Seattle Council Trying to Pay Expenses of Trip Abroad.

SEATTLE, Wash. March 21.—(Special.)

-Vince H. Faben has been retained by a group of Seattle business men auxious to defeat a plan of Seattle city officials ope for six months to study the old-country systems of sawage and other municipal problems. The Council passed an ordinance setting aside $300 for the trip, but the Mayor vetoed it on technical stounds. Now an effort is being made to pass another appropriation specifically stating the engineer shall visit Eastern cities and European points to investigate garbage systems.

The opposition is based on the allegation that the trip is a junketing mission to inform the engineer on points he should be familiar with. In connection with this fight there is a story current that Thomson's salary is agon to be raised to $500 annually. Lase Friday, one of the most popular and best known acheolicachers. Miss is a Roberts, had a fit of temporary insanity. The lady has been boarding at the residence of William Parka and had planned the night before to make a vigit to the home of Mr. Fenwick, intending to start about noon. Miss Roberts' sister, who is also teaching and boarding at the Parka home, was sick in bed at the time, having had a slight attack of paralysis.

Miss Roberts appeared in her eletter's bedroom with a revolver in her hand and ordered her sister to get up and accompany her, which she immediately did. She isho covered Parks' little girl with the gun and made her stand. Mrs., Parks, coming into the room, was also ordered to stop, but, listend, she fainted. After being restored to consciousness, Miss Roberts ordered her to accompany them on their trip, but Mrs. Parks begged her to let Mrs. Williams so instead. This she family consented to. She then ordered a tirree-shated rig, holding the revolver all the time so as to cover the little girl. She then ordered the driver to set on the front seat, while little girl the back, while one man stood up behind her and the little girl. In this way they proceeded on their journey.

In this way they proceeded on their journey. It is said that 14 men on horseback arcompanied them, but all were afraid to attempt the rescun of the child for fear she would shoot her. After traveling for some distance, Miss Roberts was induced to defer her visit to Mr. Fenwick's and go to Sid Knight's inseas, Hiders had gone in advance and notified Knight of what was coming. By the time the rig arrived Miss Roberts had, evidently, somewhat recovered her smith, for she relaxed her vigilance so far as to drop her revolver in her saichel. Mrs. Williams secured the weapon, and, on going into the house, the woman was secured.

It is said that during the entire trip, some 15 miles, she never took the revolver off the In this way they proceeded on their journey

How many women right here in Portland are in her condition, dragging out a weary existence? They are not sick enough to lie in bed, but they are overworked, thred out, run down, thin, nervous and miserable. Buch women will be interested in Miss Beu's letter.

Miss Beu writes: "I was nervous and weak, having constant headaches, and that general wornout, overworked, thred-all-the-time feeling. Vinol was recommended to me as a wonderful cod liver oil restorative for weak, thred women. I tried it and it has made an entirely different person of me. I am well and strong, and can do my work with ease and without fatigue. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Vinol to overworked, thred, nervous women, as I believe it is without an equal in its wonderful restorative powers."
