TWO DEFENDANTS ARE MISSING B. F. Minton and A. Zacheray, Who Were Indicted, Disappear.

When the land fraud cases are called the Federal Court the Government will miss two of the defendants. It has been learned definitely that Benjamin F. Minton and Adelbert Zacheray have vanished over the border into some land where land frauds are not.

Minton was indicted for complicity in some of the Meldrum bogus survey cases and has been living at Woodruff's camp near Everett, Wash. He has not been found by the United States Marshal who went to look for him, and his mail has been accumulating at Everett for several weeks.

Zacheray was indicted with W. W. Stelwer, H. H. Hendricks and others in the Butte Creek Land, Lumber & Live-stock case in Wheeler County, in which indictment the company was charged with having fenced up a large part of the Government land in Wheeler County contrary to the laws of the United States. It was supposed that he was in the interior of the state but the officers have not been able to find him and he is given up as lost.

Trustee of Bankrupt Accused.

Attorney J. N. Hoffman, of Hillsboro trustee in the case of Joseph Mahoney, bankrupt, is charged in a petition filed in the United States Court with having been unfaithful in the discharge of his duties. Hoffman says that all of his acts have been entirely regular and that the petition filed by W. H. Lyds, one of the creditors, is but a piece of spitework. creditors, is but a piece of spitework. The hearing has been set for April 14.

GRAND THEATER

CHALLENGE TO THE STAR

James H. Errickson, manager of the Grand Theater, offers to wager $500 to $250 that the Star management cannot prove that the seven men now playing at the Star Theater are the real and original Sheake family of acrobats and have the moral and theatrical right to the use of the Shenke name, and that the Star cannot show these so-called Shenkes are other than several acrobats expressly put together to discount any reputation that might come to the Grand Theater by reason of their contract to play the real and original Shenkes on April 10.

The loser agreeing to donate the sum so lost to any worthy charity in the city which shall be named by Mayor

The parties to the wager shall have the right to produce evidence before the city and a decision of the majority of the judges to be final and decisive.
