BIG COLF CONTEST

All the Coast Will Send Champions.

TOURNAMENT WILL BE IN JUNE

Waverly Links Are in Fine Condition, and Some Excellent Playing Is Assured With Many Contestants for Honors.

The first golf contest for the championship of the Pacific Coast will be held in Portland during the Lewis and Clark Fair on the Waverly links. The date is not definitely decided yet, but it will be some time during June. It will be open for all comers, from the East and from the West, and will include particularly golfers from Oregon, Washington, California and British Columbia.

of yesterday or of the day before, but friction with the Northern California Golf Association has prevented the ex-scutive committee of the Waverly Golf Club from announcing its plans earlier. It has now been found that the Northern California players cannot be induced to give up their San Rafael tour-nament, at which nominally the cham-pionship of the Pacific Coast is to be held, so the players of Southern Call-fornia have joined with the Northwest Golf Association, which by the bye is stronger than either of the California organizations, and will hold one true championship tournament here. Previously the nominal championship of the Const has been played twice at San Francisco and twice at Los Angeles, but as the golfers from this portion of the Const were not permitted to compete, there has never been a true onship played.

Southern California in Game. Since this is the first championship tournament, there will be a great crowd attending, particularly from Southern California, where the golf players are disgusted with the course of the Northern California golf players. Friction there has all been below the surface, though the newspapers of California have not spoken of it. Special dispatches to the New York Sun explain the attuation. In these it is explain the situation. In these it is said that J. F. Sartori, president of the Pacific Coast Golf Association, ex-pressed himself displeased with the sction of the Northern California Golf Association in persisting in its right to hold the contest at San Rafael. The San Rafael links are not of champion-ship size and, the dispatch reads, many players who would be willing to come

The outcome will be that the San Rafael tournament will take place, but Rafael tournament will take place, but its significance will pale before the Lewis and Ciark tournament. The California players themselves realize this, and though they will not give up their own, they have agreed to take part in the Portland tournament. Both Northern and Southern California players will come and will be matched against the many expert golf players of Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane, Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. It will be a big match and undoubtedly many Britt, he plans to return to Engiand at

Now that the big tournament is about arranged, local players are beginning to take a great interest in it. The wayery Club has already gone about making improvements upon its course, which is already in very good condi-tion, so that by the time of the tourna-ment it will be as good as any on the

It was hard work to explain to certain California golfers what advantage there would be in holding a genuine Coast championship instead of the nominal one which has already had four tournaments. They did not realize what good players there were in this portion of the country. But Newton, of Seattle, played in the semi-finals in the St. Louis tournament, and Macleay. Gifford, Blyth and half a dezen other Portland players can play against anybody Colifornia can produce. British Columbia. Tackga and Seattle all have very good players, and none need be ashamed to play against any in the whole country. Tinal is why ize what good players there were in any in the whole country. That is why the tournament is to be thrown wide open. There will be nothing provincial about it at all. There is no need for sheltering behind regulations that none but members of a certain association can compete. The better players of California realize this now, and they all stand ready to play in the Lewis and Clark tournament,

LOS ANGELES WILL KEEP CHASE

American League Wants First Baseman, and War May Be Result.

LOS ANGELES, March 20.—Harold Chase, first baseman of the Los Angeles team, who was drafted by Clark Griffith, manager of the New York American League club, has decided to remain on the Pacific Coast and today signed a con-tract to play with the Los Angeles team during the coming season. Chase's case has been causing a great deal of comment in the press, the Eastern magnates being inclined to hinge the entire question of drafting players on this particular player.

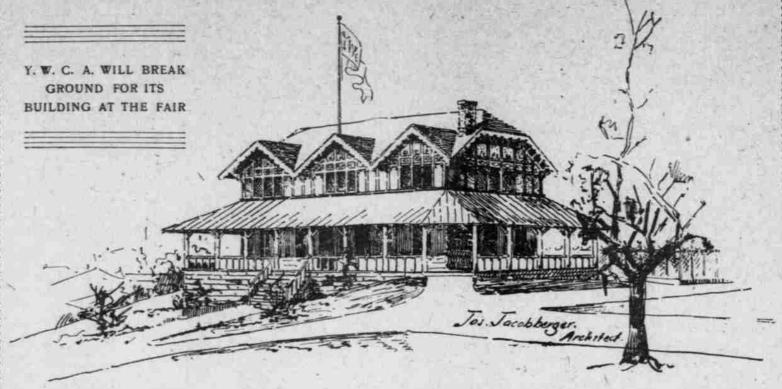

Manager Morley stated today that he had signed Chase with the understanding that war had been declared between the American League and the Class A minor

The Young Women's Christian Association is more than busy with getting all details arranged for its building at the Fair grounds. On Wednesday of this week at 3 P. M. Mrz. W. S. Laid will break the ground. Dr. E. P. Hill will rondout a short service, accompanied by Dr. A. A. Morrison and Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, and a beautiful dedication anthem will be sung under the charge of Mrs. Fletcher Linn. All the directors and committee workers, numbering 150, are expected to be present. The association has engaged Mins Constance McCorkie to take care of this building. She is a native of Virginia and can tell innumerable darky stories. The dainties of home meals will be served and a quick lumcheon counter will be provided for those who are in a hurry. There tired mothers may leave their little ones while they enjoy picture galleries and other exhibits, knowing that sand piles and swings, games and foys will be used by competent women to keep the children happy. Ladies who wish to entertain at law friends at luncheon or afternoon is a may give their orders. The Nurses' Association has joined forces and will entertain its friends with the Y. W. C. A.

No other association in the country has ever planned to be as represented at an exposition before, and the ladies feel that never was such an opportunity offered for presenting their work to the people of the surrounding states. They are sending for exhibits all the way from British Columbia to Southern California, besides what is conting from the American committee. They are advertising their building in all the religious magazines and papers of the country and will spare to pains to make the undertaking such a success that the Pair Commissioners will feel that they have made no mistake in granting them such a beautiful panorama.

Miss Helen F. Barnes, one of the National secretaries, who has just been here, said in her Pebruary report to the American committee: "In Portland I had a busy time. The association is in the midst of great things. The ladies are planning to build most artistic headquarters at the Exposition grounds. They are helping with the travelers aid work for the Exposition; have just reorganized a large domestic science department, in addition to the plans for a new building, the opening of the extension department, with the regular work which a membership of 1200 members in a large city demands."

The advantage the Waverly course has over most on the Coast is that it is full length, having over 6000 yards. This is true of few courses in the country, and good players like to play on the long courses.

The Northwest championship has been scheduled for Seattle, but when the Seattle players were here last week they said that they would probably be willing to forego their right, angles made its only run in the second trial. The country and in that case the Northwest championship.

Captain Briggs and four of his crew still remained on board, but at the peril of their lives. The Spartan went ashore at high tide, and rested on great boulders, several of which had pierced her bottom and stove a large hole in her forward compartment.

More Water Where Chinook Dredged ASTORIA, Or., March 26.—In the line on the bar over which the dredge Chin-ook worked last year there is now 24 feet of water at low tide, which is four feet more than at the same time last year, and which is directly attributable to the work of the dredge. For this reason those interested in shipping here hope that the dredge will be placed in commission on the bar again during the present Summer. This sentiment of shippers is declared not to be criticism of the ultimate good that is to result from the jetty work, but a tribquired from the dredge.

ELECTION TODAY

Financial Affairs Are Discussed and Rigid Quarantine Against Typhoid Urged by Members at Quarterly Session of Body.

The quarterly session of the State Board of Health convened at the office of the secretary, Dr. Woods Hutchinson, yesterday morning with every member of the Board present. At the forenon session nothing but routine business was transacted. During the afternoon the proposition of declaring and enforcing a rigid quarantine against typhoid fever was discussed and a recommendation made that quarantine against typhoid fever was discussed and a recommendation made that a quarantine be enforced forbidding those attending patients afflicted with typhoid from mingling with other members of the household wherein the disease was and the display of a card warning the public of the existence of the malady.

Considerable time was taken during the afternoon convention with a discussion afternoon convention with a discussion of the financial affairs of the Board and of the manneal affairs of the Board and the best means of curtailing the ex-penses to the end that the Board might have a sum of money to make a display at the Exposition, and to provide for anti-toxine and vaccine for use where anti-toxine and vaccine for use where contagious diseases were prevalent. While no comment to the effect was made during the sessions of the Board yesterday, it is generally understood that some fault is being found with the manner in which the office of the secretary is conducted. The state makes an ap-propriation of $5000 annually for the State Board of Health, and of this sum over Board of Health, and of this sum over $3000 goes for the expense of keeping up the secretary's office, and some of the members of the Board are inclined to criticize Dr. Hutchinson for not devoting more of his time to the official duties of his office. At the session today the report of the secretary will be read, and at that time it is expected that some action will be taken.

The dust, decayed fruit, and other fifth that is brought to the Coast in the tourist cars has been a menace to the public health for some time and it is with an idea of abolishing the practice of leaving the cars until arrival in this city for cleaning that the committee was appointed.

At today's session the question of the sanitary conditions of the Exposition grounds will be discussed and the appointment of health officers in the various cities of the state will be taken up. It has been decided to request that the appointments be made of physicians Coast in the tourist cars has been a

The annual election of officers will be held at the session this afternoon and it is expected that an entire new set will be selected, as it seems to be the opin-ion of the members of the Board that the official positions should be passed around.

The samitation and food supply of Port and during the Exposition, the water supply at the State fair grounds and the Ashland cemetery will be matters of importance to come before the Board today. Consideration of the appointment of a consulting architect and engineer to the Board will be a feature of the session.

my order, will hand you a full dollar's worth and send me the bill.

Why do work and worry and excess and strain and overindulgence break down constitutions and make men and women worn out and run down and restless and sleepless and discouraged and morose? Because they weaken the tiny tender nerves on which life itself depends.

Not the nerves you ordinarily think about—not the nerves that govern your movements and your thoughts.

But the automatic nerves that, unguided and unknown, night and day, keep your heart in motion—control the digestive apparatus—regulate your liver—operate your kidneys.

These are the nerves that worry wears out and work breaks down.

It does no good to treat the alling organ—the irregular heart—the disordered liver—the rebellious stomach—the deranged kidneys. They are not to blame. But go back to the nerves that control them. There you will find the soat of the trouble.

It does no good to treat the managed kidneys for theirs, at best, is but a temporary effect which merely postpones the final day of reckoning.

There is nothing new shout this—nothing any physician would dispute. But it remained for Dr. Shoop to apply this knowledge—to put it to practical use. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the result of a quarter century of endenvor along the very line. It does not does the organ to deaden the pain—but it does not at once to the nerve—the inside nerve—the power nerve—and builds it up, and strengthens it and makes it well.
