TO PASS IN REVIEW

General Williams to Scan Third Regiment

PREPARATIONS FOR EVENT

Farewell Reception to Colonel Huston and Officers of Nineteenth Infantry is Also to Be Given Friday Night.

The quarterly inspection of the Portland contingent of the Third Infantry, O. N. G., to be held on next Friday night, will be marked by two conspicuous features, the review of the troops by General Constant Williams and the farewell reception to be tendered Colonel Joseph F. Huston and his officers of the Nineteenth Infan-

During the inspection the full corem of review will be gone through, with General Williams and his staff occupying the reviewing stand. This will be an event of more than unusual interest, since the chance is but rarely given the Oregon National Guard to be reviewed by an army officer of high rank. Blouses will be cleaned and brushed, buttons polished, stripes piped and the equipme given an extra amount of scouring in preparation for the event, and that the fortland boys will more than do themselves proud on that occasion goes withput saying. An effort will be made to merit if possible a greater commendation than that given them by General Mac-

Arthur at the encampment at American Lake last year.

Immediately following the inspection Colonel Huston, together with his staff and line officers, will be entertained by the officers of the Third Infantry. Since the Nineteenth will leave for the Philombies on April 1 this will be the last the officers of the Third Infantry. Since the Nineteenth will leave for the Phil-ippines on April 1 this will be the last opportunity for meeting its officers and the occasion will be made one of fare-well. Since being quartered in Vancou-ver Barracks a close bond of military kinship has existed between the efficers of the Nineteenth and their little brothers of Portland and many expressions of of the Niceteenth and their intercreases of Portland and many expressions of good wishes and good fortune are sure to be given them on the night of the 24th. While the officers' reception is in progress a dance will be tendered by the different companies to their guests and friends, with Company B in charge of the finer.

The orders issued for the inspection

foliow:
Canaral orders No. 2—Headquarters
Third Infantry, Oregons National Guard,
Pertiand, Or., March 17, 1905:
1. Headquarters, band, heapital detachment and Companies B, C, E, F, H, and K dismounted to the Colonel and noncommissioned staff, band and field muste to the Adjutant at the same hour and place.

2. Brigadier-Teneral Constant Williams,
United States Army, commanding the De-

Adjutant at the same hour and place.

I Brigadier-General Constant Williams, United States Army, commanding the Department of the Columbia, has accepted an invitation to review the troops in Portland on the above occasion.

I Companies A. D. G. I. L and M will assemble in their respective armories in dress uniform for inspecting and muster by their respective commanding officers at such times during the last week of the current month as the latter may designate.

I The attention of mustering officers is called to section 116 of the regulations.

Muster rolls showing all changes since last quarterly returns will be made up to and including date of muster, two copies of which will be handed to the mustering officer all the time of muster, the third copy will be retained by the company commander. The mustering officer will premptly forward one copy direct to the AdjutantGeneral and one copy to regimental headquarters.

Property and financial returns will be for-warded direct to the proper chief of de-partment, so as to reach his office not later than April 5, 1905.

6. The large drillroom on the second floor will be open to members of the regiment and their friends for dancting after the conclusion of the inspection, Company B will take charge of the floor and will so arrange the programme as will best promote the entertainment of the regiment's guests.

7. Major F. S. Baker is hereby detailed dellinquency court officer for the trial of enlisted men of the organizations of the regiment stationed at other points than Pertland.

regiment stationed at other points than Fortland.

8. Sergeant J. A. Royle, Company K. is promoted and transferred to the noncommissioned staff as Sergeant Major, First Battalten, to rank as such from March 14, 1906. Upon receipt of this order he will report in person to the Adjutant for assignment to duty.

8. Private George E. Hargis, Company E. is promoted and transferred to the noncommissioned staff as Color Sergeant, to rank as such from March 14, 1906. Upon receipt of this order he will report in person to the Adjutant for assignment to duty. By order of COLONEL GANTENBRIN, E. C. Mears, Adjutant.

Vagrant Escapes Under Fire.

Risking his life for the sake of liberty Henry McGloin yesterday made a break from the city rockpile pen and made good his escape. Guards Maloney and Smart were unable to pursue him, but fired sev-eral shots at him as he fied. He was serving a term of 60 days for vagrancy. This is his second escape from the offi-

Henry McGloin was sentenced by Muni-ipal Judge Hogue. The charge was agrancy. He is a notorious character, having been implicated in the robb the Albina Perry Exchange saloon. He turned state's evidence and was released. He was among the four who recently escaped from the City Jali by way of the bathroom. He was recaptured as he was walting for the Vancouver ferry.

Finds Wallet With Cash.

H. Howes, a young man who lives at University Park, and who is employed by the Peninsula Lumber Company, last night, while walking about the boxes of the Orpheum Theater, Fourth and Stark streets, saw a wallet lying on the floor. He picked it up. He hardly knew what to do with it at first, but finally decided to take it to police headquarters. Capain Moore opened it. tain Moore opened it and found a $10 bill, a certificate of deposit on a St. Jo-seph, Mo. bank for $100 and other papers. A card bore the name of Rudolph Michel.
