

FORGER IS SHOT

Detectives Wound Escaping Man.

RUNS WHEN ARRESTED

Day and Weiner Fire Three Shots; Two Take Effect.

CHECK-FORGING THE CHARGE

Louis Schumer, a Giant in Stature, is Captured After an Exciting Race, in Which He is Severely Wounded.

Louis Schumer, a veritable giant, under arrest on a charge of forgery, was shot down by Detectives Day and Weiner at Eighteenth and Sawyer streets at 7:30 o'clock last night, while attempting to escape. One bullet pierced his right leg above the heel and another entered the calf of the left, shattering the bone and imbedding itself in the flesh. He is now in Good Samaritan Hospital, under care of Assistant City Physician Slocum. He is expected to recover.

It is alleged that Schumer, who is aged 25 years, stands six feet and one inch in height and whose weight is 258 pounds, passed a check for $12.50 on W. H. Lehman, of the Pacific Hotel, during the forenoon. It was written on a blank of the First National Bank, made payable to the order of Schumer and was countersigned "manager Star Sand Company." When Lehman presented it for payment he was informed there were no funds to Schumer's credit.

At 7 o'clock last night Lehman called at Police Headquarters and turned the check over to Captain Moore, relating the circumstances and adding he wished officers to accompany him to Schumer's home. Detectives Day and Weiner were assigned to the case and started for Eighteenth and Raleigh streets, where the alleged forger lives.

Attempts to Escape Arrest. At Eighteenth and Sawyer streets Lehman saw Schumer and so informed the detectives. Schumer seemed to realize he was about to be arrested and assumed a defiant attitude.

"You are under arrest," said Detective Day, "and had better come along without making any trouble."

"I'll not go with you until I go home and see my wife," said Schumer, and he started to go toward his residence.

Both Day and Weiner laid hold of him, but he broke away and started to run.

Day and Weiner at first thought they could outrun the fleeing man, and Day got near enough one time to attempt to strike him with a revolver. Schumer swept back his powerful hand, striking Day in the side of the head and felling him in the middle of the street. Quickly regaining his feet, Day called out to Schumer to stop or he shot. Weiner also warned him.

"You're not game. You wouldn't shoot anything," Schumer sang out, and continued his race.

"Quit running or I'll hurt you. Schumer. You had better stop and avoid trouble," was Day's final warning.

Two Shots Take Effect. Still Schumer ran and became the target for the revolvers of Day and Weiner. Day was close on his heels, and it is believed the only two shots he fired took effect. Weiner fired once. Schumer dropped on the sidewalk, but never uttered a word. He was "game" throughout the ordeal, and did not complain.

Police Headquarters were notified and a patrol wagon dispatched to convey Schumer to Good Samaritan Hospital. There he was attended by Dr. Slocum. He refused to permit the house surgeons to attend him, as he said he wished an Eagle to have the case.

When Schumer's wife was notified of the trouble she replied that she knew what he was shot for; that she knew he had been passing forged checks, and that she intended leaving him and going to live with her parents. She refused to call upon him at the hospital.

It is believed by the detectives that developments will show Schumer to have been engaged in the business of passing checks for some time. His record will be investigated thoroughly today. He has lived in Portland but five weeks.

WILL NOT DEPOSE CHIEF HUNT Mayor Denies Rumor That the Ax is About to Fall.

"I have no intention of deposing Chief Hunt. I know of no reason why I should do so. My position is exactly the same as it has always been."

The foregoing is the statement of Mayor Williams regarding the reported plan of the Mayor and police committee of the Executive Board to put Charles H. Hunt on the shelf for political reasons.

The rumor has been heard on the street corners for several weeks. Members of the police committee have vigorously denied it. The Mayor has refuted the report before, and did so again last evening. The Chief of Police has been under an investigation because of the charge that he permitted certain saloons to remain open after 1 o'clock. The verdict is still looked to the minds of General Beche and Sig Sichel, of the committee. It will probably be a declaration that Chief Hunt is doing his duty and enforcing the law.

SPECIAL SALE TODAY. Special values in "Queen" undermisettes, silk gowns, drawers, corset covers, knit underwear, Mount Hood shirt, men's underwear, socks, corsets, kid gloves, suits, jackets, house wrappers.

M'ALLEN & McDONNELL. For Violating Liquor Ordinance. The police are continuing the crusade against violators of the 1-o'clock closing ordinance and the latest to suffer arrest is A. Elmer, of the Maze Cafe. He was booked at police headquarters yesterday and will have a hearing today before Municipal Judge Hogue. Sergeant Sliver caused his arrest. He is said to have been selling liquor to two men in his establishment at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.
