Chairmen of Nine Districts Report Progress.

PLAN BUSY WEEK'S WORK

Parades About Streets, Noon Meetings at Theaters, Gatherings of Men, Women, Boys and Girls, Midnight Mass Meetings.

That the revivalists mean to take old Satan by the collar and shake him as he was never shaken before was the conviction of all present at a meting of the executive committee held yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. For over two hours the mombers of the committee wrestled with the problems of fighting the devil, and finally emerged with a shout as of a victory already won. The reports from the nine districts into which the city has been divided were given by the chairmen of each committee, and strange as it may each committee, and strange as it may seem, every one of the committeemen ex-pressed the opinion that his district had the strongest man, and extended a little sympathy to the other eight. All were well pleased with the work of the singing evangelists, and just bubbled over with enthusiasm when the probability of securing conversions was mentioned.

As a result of the labors of the executive committee a programme was arranged for the meetings next week, which includes not only the evening services al-realy announced, but parades about the streets, meetings at noon at the theaters, gatherings of men, meetings of women, talks to hoys, assemblages of girls, heart-to-heart talks with young men and lunchtime meetings with the workingmen at the shops, stores, nills and factories. A midnight mass meeting and street parade will be the feature of the week. The evangelists and hundreds of Christian men and women will assemble after the reg-ular services and march in a body through the streets toward the North End. where will enter into a religious warfare the hearts of the habitues of the district, and probably hold a midnight service in one of the theaters on Burn-

Sunday a Day of Effort.

Sunday will be the day of work from the indpoint of the evangelists. At all urches the regular pastors will preach In the morning in their respective places of worship. At 2 P. M. Rev. W. E. Biederwolf will deliver his famous sermon or octure on the "White Life" at the Marquam Theater to men only. This is considered by the revivalists to be one of the greatest sermons ever preached, and it is said that some of the most wonderful conversions have followed its hearing. Every man must have a ticket, which will be furnished free. Harry Maxwell, the celebrated high tenor, will lead the singing, and will sing "The Holy City" and "Shall I Meet My Sainted Mother?" #### REV. D. S. TOY'S SERMON. Asks All to Join in Saving Souls of Men.

A blowing rain dampened the clothing, but not the arder, of the large congregation that gathered at the Fourth Presbyterian Church last night to listen to the summer of Rev. Duniel S. Toy. A large chorus of voices led by Frank Dickson by their friends.

opened the services with several songs.

As a solo Mr. Dickson sang, "Must I Empty Handed Be?" and ere he had finished the first verse many of the congregation were wiping away the tears with a feeling that there is a sermon in

Hev. D. S. Toy's text was Daniel, xii.2:
"They that he wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that it turn many to righteousness as the stars forever." Dr. Toy spoke in part as follows: "The desire to shine is an almost universal human ambition. That person who has no desire to shine will make little progress. It is a perfectly legitimate desire. No one should be satisfied to be merely a thing. Last night Rev. Mr. Stelsle met the council and addressed the members on the proposition. They grew enthusiastic over the idea, and several made speeches deciaring that the integests of the church and the laboring men were in some phases identical. They thought that the presence of a delegate at the meetings of the Ministerial Association would enable ministers to look upon

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"Our New Man" Monday.

Those who can give us a good laugh in these somewhat cynical and callous days deserve well of their fellow-creatures. The gift of being miserable and unpleasant is pretty widely disseminated. The ability to transport people into a world of bright-ness and mirth is a rare one, and opporness and mirth is a rare one, and oppor-tunities for a laugh ought not to be light-ly allowed to escape. "Our New Man" accomplishes it, and "that odd.fellow," Harry Beresford, in the title role will prove a tonic for the soul at the Mar-quam Grand Theater next Monday night, March 27. Seats are now selling.

Pollard's Sale Today.

The sale of seats for the Pollard Lilli-putian Opera Company will open at 16 o'clock this morning at the box-office of the Marquam Grand Theater. "The Belle of New York" will be the opening play presented on Tuesday evening, and will ue until Thursday night. Friday and Saturday nights will be devoted to "The Geisha," and the matinee attraction on Saturday afternoon will be "H. M. S. Pinafore," with little Daphne Pollard as Sir Joseph Porter. Bir Joseph Porter.

Star's Matinee Today.

Frosini, the musical senius, who makes the accordeon send forth floods of the most entrancing melody is an act at the Star Theater that appeals to all music-lovers. Barnoid's trained dogs take part in a comedy that amuses children of all ages. The novelty of seeing dogs play funny pranks at the dining table is certainly interesting. Matinee at 2:30; evening at 7:30 and 9 P. M.

Activity in Civic Improvement.

That the people of Portland are becom ing allve to the needs of co-operation in civic improvement is shown by the fact that there were 52 applications for mem bership in the board of civic improvement of the Chamber of Commerce resterday afternoon. All the applications came in one mail and kept the secretary busy for a short time in filing them away for the next meeting of the board, when they will be considered.

be considered.

No new work is being undertaken by the civic improvement board at this time, which, however, does not mean that there is any lack of activity. All departments are at work and the plans which ments are at work and the plans which have been outlined are being carried to completion and success.

HEREDITY Can Be Overcome In Cases.

The influence of heredity cannot, of course, he successfully disputed, but it can be minimised or entirely overcome in some cases by correct food and drink. A Connecticut lady says:

Connecticut lady says:

"For years while I was a coffee-drinker I suffered from billous attacks of great severity, from which I used to emerge as white as a ghost and very weak. Our family physician gave me various prescriptions for improving the digestion and atimulating the liver, which I tried faithfully but without perceptible result. He was acquainted with my family history for several generations back, and once when I visited him he said: "If you have inherited one of those torpid livers you may always suffer more or less from its linaction. We can't dodge our inheritance, you know."

"I was not so strong a believer in heredity as he was, however, and, beginning to think for myself, I concluded to stop drinking coffee, and see what effect that would have. I feared it would be a severe trial to give it up, but when I took Post-um and had it well made, it completely filled my need for a hot beverage and I grew very fond of it.

"I have used the Postum Coffee for three years, using no medicine, and the change has completely cured me. During all that time I have had absolutely nope of the billous attacks that I used to suffer from, and I have been entirely free from the pain and debilitating effects that used to result from them. The change is surely very great, and I am compelled to give Postum Coffee the exclusive credit for it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Hold Enthusiastic Service. An enthusiastic service was held at the Forbes Presbyterian Church last night. The power and enthusiasm of the singing seems to be growing with every meeting. The audience, as has been the case thus far, was composed largely of church members, old men and young, in goodly numbers, women and a few boys and girls scattered through the audience. There were some unconverted, however, and the sermon was for them. The rendering of "Twe a Savior," "Some Day the Silver Cord Will Break" and "Face to Face," by Clifton Powers, the soloist, was very touching. Mr. Needham took his thought from Titus, speaking of the "grace God" and what it teaches.

Many Greet Chapman.

Many Greet Chapman.

Dr. Chapman was greeted by another large congregation hast night at the First Presbyterian Church. The singing of Fred Butler was particularly good, and that by the choir led by Charles F. Allen was greatly increased in volume and finish over the preceding services.

Dr. Chapman announced as his text: "And as thy servant was busy here and there he was gone. And the King of Israel said unto him: "So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it." From I Kings xx: 90.

I Kings xx:40.

At the services has night the singing was a special feature. Mr. Marwell has a chorus choir of over 80 voices, accompanied by an orchestra. He sang very impressively a solo entitled "Face to Pace." Under the direction of Mr. Marwell the music at the Taylor-Street Church during the evangelistic campaign will be much a special feature. And the full chorus choir will be maintained, with the possible addition of many more singers before the campaign is over.
