

GOSPEL IN SONGS

Evangelist Preaches in Gilded Concert Hall.

HIS HEARERS RESPECTFUL

Erickson's Jammed With a Big North-End Crowd.

BEER SOLD DURING SERVICE

House's Orchestra of Girls Gives Way to Rev. Mr. Snyder, and His Audience Listens to Talk on Manhood.

The evangelists went into the by-ways last night with their means of grace and carried it to "the other half," since "the other half" has scruples against "secking."

It had been announced that on the stroke of 10 a brief service would be held in that Temple of Ten Thousand Delights, known colloquially as Erickson's. For the benefit of those who are neither evangelists nor "the other half," it might be stated that Erickson's is a "combination" of vast proportions and glitter where wine, women and song may be found by the wayfarer man though he be a fool.

When 10 o'clock came the band of uncertain female musicians were discoursing upon the melody of "Teasing," or something equally as enticing. Through the curtains of the boxes there were to be had glimpses of benevolent-faced hours and "representative business men" discussing bottled beer. On the ground floor was collected the motley array of male humanity which the North End can turn out, and all the time cash registers were doing their best.

There was a heavy draft upon the bars, for the place was full and every inch of the place was being worked to the hilt. Over all was the happy noise of aly perfume and the radiant glow of many lights.

SERMON ON SALOON STAGE

Erickson's Filled with Patient Throng to Hear Talk on "A Man." The evangelists were greeted with open arms at Erickson's concert hall last night. Long before the hour set for their appearance upon the stage a crowd of men, gathered about the rostrum and a number of women and their escorts filled the boxes to listen to the sermon of Rev. J. E. Snyder and the singing of the Chamber quartet and O. P. Fugh.

OFFICIALS WHO WERE INTERESTED IN THE PRELIMINARY TELEPHONE FRANCHISE SCRIMMAGE IN THE COUNCIL YESTERDAY

L. ZIMMERMAN, WHOSE AMENDMENTS WERE ADOPTED. CITY ENGINEER WANZER, AN IMPARTIAL OBSERVER. C. E. RUMELIN WHEN AROUSED TO ACTION.

Church district shows no abatement. Dr. Ostrom's sermon, which followed the usual song service, was very effective. His subject was "The Moral Life; Its Dangers."

will be held every night in one of such places. MUSIC HELPS DR. ELLIOTT Centenary M. E. Church Well Filled at the Evening Meeting.

CITY FATHERS AGT Sumner Telephone Franchise Is Considered. PASSED FOR PUBLICATION Vote Stands Six for and Three Against, with One Councilman Absent—Meat Inspector Ordinance Is Introduced.

were very numerous and that it was unsafe to carry money on his person. He advised the young men to put his money in the dress suit case.

When the singing was done the applause was deafening for a minute, but before the encore could be responded to Rev. Mr. Snyder appeared and preached a very interesting sermon upon the subject: "A Man." He was followed by O. P. Fugh in a solo. A short prayer was offered, in which Mr. Snyder asked the Lord to bless Mr. Erickson and his hearers as well as those who had listened to the sermon.

At Calvary Baptist Church. The attendance last evening in the Calvary Baptist Church, in the Ninth district, showed an increase over former meetings. Rev. Henry W. Stough, assisted by Mr. Collison, the singing evangelist, conducted an effective sermon. Dr. Stough is considered one of the strongest platform speakers among the evangelists. Last night he was particularly forcible, and was well supported by the choir of Mr. Collison and by the large choir.

LAND SALES AT MILWAUKIE. Grasley Bros. Buy Two Tracts—New Water Plant May Be Installed. Two land deals have just been completed at Milwaukie, and a second water plant is to be constructed by T. R. A. Sellwood, J. W. Grasley purchased an acre of land near the grape vineyard of J. H. Reed on the high ground in the eastern part of Milwaukie, the purchase price being $1800. The tract is partly covered with the clearing and improvement of this tract. His brother, recently from the East, has purchased 12 acres of land from T. R. A. Sellwood in the heart of Milwaukie. The tract is partly covered with fruit trees. Mr. Grasley, the new owner, will improve this tract. The Grasley brothers are both successful fruitmen.

Another Club Thinks Differently. But though the Multnomah Democratic Club is content with Lane alone, another club, the Young Men's Democratic, is not. It believes that as many candidates as possible should be named for the office. Most of its men of valor are of a persuasion antagonistic to the fact that now dominates the party and which rules the Democratic ticket. However, Thomas and Peery do not seem to be pulling together, and it is said that L. T. Peery himself could be induced to run with a little coaxing.

Evangelistic Meetings Are Well Attended in Various Districts. Yesterday was "Bible conference day" with the evangelists. That was the announcement which appeared upon the programme. They started the meetings as early as 8:30 in the morning, and at intervals of an hour held gatherings at different places every hour during the day. The same persons did not appear at all of the meetings, but many stayed from morning until night, and even then followed to the North End.

ROBBERS WORK THE TRAINS Shrewd Thieves Outwit Passengers and Get Their Money. It is alleged that an organized gang of crooks operates on all the transcontinental roads that lead into Portland. They find business good because of the immense throngs of people hurrying to this section of the country.

LODGE TO INSTALL OFFICERS. Mount Scott Lodge, I. O. O. F., will install its newly-elected officers tonight at Woodmore Hall.

NO WATER TO CARRY LOGS. J. A. Stillman Says That Diversion of Creek Leaves Timber Stranded. Papers were filed in the United States Court yesterday covering the transfer to that court of the State District Court of the case of J. A. Stillman vs. the Mount Hood Lumber Company.

MANY STAY THROUGHOUT DAY

Evangelistic Meetings Are Well Attended in Various Districts. Yesterday was "Bible conference day" with the evangelists. That was the announcement which appeared upon the programme. They started the meetings as early as 8:30 in the morning, and at intervals of an hour held gatherings at different places every hour during the day.

REBELS WORK THE TRAINS

Shrewd Thieves Outwit Passengers and Get Their Money. It is alleged that an organized gang of crooks operates on all the transcontinental roads that lead into Portland. They find business good because of the immense throngs of people hurrying to this section of the country.

LODGE TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Mount Scott Lodge, I. O. O. F., will install its newly-elected officers tonight at Woodmore Hall.

KRESSLER MASTER OF VIOLIN

New York Critics Speak of Him in High Praise. Perhaps there is nothing to be said about Fritz Kreisler that will do more to convince the Portland people of the greatness of this musician than to quote from the New York papers, and tell what the most learned and scholarly critics in the United States said about his playing and his effect upon his audiences.

REV. J. E. SNYDER, EVANGELIST, PREACHES TO A LARGE CROWD IN ERICKSON'S CONCERT HALL.

REV. J. E. SNYDER, EVANGELIST, PREACHES TO A LARGE CROWD IN ERICKSON'S CONCERT HALL.

REV. J. E. SNYDER, EVANGELIST, PREACHES TO A LARGE CROWD IN ERICKSON'S CONCERT HALL.

REV. J. E. SNYDER, EVANGELIST, PREACHES TO A LARGE CROWD IN ERICKSON'S CONCERT HALL.

REV. J. E. SNYDER, EVANGELIST, PREACHES TO A LARGE CROWD IN ERICKSON'S CONCERT HALL.

THE HEALING POWER OF CUTICURA SOAP AND ECZEMA

Democrats Will Run Doctor for Mayor.

SURE OF NOMINATION Club of Cohorts Will Boom Him, and Him Alone.

STRONGEST IN THE PARTY Young Men's Club, Unlike Multnomah Democratic, However, Will Hold Out Helping Hand to All Aspirants.

Dr. Harry Lane has been made to see the bright light by brethren of the Multnomah Democratic Club, and has announced his willingness to run for the Democratic nomination for Mayor. Saints of the club met last night to hear the glad tidings from the committee of 12 apostles who had braved his long coyness and at last won him by their wooing.

And forthwith M. J. Malley, the self-same who was said to have advised Lane in his own bonnet, but did not solemnly deny the allegation, moved that a committee of three valiants carry to Dr. Lane the tender sentiments of the club and tell him that he had received its endorsement.

The motion carried with a whoop, whereat President C. B. Williams chose John Manning, M. J. Malley, and John Lamont to bear the glad tidings. Earlier in the evening Dr. Lane had made known his willingness to try for the Democratic nomination.

"Will you run for the nomination?" "Well, I am a candidate," he was asked. "Well," replied the doctor coolly, "that's what my friends have said for me."

Such talk as this pleased the patriots last night from the hall on their heads to their shoeleather, and they beamed brightly when the doctor's name was mentioned. Those That Shine. And who's the starbust? Among them the brightest in the Democratic firmament to wit: General Killfeather, who as usual belittled himself in an oration that thrilled the gentlemen to the very marrow of their bones; Pat Fowles, who was unusually subdued; Alex Sweek, big chief of the "Citizens' Club" of Oregon; John Manning, calmer of tumultuous waters; and others of lesser magnitude, like Jim Foley, Patrick Maher, John Henry Brennan, E. E. Hanes, Joe Malley, J. E. Williams, S. C. Armstrong, "Citizen" Parker, A. E. Ream, Ludwig Wilhelm, John W. Grussel, T. W. McGovern, J. E. Simmons and C. A. Petrain.

Another Club Thinks Differently. But though the Multnomah Democratic Club is content with Lane alone, another club, the Young Men's Democratic, is not. It believes that as many candidates as possible should be named for the office. Most of its men of valor are of a persuasion antagonistic to the fact that now dominates the party and which rules the Democratic ticket.

Aid for Ambitious. Such was their declaration at a meeting last week, and they appointed a committee to encourage all aspiring sons of the party to come forth and be patted or clubbed according to the wish of the brethren of the rank and file. Not that they thought Dr. Lane a weak candidate or a bad man; indeed, they held him in a strong candidate and a good man, but they said unto one another:

Decry Talk of Jealousy. And because the Sweek crowd, represented in the Multnomah Club, was first to boom Lane and has informed him, there is said to be a trace of jealousy in the other camp. But the Lane boomers say they have not seen or heard anything of it, and declare that it is all a false alarm. In Democratic circles the opinion is general that Lane is the strongest candidate that the party can name.

When the club met last night, C. E. Williams, as its president and as chairman of the committee, had to coax Lane, proclaimed that the committee had selected no candidate, but that it could announce Dr. Lane willing to run. Warms of the club were not cold, and the time was short, he said. Besides, a man was now in the field (Thomas) who would win the nomination were the party not to come forth and be patted or clubbed. As for himself, although boomed until he felt highly flattered, still Lane was the only stalwart who could lead the hosts to the promised land. This and more came out of Malley's mouth, until he wound up by proposing a committee of three to wait on Lane and tender him the endorsement of the club. The motion was carried.

Jim Foley rose up to say that a lot of peasant politicians were snuffing around who wanted to straddle everything that came up, as if the people would stand for it. He objected to prostration, because it was the thief of time, and there were enough thieves already. He wanted

PSORIASIS AND ECZEMA

Milk Crust, Tetter, Ringworm, and Scalled Head, and Every Form of Torturing, Disfiguring Humors from Infancy to Age.

CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost supernatural virtue to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures and honour remedies of the civilized world.

CAPT. GRAHAM'S CURE

Of Distressing Humour. Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 Eoff St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing under date of June 14, '04, says: "I am so grateful to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them Cuticura Soap and Ointment did it."

the club to get a move on. What was the use of belonging to an organization that humiliated its members? "Foley got so far off on a sidetrack that Williams called him back, whereupon he subsided, and Manning proceeded to pacify the warring. The club, Manning said, must move carefully, and not be too hasty. Other Democrats, he suggested, were to be considered besides members of the club.

General Killfeather arose, and oratory flowed from his mouth. Corruption, he declared, would be driven from the City Hall were Lane elected, nor would Colonel Hawkins have in him a curio for the City Museum. The General then proceeded to boom C. A. Petrain for Municipal Judge. That gentleman responded by saying that he had an idea of entering the race, but had not yet made up his mind.

John H. Stevenson, political writer for the Evening Telegram, was endorsed for Councilman-at-Large. BOY SLASHES A CHINAMAN. Prominent Corner Scene of Fight, but Assailant Dodges Policeman. An old, decrepit Chinaman was the victim of a brutal assault yesterday afternoon. The assailant, a boy, was about 14 years of age. It occurred on the corner of Washington and Sixth streets about 4 o'clock. The Chinaman was walking down the street, when he accidentally ran into the boy.

The boy, who was a husky lad, immediately attacked the Chinaman, who resisted him. The boy was armed with a knife, and he slashed the Chinaman's face and hand. The Chinaman was bleeding from several severe wounds. His face was a mass of blood, and it looked as though it had been lacerated with a knife. The boy ran away, and the Chinaman called for help. A policeman appeared upon the scene, but the officer first arrested the Chinaman, but there were so many spectators who saw the fight, that the policeman was entirely in the wrong that he was turned loose. The officer then attempted to find the boy, but he had disappeared. The extent of the Chinaman's wounds are not known, as he refused attention. When he walked away he seemed very weak because of the loss of blood.

FIFTEEN YEARS A LODGE. Members of Upchurch, A. O. U. W., Celebrate Anniversary. The fifteenth anniversary of Upchurch Lodge, No. 128, A. O. U. W., was commemorated last night at Upchurch Hall, Seventeenth and Marshall streets. The address of welcome was delivered by Ralph Peery, grand master, and he was responded to by Newton Clark, grand recorder. William Clark, grand foreman, also spoke in response to the address of the chairman. The evening was a delightful recreation. The programme was an enjoyable one and interested all present.

NO WATER TO CARRY LOGS. J. A. Stillman Says That Diversion of Creek Leaves Timber Stranded. Papers were filed in the United States Court yesterday covering the transfer to that court of the State District Court of the case of J. A. Stillman vs. the Mount Hood Lumber Company. The complaint filed alleges that Stillman is the owner of the northeast quarter of section 1, township 1 north, range 2 west, Willamette meridian, and that his property is covered with valuable timber, that Beaver Creek has its course through his land, and that at high water the timber is the sole means of marketing the timber owned by Stillman. It is further alleged that the Mount Hood Lumber Company, by having a dam farther up the stream, has diverted the waters of Beaver Creek from their proper channel and leaves Stillman without means of taking out his logs. The object of the suit is to secure a perpetual injunction restraining the Mount Hood Lumber Company from diverting the waters of Beaver Creek from their natural channel.