The statement was then made that the ordinance would never come back from the committee alive. Of the four members of the committee in the city, only Mr. Zimmerman appeared at the City Hall, and the ordinance did not get out of the committee box.

old argument over the clause requiring the automatic system was heard again yesterday.

"I'll never vote for the franchise unless there, is something in the ordinance which makes you put in the automatic system," declared the Councilman. We'll give a bond that we'll install the automatic system, but this franchise is for E years, and if sweeping improve-ments were made on telephones and the other company put a new system in, where would we be?" questioned Attor-

The remonstrance against the assessment for the Front-street fill over the Woods-street guich was formally file with the City Auditor yesterday. #### Hold Novel Parliamentary Session

THE parliamentary department of the Woman's Club, led by Mrs. W. Wynn Johnson, gave the club members and many of their friends a jolly afternoon yesterday at the "International Convenon of the Buttinskys." "Yankee Doodie" was played by "Susy's Band," directed by Mrs. Kaiserin Augustus Victoria, upon various homemade instruments, after which the secretary having the credit of the delegates called the roll. Mrs. Sullivan Fits-Corbett (Mrs. A. Tilper) was elegical sergeant-al-arms. Mrs. Fits-Corbett arose to say that she wished to be excused from speechmaking, as she ed by Mrs. Kaiserin Augustus Victoria, to be excused from speechmaking, as she was only a prisofighter, but hoped that some disturbance might arise in order that her ability might be shown. Later the sergeant-at-arms was given this oppor-tunity when Carrie Nation (Miss Eliza beth Sill) made her address attempting to convert her audience to Mormonism, dur-ing which the hatchetwielder became violent. Mrs. Johnson opened the convention by giving the delegates permission to be as rambling in their remarks as they pleased, and to speak as far as possible from the point, which they proceeded to do, to the great delight of the club.

fenpecker's Club" was repre-y "Mrs. Bantam Buff Cochin" Rothchild), who asserted that her club had the largest membership in the world. Mrs. Buff Cochin unrolled a huge paper containing Il resolutions for the training of men, but was only given time to read a few of these, among which "Resolved, that whereas the men sciale to their liking, they be deprived of the right to vote.

"Resolved, that whereas the streetcleaning department has not been able to keep the mud off the streets, that the depariment be conducted by women."

Mrs. H. M. Ogden, as "Mrs. Katherine

Club," presented her club's compliments. Mrs. H. M. Ogden, as "Mrs. Katherine MoFadden," of the "Happy Hooligan Ciub," presented her club's compliments, and a jug of "jyful julce," and spoke enshuniastically of civic improvement. She recommended also that Congress be asked to make an appropriation of $30,000 to provide sunshine for Sunnyside during the rainy season, and that the sainty of superintendent of intoxication be

"Mrs. Leghorn Brown" (Mrs. Julia Lawton) of the "Boneless Egg Club," said that her club, except for an occasional cackle, was one of the most quiet and orderly, and that by ambilious efforts hoped to reach to gander heights.

Mrs. M. M. Sleeth's oratorical effort created great applause, being given as Minerca Sappho Sohronisha Gashlatinon, delegate from the Gossipitis Club. This club, the delegate said, was founded by Adam himself, when he told on Eve, the latter then becoming a charter member.

"Look at Russia today," said Mrs. Gasbiatinon; "she has a red revolution go-blatinon; 'she has a red revolution going on-why?' Because all gossiptis clubs are suppressed and the members sent to Siberia. Just so long as the Grand Dukes insist upon suppressing these clubs will these same Grand Dukes have to be gathered up in baskets."

Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, as "Miss Orelia Blood," represented the "Knockers' Club of Suilivan's Guich," and Mrs. Charles Smith, as "Mrs. Phoebe Ann Doolittle," the "Salmon Propagating Club of St. Johns." Mrs. Doollitle was very emphatic in her remarks relating to the salmon industry and said:

Mrs. Runyon represented, as "Mahatible Huggins," the "Adamiess Eden Club," describing the early work of the club," describing the early work of the club, when Cleopatra, Ruth, Naomi, Saphira, Lot's wife and Rebecca we're members, the last named being most active in pos-ing for the art department.

Before adjournment the convention voted without hesitation to accept the invitation of the "Henpecker's Club" for the meeting next year. Fruit, punch and doughnuts were served after the programme by members of the parlian tary department.

Not Guilty of Assault.

In the Municipal Court yesterday John Murphy and Andrew Matson, of the Longshoremen's Union, were found not guilty of assault and battery on R. Nel-son and Charles Bock. The latter two are members of the Sallors' Union. The trouble took place over the loading of the ship T. P. Emigh. Judge Hogue, after hearing the evidence, stated he thought the defendants acted only in self-defense. Book and Nelson are to be tried on assault and battery charges later.
