for Senator Fulton unwaveringly from first to last.

J. T. Bridges, Register, and J. O. Booth, Receiver, have been suspended by order of Secretary of the Interior for alleged irregularities which the Federal grand jury will investigate probably next month, and from which the Government will endeavor to secure an indictment.

Appointments May Be Made Soon.

The new appointments will be made very soon regarding a quite probable inasmuch as the Land Office at Roseburg is practically closed and business is accumulating. Pending the outcome of the prosecution, however, the business of his office could be turned over to Surveyor-General Daly at Portland. Section 95 of the laws relating to duties of officers of the Land Office, says:

"The President is authorized, in any case where he thinks the public interest may require it, to transfer the duties of Register and Receiver in any district, to the Surveyor-General of the surveying district in which such land district is located."

Mr. Bridges was in the city yesterday. He refused to discuss the charges against him and said he had no knowledge of what they were.

SEEK TO ARREST A. C. ZACHARY

Bench Warrant issued on a Federal Indictment.

One of the missions of the Federal authorities at this time is the location of A. C. Zachary, a former superintendent of the Butte Creek Land, Lumber & Livestock Company. When the indictment was returned by the Federal grand jury against the officials of that corporation in connection with the land frauds, A. C. Zachary was included in the list of names. Zachary's immediate departure from this vicinity caused the issuance of a bench warrant for his arrest. Upon information that he was in Tucson, Ariz., the warrant was sent to the authorities there, but it develops that he paid but a hurried visit to that territory and is now supposed to be in California. The authorities are sticking to his trail and will make every effort to secure his apprehension.
