CHANCE LEADS TO DISCOVERY

Imperial Court in Panic on Learning That Terrorists Have Penetrated Court and Corrupted the Police.

SPECIAL CABLE.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—At last the terrorists have succeeded in penetrating the cordon of guards about the czar, and in smuggling high explosives into the palace itself, and as a result there is a feeling of apprehension among all the high officials and the guards about His Majesty being treacher.

Late yesterday afternoon, as the guard at the palace was being changed, Lieutenant-Colonel Shiraupski, who was in command, noticed that one of the Cossacks who had been posted at the main door was wearing the sword of an officer, and that the sword of a Cossack thereupon called a Corporal and placed the man under arrest. He was at once searched and incriminating documents were found on his person.

Search of the palace revealed two packages of dynamite, placed against the main door of the imperial suite, in a dark corner, where they were not likely to be noticed.

A searching inquiry was at once instituted, with the result that 12 secret police agents were arrested as accomplices, and all were hurried to the Peter and Paul fortress, where they were interviewed by General Treppoff.

The fact that the terrorists have succeeded in corrupting members of the secret police and soldiers has caused much alarm, and another attempt against a high official is looked for.

TRUE CURE FOR RUSSIA'S ILLS

Doctor's Congress Prescribes Political Reform and Liberty First.

MOSCOW, April 5.—The Congress of Doctors, from all parts of Russia, which was summoned to meet in Moscow under the auspices of the Prolegomena Medical Society to devise means for combating the expected visitation of cholera, which congress was first prohibited but later was granted permission to meet under the condition that it discuss only scientific questions, has justified the apprehensions of the authorities by adopting, as its first step in the anti-cholera crusade, a set of resolutions calling for the execution of the whole radical political programme. This grafting of political considerations upon the ostensible medical aims of the gathering is justified, the speakers argue, by the incapacity of the present administration to cope adequately with cholera. The resolutions declare that an improvement in the economic conditions of the people is necessary as a basis for the preservation of health, and that for future prevention of epidemics it is imperative to make radical changes in the law, an increase in the quantity of land allotted to peasants and to satisfy the demands of the industrial classes and grant all concessions necessary to completely tranquilize the ignorant population, among whom otherwise it will be impossible to execute sanitary measures. Even the resolutions, the proposals culminated in a demand for the immediate convocation of a constituent assembly, on the basis of a universal ballot without distinction of sex, nationality or religion.

Stop the War at Once.

The congress, in which there are over 1300 delegates, representing nearly every district of European Asia, also demanded the immediate stopping of the war, declaring that a policy of conquest and adventure had thrown the country into terrible and extensive poverty in which cholera would flourish. This action of the congress was not unexpected, as the medical profession of Russia is largely composed of Jews and Poles and has been subjected to the radical influence of the universities. The delegates professed extreme alarm at alleged attempts to incite the ignorant classes against the educated liberals, and the whole spirit of the resolutions breathes overtures to the working classes for united action.

Demands of the Congress.

Among the demands set forth in the resolutions is the transfer of the police to the executives of the local governments; guarantee of freedom of speech, the press and assembly; union and strikes; amnesty for all political and religious prisoners and exiles; equality of all nationalities; languages and religions before the law; compulsory education; separation of church and state; introduction of an income tax; abolition of indirect taxes and the main political basis of the Gopon petition of the St. Petersburg workmen of January 22. One resolution favored responsibility of the ministry to a representative assembly, on the basis of the discussion of the bacteriological and sanitary aspects of cholera and immediate preventive measures. A number of reports on disinfection were presented. The Congress favored it wherever possible, but declared general compulsory disinfective measures impossible. The possibility of an outbreak of cholera in the Far East was also discussed.

The local authorities throughout the Empire are also aroused at the danger of an epidemic and orders are being issued by all city officials for the cleaning of slums and unsanitary districts and for measures to localize the disease wherever it appears.

COSSACKS USE THE KNOT.

Funeral Procession Brutally Dispersed—Woman Shot by Strikers.

WARSAW, April 6.—(1:15 A. M.)—In anticipation of the funeral of a girl who died of wounds received in the fighting on Sunday, the workmen of all the factories in the northern part of the city left their work yesterday afternoon and crowded the streets. The police, fearing a hostile demonstration, forbade the funeral and summoned Cossacks, who, using their knouts and swords freely, finally succeeded in dispersing the gathering. Owing to the closing of the University of Warsaw, 1600 students were dismissed yesterday. All students whose conscription year will be completed, however, are now on strike.

A nonstriking woman at the gas works, whom the strikers had condemned to death, was shot and severely wounded yesterday by a workman who escaped.

The police and military made a further house-to-house visit in the suburbs of Wola Tuesday night, where they arrested 15 persons and discovered great quantities of revolutionary proclamations.

EVEN WOMEN TAKE UP ARMS

Driven From Czar's Forests, They Return and Beat Foresters.

SPECIAL CABLE. VIENNA, April 6.—A dispatch from Vienna states that all of the able-bodied men in the district having been sent to war by the czar, the women and children invaded the imperial forest and began to cut the dead timber, arguing that, as the protectors were away in the service of the Emperor, there could be no harm in securing fuel to warm themselves from the frost in the woods. The foresters, however, turned the house of the chief forester and so badly injured him and three of his assistants that all are expected to die.

PEASANTS LOOT AND BURN.

Caucasus Scene of Renewed Uprising—Attack on Police Official.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—Official advices report continued disorders in the Caucasus. Within the past week peasants have looted and burned public offices in the district of Tiflis, and have looted schools and private estates, cutting down trees and threatening to kill the police if they interfered, and forced priests to go with them and preach a cult of solidarity with their cause. Similar but less serious disorders are reported to have taken place in the Tiflis district. At Kishinev Wednesday night an unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate Assistant Police Commissioner Kirghil.

BURTON WILL SOON RESIGN.

KANSAS SENATOR REGARDS SUPREME COURT DECISION AS VINDICATION.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 5.—A special to the Journal from Abilene, Kan., says: "Senator J. R. Burton will resign his seat as United States Senator in a short time, according to information given out by one of his close personal friends here. After he was convicted, and pending his appeal to the Supreme Court, he could not resign for fear that it would be taken as an admission of guilt. The Supreme Court reversed the decision and Burton now stands as innocent, until convicted again. He believes this is a good time to withdraw from the Senate."

SENATOR O. H. PLATT VERY ILL

Aged Connecticut Statesman Suffers From Pneumonia.

WASHINGTON, Conn., April 5.—United States Senator Orville H. Platt is ill at his summer residence here with bronchial pneumonia. Senator Platt was taken sick with a severe cold while returning from the funeral of his colleague, Senator Hawley, two weeks ago in Hartford. During the last few days the trouble increased in intensity, but today it was said that the chances of recovery were good, marked improvement being reported this afternoon.

BLOODY TRAGEDY OF STREET

Mutilated Body Thrown Away by a Man Who Eludes Pursuit.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The headless, legless trunk of a young man was found late tonight on Vallejo street, near Powell. It was still warm and the flesh was quivering when picked up. The body was wrapped in an old blanket, tied up with fisherman's twine. A man was seen to throw the bundle away by a passby, who pursued him, but failed to overtake him. So far there is no clue to the identity of the murdered man or his murderer.

THE RIGHT TYPE OF CITIZENS

Indian Territory Advised to Study Quality of Its Citizenship.

SOUTH MALESTER, I. T., April 5.—Statehood was the President's text at this place. He told the people that Indian Territory would probably come into the Union in a year or two. "Let the children come to the front," said the President, as the crowd thronged around his car, and the children did come to the front. The President was up standing by to make room. The President, after repeating his remarks earlier in the day regarding statehood, said:

"I am particularly glad to greet everywhere I have been today so many school children. I need not tell you that what really counts in any state is the character of men and women who make up that state. You have a wonderful soil, a wonderful climate. You are doing some good industries. First of all that will not avail you if you don't have the right type of men and women in the state. That is what I believe you are paying heed to the education of the young people, and girls in particular. I do not want to press too far. I do want to say that you have a right to make you understand the responsibility that rests upon you. Rightly or wrongly, you are going to have a country.
